The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have been pleased to appoint Mr. D. J. Wardley, C.M.G., M.C., a Principal Assistant Secretary in His Majesty's Treasury, to the office of Deputy Master and Comptroller of the Royal Mint and ex officio Engraver of His Majesty's Seals in succession to Sir John Craig, C.B., LL.D., with effect from the 1st February, 1949.

The KING has been pleased to grant to Brigadier David Mercer MacDougall, C.M.G., unrestricted permission to wear the Special Cravat of the Order of the Brilliant Star conferred upon him by the President of the National Government of the Republic of China in recognition of services rendered during the war.

Whitehall, December 3, 1948.

The KING has been pleased to award the Edward Medal to John Victor Harrilds, train driver, in recognition of his gallantry in the following circumstances:—

At about 1.45 p.m. on 4th November, 1947, a small boy, aged 2 years 10 months, strayed on to the electric railway lines of the British Railways (London Midland Region), where he was seen to fall on to the rails by a woman on the platform who immediately gave the alarm.

A leading porter gave instructions for the current to be cut off and the driver of an approaching train to be warned, and then went to the end of the platform where he saw the child lying unconscious between the rails, apparently electrocuted. The child was between the positive rail and the outer running rail (about 1 foot apart).

About the same time an electric train ran into the station. The driver, John Victor Harrilds, seeing several people on the line left his train to see what was wrong, accompanied by a Railway Inspector. They saw the child between the rails. Harrilds at once ran forward, removing his coat as he did so, and, without hesitation, placed it over the child and lifted it from the track. The child was badly burnt about the head and left leg and was removed to hospital, where he was detained.

It is not known whether the electric current was off by the time Harrilds acted, but he did not know the situation nor wait to enquire. He was fully aware, as a driver of an electric train, that his action was one entailing risk of immediate death, the more so as it was a wet day.
