CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

St. James's Palace, S.W.1.

15th July, 1949.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the award of the George Medal to:—

(590994) Pilot I Richard COLBOURNE, Royal Air Force, No. 23/151 Squadron.

Pilot I Colbourne was the pilot of a Mosquito aircraft which crashed on the night of 14th February, 1949. The aircraft was en route to Holbeach Gunnery Range to carry out a night air to ground firing exercise and was loaded with high explosive and ball ammunition. Shortly after take off both engines failed and the aircraft made a forced landing in a plantation of trees. The aircraft suffered severe damage before coming to rest and caught fire immediately afterwards. Pilot I Colbourne received a blow on the head as the aircraft landed and was temporarily dazed. In this condition he called to his navigator (who was not in his seat), and received a reply which he thought came from outside the aircraft.

By this time the fire had spread rapidly and his clothes were burning. Although his legs were trapped by wreckage, he managed to get out of the cockpit, ran clear of the fire and smothered the flames on his clothing. He then looked for his navigator and, finding no one in sight, realised that he was still in the aircraft. Despite his injuries, and knowing that the aircraft was loaded with high explosive ammunition and in imminent danger of exploding, Pilot I Colbourne crawled back into the wreckage of the cockpit and found the navigator in the nose of the aircraft where he had been flung by the impact. At this point the aircraft exploded and the ammunition and pyrotechnics also ignited. Pilot I Colbourne, although severely burned, extricated the navigator and dragged him clear of the flames, where he was joined by a civilian who assisted in stripping the navigator of his blazing clothing. Despite his own very severe injuries and although in great pain, Pilot I Colbourne refused to be assisted into a vehicle for conveyance to hospital until he had satisfied himself that the navigator had been lifted in and was receiving attention. Throughout the journey Pilot I Colbourne remained conscious and showed great solicitude for the navigator. On arrival at the hospital both airmen were placed on the "dangerously injured" list, the navigator dying of his injuries some 20 hours later. Pilot I Colbourne has since been removed from the danger list but is still suffering considerably from severe burns. Pilot I Colbourne showed great fortitude, personal courage and devotion to duty under conditions of extreme danger when he was in considerable pain from his injuries. His actions were in every way in accordance with the highest traditions of the Royal Air Force.

Civil Service Commission.

15th July, 1949.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz.:—

RECRUITMENT UNDER NORMAL REGULATIONS OF THIRD CLASS VALUERS IN THE INLAND REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

1. Candidates must (save as provided below) be at least 25 and under 35 years of age on the 1st July, 1949.

But, exceptionally for the year 1949, candidates who are 35 years of age or over on that date will be eligible, without any upper age limit. In general, however, Government Departments require a reasonable period of service from persons newly appointed to the Civil Service, and accordingly the Commissioners reserve the right to give weight to this factor in considering candidates for these posts who are over 50 years of age.

2. (i) Both men and women may compete under these Regulations.

(ii) Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who are widows or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid.

3. Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject; or

(ii) have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalised British subjects, they must have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

4. Candidates must, on the closing date for the receipt of applications, have passed the Final Examination of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors, or of the Chartered Auctioneers' and Estate Agents' Institute, or of the Land Agents' Society, or hold a University Degree (e.g., B.Sc. (Estate Management) London, or B.A. (Estate Management) Cambridge) which gives exemption from the examinations of any one of these bodies. They must have had at least four years' professional experience before or after qualifying in:—

(a) the office of a F.R.I.C.S., F.A.I., F.L.A.S., or any Government or municipal service; or

(b) the office of any other surveyor, estate agent, or land agent which in the opinion of the Commissioners and the Department gives an adequate experience.

Time spent on agricultural subjects at a University or approved Agricultural College and followed by the obtaining of a degree or diploma may count up to two out of the required four years.

For posts involving the valuation of minerals, four years' mining experience will be required in place of the professional experience specified above, and for these posts possession of a First Class Certificate of Competency (Mine Managers) or the passing of the Final Examination of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors in the Mining subdivision will be accepted as professional qualifications.

Candidates for vacancies in Scotland should preferably have had Scottish experience.

5. Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

6. Every candidate must apply on the appropriate form within the time and in the manner of which notice is given by the Commissioners.

7. Those candidates who appear from their application forms to have the best qualifications will be summoned to an interview before a Selection Board which will recommend to the Commissioners for appointment the candidates who appear to them to be most suitable. The Board will take into consideration the candidates' record of education and experience, any recommendations that they may receive from persons named by the candidates as having direct knowledge of their work in the past, and the personal qualities of the candidates as shown at the interview, and on their estimation of the above evidence they will frame their recommendations. The decision of the Commissioners will be final.

8. Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

9. Every successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £1 before the issue of a certificate of qualification for appointment.

10. Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's work.
