PRESENT,

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted inter alia that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being, or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas by Your Order in Council dated the 26th day of June, 1946, rates of pay and of marriage allowance were instituted with effect from 1st July, 1946, for Petty Officers and Seamen of the Royal Navy and for non-commissioned officers and men of the Royal Marines:

“And whereas it has been found desirable that certain of the aforesaid rates of pay and the rates of marriage allowance should be increased as from 24th November, 1948, subject to men called up for National Service and joining for duty on and after 1st January, 1947, not receiving the increased rates of pay before they have completed 12 months' service and have attained the rating of Able Seaman or above; and not receiving the increased rates of marriage allowance at any time during their initial period of called up service, separate provision being made for them in National Service Grants:

“And whereas it has been found desirable to introduce rates of pay additional to those provided in Your Order in Council dated the 26th June, 1946, for the payment of boys and of artificer apprentices, and of certain ratings employed on aviation duties, and also for certain qualifications, responsibilities, extra duties, or special circumstances arising during service in the Royal Navy:
