The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 23rd day of February, 1951, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of Salisbury, (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Ibberton with Belchalwell and the benefice of Woolland both situate in the diocese of Salisbury.

"SCHEME

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Ibberton with Belchalwell and the benefice of Woolland shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Ibberton with Belchalwell and Woolland' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. If upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette both benefices shall be vacant the union shall take effect forthwith but if upon that day the benefice of Woolland only shall be vacant the union shall take effect upon the first avoidance thereafter of the benefice of Ibberton with Belchalwell.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Ibberton with Belchalwell shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the patron of the benefice of Woolland having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 to 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 1st day of March, 1951, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Ketteringham in the diocese of Norwich.

"Whereas we are satisfied that Etienne Henry Tudor Boileau formerly of Ketteringham Park, Norfolk, but now of Rampisham Manor, Dorset, a Major in Your Majesty's Army, is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said Etienne Henry Tudor Boileau desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Norwich Diocesan Board of Patronage and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Norwich Diocesan Board of Patronage and the Right Reverend Percy, Bishop of Norwich, as the Bishop of the diocese within which the said benefice of Ketteringham is situate (in testimony whereof they have executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Norwich Diocesan Board of Patronage and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Norwich Diocesan Board of Patronage."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Norwich.
