TUESDAY, 3 OCTOBER, 1950

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, S.W.1.
3rd October, 1950.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to appoint Michael Anson, Esquire, to be a Page of Honour to His Majesty, in the room of George Paynter, Esquire, resigned.

The appointment to date from the 1st October, 1950.

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

St. James's Palace, S.W.1.

3rd October, 1950.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the posthumous award of the GEORGE CROSS to:—

3500148 Aircraftman 1st Class Ivor John GILLETT, Royal Air Force, Far East Flying Boat Wing, Seletar.

Aircraftman Gillett, a Fitter Armourer, was a member of the ground crew on board a Sunderland Flying Boat which blew up at its moorings at R.A.F. Flying Boat Base, Seletar, on 26th March, 1950. Rescue surface craft were quickly on the scene but the aircraft and a bomb-scow alongside sank rapidly and survivors from the explosion were hurled into the water. A life-belt was thrown to Aircraftman Gillett from a rescue launch. He was seen, however, to throw the life-belt to a seriously injured corporal who was in danger of drowning near him. In the confusion the rescuers had not been able to reach the corporal. Gillett was a great friend of his and knew he was not a strong swimmer. The life-belt kept the corporal afloat until he was rescued unconscious from the water several minutes later. In the meantime Aircraftman Gillett disappeared; his body was washed ashore two days later. It was discovered that his body had suffered superficial injuries and that death was due to the combined effects of blast and drowning. By his action in deliberately saving the life of his injured friend, whilst injured and in great danger himself, Aircraftman Gillett displayed magnificent courage. His extreme unselfishness in his last living moments, which resulted in the sacrifice of his life to save another, was seen in this act of great heroism which was in accordance with the highest traditions of the Royal Air Force.

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

St. James's Palace, S.W.1.

3rd October, 1950.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the award of the George Medal to:—

Flying Officer Harold HARVEY (500998), Royal Air Force, No. 201 Advanced Flying School, Royal Air Force Station, Swinderby.

In the early hours of the 14th June, 1950, a Wellington aircraft crashed in a ploughed field near Norton Disney village and caught fire. Flying Officer Harvey, a pupil aircrew, who was the Navigator, suffered multiple injuries, including a cut head, burns on the leg, and a crushed fracture of the spine. The signaller of the aircraft was rendered unconscious. Flying Officer Harvey, despite his injuries, rescued the signaller from the burning wreckage, put out the flames which enveloped him, and carried or dragged him to a place of safety about 40 yards from the crash. Although suffering great pain, he then rendered first aid to the unconscious man until the arrival of station personnel. It is difficult to conceive how Flying Officer Harvey, who is a comparatively small man, effected this rescue, as the signaller weighed 15 to 16 stones. Flying Officer Harvey displayed conspicuous gallantry and a complete disregard of his own safety and personal suffering. He showed great presence of mind in adversity and set an example of courage and self sacrifice which is an inspiration to all ranks in the Royal Air Force.

Crown Office, House of Lords, S.W.1.

2nd October, 1950.

The KING has been pleased by Letters Patent under the Great Seal bearing date the 2nd day of October, 1950, to appoint Sir William Lennox McNair, Knight, K.C., to be one of the Justices of His Majesty's High Court of Justice.

Civil Service Commission.

3rd October, 1950.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz.:—

NORMAL REGULATIONS FOR RECRUITMENT TO THE CLERICAL CLASSES (GENERAL AND DEPARTMENTAL) OF THE HOME CIVIL SERVICE.

1. Age.

Candidates must be at least 16 and under 18 years of age on 1st March, 1951, but candidates who have served in any established post to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, or who have served on established conditions except for sick leave and pension in a post to which such a Certificate would normally apply, may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding two years which they may have spent in such service before 1st March, 1951.

2. Sex.

Both boys and girls are eligible.

3. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject ; or

(ii) have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalised British subjects, they must have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph, they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

4. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character.

5. Examination.

The subjects of examination and the marks they will carry are as follows:—

Compulsory Subjects—

(1) English	200
(2) Arithmetic	100

Optional Subjects—

(3) Mathematics	200
(4) Science	200
(5) One of the following languages:— French, German, Spanish, Latin, Greek, Welsh	200
(6) A second language chosen from the list given under head (5)	200
(7) History	200
(8) Geography	200

Candidates may take three optional subjects. Not more than two languages may be chosen from the list given under head (5).

Candidates will be arranged in order of merit of their aggregate of marks in the examination as a whole. Even if there are unfilled vacancies, no candidate will be appointed who does not obtain an aggregate which satisfies the Civil Service Commissioners.

6. Candidates trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

7. Assignment.

The Commissioners will decide to which Department each successful candidate is to be assigned. A candidate who declines to accept the post offered will have no claim to be assigned to another, but will be regarded as having declined appointment. Assignments will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service, but the wishes of candidates will, where possible, be taken into account.

8. Fee.

A fee of 7s. 6d. is payable by all candidates. This must be sent with the application form, and is not returnable in any circumstances.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competitive Examination will be held under the above Regulations, commencing on the 23rd January, 1951.

No person will be admitted to the Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 9th November, 1950, an application on the prescribed form which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

Civil Service Commission.

3rd October, 1950.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

NORMAL REGULATIONS FOR RECRUITMENT TO GRADE 6 POSTS IN BRANCH B OF THE FOREIGN SERVICE.

1. Age.

Candidates must be at least 16 and under 18 years of age on 1st March, 1951. But candidates who have served in any established post to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, or who have served on established conditions except for sick leave and pension in a post to which such a certificate would normally apply, may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding two years which they may have spent in such service before 1st March, 1951.

2. Sex.

Candidates may be of either sex, except that married women are not eligible. A woman member of Branch B must resign her appointment on marriage.

3. Nationality.

(1) Every candidate must

- be a natural-born British subject; and
- have been born within the United Kingdom or within one of the self-governing Dominions of parents both of whom were also born within the United Kingdom or within one of the self-governing Dominions.

(2) No departure from this rule will be made without the special permission of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and then only in exceptional cases and in favour of candidates who are British subjects and who also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject;

or

(ii) have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalised British subjects, they must have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, unbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

4. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character.

5. Examination.

The subjects of the written examination and the marks they will carry are as follows:—

Compulsory Subjects—

(1) English	200
(2) Arithmetic	100

Optional Subjects—

(3) Mathematics	200
(4) Science	200
(5) One of the following languages:— French, German, Spanish, Latin, Greek, Welsh	200
(6) A second language chosen from the list given under head (5)	200
(7) History	200
(8) Geography	200

Candidates must take one of the languages in the list given under head (5) and reach a satisfactory standard in it; they may also take two other optional subjects. Not more than two languages in all may be chosen from the list given under head (5).

Candidates will be arranged in order of merit on their aggregate of marks in the examination as a whole, but before any candidate can be appointed he or she will be required to establish, in an interview at the Foreign Office, that he or she is in other respects suitable for appointment to the Foreign Service. Even if there are unfilled vacancies, no candidates will be appointed who does not obtain an aggregate which satisfies the Civil Service Commissioners.

6. Candidates trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

7. Fee.

A fee of 7s. 6d. is payable by all candidates. This must be sent with the application form, and is not returnable in any circumstances.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competitive Examination will be held under the above Regulations, commencing on the 23rd January, 1951.

No person will be admitted to the Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 9th November, 1950, an application on the prescribed form which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

NOTICE is hereby given that the above Order was made on the 28th day of September 1950 and is about to be submitted to the Minister of Town and Country Planning for confirmation.

The Order relates to land situate at Hoobrook crossed by a public footpath leading from Spennells to Hoobrook in the Borough of Kidderminster.

The effect of the Order will be to divert that portion of the public right of way running from Spennells to Hoobrook in the Borough of Kidderminster commencing by the Eastern boundary of the factory site of Messrs. Morris & Co. (Kidderminster) Ltd. and continuing partly in a westerly and partly in a south-westerly direction for a distance of approximately 910 feet to the Western boundary of the said factory site near to the Hoobrook Viaduct of British Railways the situation of which is shown on the map hereinafter specified and thereon coloured brown to a line commencing at the said Eastern boundary and continuing along the Northern boundary of the said factory site for a distance of approximately 650 feet where it crosses the western portion of the site and joins an existing roadway lying between the said factory site and the Hoobrook Viaduct of British Railways which said new footpath is shown on the said map and thereon coloured green.

A certified copy of the Order and of the map contained in the Order has been deposited at my office at the Town Hall, Kidderminster and will be open for inspection free of charge between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Any objection or representation with reference to the Order may be sent in writing to the Secretary, Ministry of Town and Country Planning, 32, St. James's Square, London, S.W.1, before the 6th day of November, 1950, and any such objection or representation should state the grounds on which it is made.

Dated this 2nd day of October, 1950.

JOHN L. EVANS, Town Clerk.

Town Hall,
Kidderminster.
