

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 31st day of March, 1950.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 27th day of January, 1950, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for constituting a new parish to be taken out of the parishes of Saint Oswald, Middlesbrough, and West Acklam in the diocese of York.

"SCHEME

"Whereas we, the Church Commissioners, are satisfied that the spiritual interests of the area defined in the subjoined Schedule and delineated on the map hereto annexed would be best served by constituting it a new parish:—

"And whereas we are satisfied that a suitable endowment therefor will be provided:

"And whereas we have not approved any consecrated church within the area as suitable to be the parish church of the new parish:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Cyril, Archbishop of York, (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and affixed his archiepiscopal seal to this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, do humbly recommend and propose as follows, that is to say:—

"1. Constitution:

(a) As from the licence thereto of a minister the area defined in the subjoined Schedule and delineated on the map hereto annexed shall be a separate district for spiritual purposes.

(b) As from the date of the consecration of a church within the area approved by us as suitable to be a parish church, or if the church is consecrated before such approval, the date of the approval, the said area shall become a new parish.

(c) The name of the district (or parish as the case may be) shall be 'The District (or Parish) of Saint Chad, Middlesbrough.'

"2. Archdeaconry and Rural Deanery:

The said district and parish shall be in the archdeaconry of Cleveland and in the rural deanery of Middlesbrough.

"THE SCHEDULE

"The area comprising:—

All those contiguous portions of the parishes of Saint Oswald, Middlesbrough and West Acklam (shown by the pink and blue colours respectively on the map) which taken together are bounded upon the south-east by the parish of Marton in Cleveland and upon the remaining sides by an imaginary line commencing at a point on the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Oswald, Middlesbrough from the said parish of West Acklam in the middle of Marton West Beck, 6 chains, or thereabouts, north-west of Newham Bridge at the junction of an unnamed brook or stream with Marton West Beck and continuing thence first north-westwards and then south-westwards along the middle of the said unnamed brook or stream for a distance of 9 chains or thereabouts to a point (south of Newham Bridge Farm) at which the said brook or stream meets the track or footpath leading to Newham Bridge Farm and continuing thence first northwards and then north-westwards along the middle of the said track or footpath (thereby passing the western side of Newham Bridge Farm) to the middle of Tollesby Road and continuing thence northwards along the middle of Tollesby Road to a point opposite to the middle of its northern end in the middle of Emerson Avenue and continuing thence eastwards along the middle of Emerson Avenue to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of The Avenue and continuing thence northwards along the middle of The Avenue to a point opposite to the middle of the western end of Eastbourne Road and continuing thence eastwards along the middle of Eastbourne Road to a point in the middle of the bridge or culvert which carries Eastbourne Road over Marton West Beck (thereby following in part the boundary which divides the said parish of West Acklam and the parish of Saint Barnabas Linthorpe from the said parish of Saint Oswald, Middlesbrough), and continuing thence south-eastwards to and then along the middle of Marton Burn Road to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of Ashfield Avenue and continuing thence south-eastwards along the middle of Ashfield Avenue to a point opposite to the middle of its south-eastern end in the middle of Deepdale Avenue and continuing thence first southwards and then south-eastwards along the middle of Deepdale Avenue to the south-eastern end of Deepdale Avenue and continuing thence in the same straight line for a distance of 31 chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Oswald, Middlesbrough from the said parish of Marton in Cleveland."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of York.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 31st day of March, 1950.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 27th day of January, 1950, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for altering the boundaries of the parishes of Saint Nicholas, Bishopwearmouth; Christ Church, Bishopwearmouth; Saint Gabriel, Bishopwearmouth; Saint Matthew, Silksworth; Saint Barnabas, Middle Hendon; South Hylton (or Ford); and Herrington all in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas we are satisfied that it is desirable that the boundaries of the said parishes should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Alwyn, Bishop of Durham, consents to the proposed arrangements (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme):

"Now, therefore, we the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme the boundaries of the said parishes of Saint Nicholas, Bishopwearmouth; Christ Church, Bishopwearmouth; Saint Gabriel, Bishopwearmouth; Saint Matthew, Silksworth; Saint Barnabas, Middle Hendon; South Hylton (or Ford); and Herrington shall be altered in the manner described in the Schedule and delineated on the map annexed to this Scheme.

"THE SCHEDULE

"1. The territory, shown by the green colour on the map, to be annexed to the parish of Saint Nicholas, Bishopwearmouth:—

All that portion of the parish of Saint Matthew, Silksworth, which is bounded upon the north by the said parish of Saint Nicholas, Bishopwearmouth, and upon the remaining sides by an imaginary line commencing at a point on the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Nicholas, Bishopwearmouth, from the said parish of Saint Matthew, Silksworth, in the middle of Tunstall Road and continuing thence southwards along the middle of Tunstall Road to the point where Tunstall Road is crossed by the boundary of the County Borough of Sunderland and continuing thence generally westwards, along the said county borough boundary to the point in the middle of the railway line of the Hetton Colliery Railway where the said railway line is crossed by
