CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

St. James's Palace, S.W.1.

11th October, 1949.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the award of the British Empire Medal (Military Division) to:—

566359 Flight Sergeant David William LAMPLUGH,
 Royal Air Force, Royal Air Force Station, Woodvale.

On the 3rd June, 1949, a Spitfire aircraft, when returning from an exercise with a full load of ammunition, crashed about a mile from its base and burst into flames. Flight Sergeant Lamplugh, N.C.O. i/c Servicing Echelon, who was standing by to receive the aircraft, observed the smoke rising from the fire and promptly ran cross-country, ignoring all obstacles, to the scene of the crash. The aircraft was then blazing in the forward sections and ammunition was exploding in all directions. Despite grave danger from the exploding ammunition and the intense heat, Flight Sergeant Lamplugh immediately approached close to the aircraft in order that he might gain proper appreciation of the situation. He then took charge of the Station Fire Crash Crew and, ignoring the intense heat and exploding ammunition, endeavoured to control the fire in the cockpit area, with a view to rescuing the pilot and removing the rest of the ammunition. With complete disregard for his personal safety he cleared away the ammunition and succeeded in breaking away the tail unit of the aircraft. Through the aperture thus made and despite the flames and the danger to himself, Flight Sergeant Lamplugh succeeded in reaching the cockpit and extricating the pilot, who, however, was found to be dead. Throughout the whole of these operations Flight Sergeant Lamplugh displayed great courage, leadership, determination and a complete disregard for his own personal safety. His gallant actions were in accordance with the highest traditions of the Royal Air Force.

Air Ministry, 11th October, 1949.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the publication of the name of the following officer who has been Mentioned-in-Despatches (posthumous) in recognition of services in operations against the enemy in 1943:—

Pilot Officer I. C. MacKenzie (Aus. 405005),
 No. 408 (R.C.A.F.) Squadron.

Air Ministry, 11th October, 1949.
