6. Education.

(i) Candidates must either (a) have obtained at least second class honours in a full final honours degree examination at a recognised University, or (b) be in the last year of a course for a full honours degree at a recognised University. (C) for candidates who pass the written examination: a series of tests of personal qualities, followed by an interview before the Final Selection Board.

Provided that the Commissioners may at their discretion summon those candidates who are placed low on the qualifying list to a preliminary interview before one or more Examiners, and may on the latter's report decide which of these candidates, if any, shall be summoned to further tests under (C), and which shall be declared unsuccessful forthwith.

(ii) The final order of merit will be determined by the mark awarded by the Final Selection Board out of a maximum of 300. This will take into account the candidate's record (including proficiency and interest in modern foreign languages), his intelligence and personal qualities, his work in the written examination, and the report on his performance in the series of tests of personal qualities. In the event of a tie between two or more candidates, the Commissioners will decide which to declare successful.

8. Candidates trained as teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

(A) A written examination, comprising
(a) three compulsory subjects, namely Essay, English, and Present Day, for each of which a maximum of 100 marks is allotted,

(b) a selection from the optional subjects set out in the Appendix, which is to be construed as forming part of these Regulations. Subject to the provisions in the Appendix, candidates may take optional subjects up to a total of 700 marks (making 1,000 marks in all for the written examination).

(B) Interview, comprising

(ii) The final order of merit will be determined by the mark awarded by the Final Selection Board out of a maximum of 300. This will take into account the candidate's record, his intelligence and personal qualities, his work in the written examination, and the report on his performance in the series of tests of personal qualities. In the event of a tie between two or more candidates the Commissioners will decide which to declare successful. The Commissioners may at their discretion require a candidate to attend a second time before the Final Selection Board if they consider it necessary to enable them to reach a decision.

5. Eligibility.

(i) Age. Candidates must be at least 20½ years and under 24 years of age on 1st August, 1951. But

(i) Both men and women are eligible, but women will not ordinarily be appointed to posts in the Ministry of Defence, Admiralty, War Office, or Air Ministry.

11. Assignment.

The Commissioners will decide to which Department each successful candidate is to be assigned. A candidate who declines to accept the post offered will have no claim to be assigned to another, but will be regarded as having declined appointment. Assignments will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service, but the wishes of candidates will, where possible, be taken into account.

12. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.
