Civil Service Commission.

24th April, 1951.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz:—

RECRUITMENT UNDER NORMAL REGULATIONS OF AN INSPECTOR (SALMON AND FRESHWATER FISHERIES) IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

1. Age.

Candidates must be at least 21 years of age on 1st January, 1951. The Commissioners have not specified an upper age limit for this competition; in general, however, Government Departments require a reasonable period of service from persons appointed to the Civil Service and accordingly the Commissioners reserve the right to give weight to this factor in considering candidates for this post who are over 50 years of age.

2. Sex and Marriage.

(i) Both men and women may compete under these Regulations.

(ii) Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before the 15th October, 1946, or who are widows or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid.

3. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural born British subjects, they must either
