

2. Archdeaconry and Rural Deanery :

"The said district and parish shall be in the archdeaconry of Middlesex and in the rural deanery of Hampton.

"THE SCHEDULE:

"The area comprising:—

"All that portion of the parish of Hanworth (shown by the pink colour on the map annexed to this Scheme) which is bounded upon the north-west by the parish of Feltham, upon the northeast by the parishes of Saint Paul, Hounslow Heath, and Saint Philip and Saint James, Whitton, upon the southeast by the parishes of Saint Michael and Saint George, Fulwell, and Saint James, Hampton Hill, and upon the remaining side by an imaginary line commencing at a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Saint James, Hampton Hill, from the parish of Hanworth in the middle of Longford River and continuing thence generally north-westwards along the middle of the said river to the point (in the neighbourhood of Hounslow Road) at which the said river emerges from the culvert which carries it under the London Air Park and continuing thence westwards along the middle of the footpath which begins at that point to the point (in the neighbourhood of Hanworth Club) at which the said river enters the said culvert and continuing thence generally westwards along the middle of Longford River to the boundary which divides the parish of Hanworth from the parish of Feltham."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of London.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of October, 1950.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Minister of Health, after giving 10 days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853 (16 & 17 Vict. c. 134), as amended by subsequent enactments, made a Representation to His Majesty in Council that for the protection of the Public Health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Civil Parish of Cold Higham in the County of Northampton, save with the previous approval of the Minister of Health, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein as hereinafter directed:

And Whereas by an Order in Council of the 21st July, 1950, Notice of such Representation was given, and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 7th day of September next, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. No new burial ground shall be opened in the said Civil Parish of Cold Higham save with the previous approval of the Minister of Health, and burials shall be discontinued therein as follows, viz.:—

Cold Higham.—Forthwith and entirely in the Churchyard of the Parish Church of Saint Luke, Cold Higham.

Provided that—

(a) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard, burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b) In any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave,

(c) In the said Churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

2. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (Cold Higham) Order, 1950.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of October, 1950.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Minister of Health, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the Civil Parish of Lydd, in the County of Kent, 10 days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by subsequent enactments, made a Representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the Public Health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Civil Parish of Lydd in the said County of Kent, save with the previous approval of the Minister of Health, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein as follows, viz.:—

Lydd.—Forthwith and entirely in the extension to the Churchyard of the Parish Church in the said Parish of Lydd,

Provided that—

(a) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard Extension, burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b) In any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard Extension, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give Notice of such Representation and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 21st day of November next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 21st day of November.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of October, 1950.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Minister of Health, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the Parish of Pelsall, in the county of Stafford, 10 days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by subsequent enactments, made a Representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the Public Health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Civil Parish of Pelsall in the said county of Stafford, save with the previous approval of the Minister of Health, should be prohibited, and that
