"And whereas the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Chichester, consents to the proposed arrangements (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme):

"Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme the boundaries of the said parishes of Christ Church, Ore, and Saint Clement, Halton, Hastings, shall be altered in the manner described in the Schedule and delineated on the map annexed to this Scheme.

"THE SCHEDULE.

"The territory (shown by the pink colour on the map) to be annexed to the parish of Saint Clement, Halton, Hastings:—

"All that part of the parish of Christ Church, Ore, which is bounded upon the south east by the parish of Saint Clement, Halton, Hastings, upon the south west by the parish of Emmanuel, Hastings, upon the west by the parish of Christ Church, Blacklands, and upon the north west by the parish of Ore and upon the remaining sides by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the parish of Ore from the parish of Christ Church, Ore, in the middle of the railway line of the Ashford and Hastings Branch of British Railways (Southern Region) at a point opposite to the signal post at the southwestern end of Ore tunnel and continuing thence in a straight line in a southeasterly direction to the northwestern corner of the wall or fence forming the boundary of Saint Helen's Sanatorium and continuing thence southeastwards along the wall or fence on the western side of the said sanatorium and continuing thence southeastwards in a straight line to the northernmost end of the wall or fence dividing the house and premises known as No. 401 Priory Road from the house and premises known as No. 403 Priory Road and continuing thence northeastwards along the walls or fences at the rear of the houses and premises known as Nos. 403-413 Priory Road and along the northern boundary of the field or paddock at the rear of the houses and premises known as Nos. 415-423 Priory Road and continuing thence eastwards along the wall or fence forming the northern boundary of the shop and premises known as Nos. 425-427 Priory Road to a point opposite to its northeastern end in the middle of Frederick Road and continuing thence southeastwards along the middle of Frederick Road to a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Christ Church, Ore, from the parish of Saint Clement, Halton, Hastings."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Chichester.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of April, 1951.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 26th day of January, 1951, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for altering the boundaries of the parishes of Henbury, Westbury-upon-Trym and Saint Edyth, Sea Mills, all in the diocese of Bristol.

"Whereas we are satisfied that it is desirable that the boundaries of the said parishes should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Arthur, Bishop of Bristol, consents to the proposed arrangements (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme):

"Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme the boundaries of the said parishes of Henbury, Westbury-upon-Trym and Saint Edyth, Sea Mills, shall be altered in the manner described in the Schedule and delineated on the map annexed to this Scheme.

"THE SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be annexed to the parish of Saint Edyth, Sea Mills:—

"All those contiguous portions of the parishes of Henbury and Westbury-upon-Trym, coloured pink and blue respectively on the map annexed hereto, which, taken together, are bounded upon the east by the parish of Westbury-upon-Trym, upon the south by the parish of Saint Edyth, Sea Mills, and upon the remaining sides by an imaginary line commencing at a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Edyth, Sea Mills, from the parish of Henbury, opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Kings Weston Road, and extending thence firstly north-westwards to and along and then north-eastwards along the middle of the said road to a point west of B.M.182.51 and opposite to the middle of the northern end of the track or footpath which runs southwards across the close numbered 1015 on the map annexed hereto and continuing thence southwards to and along the middle of the said track or footpath for a distance of 6 chains or thereabouts to its junction with the middle of the track or footpath which runs south-westwards across the said close and continuing thence generally southwards along the middle firstly of the last-mentioned track or footpath (thereby passing through Echo Gate) and then of the track or footpath known as Arbutus Walk to the wall or fence which divides the close numbered 1074 on the map annexed hereto from the close numbered 1101 and continuing thence generally south-eastwards firstly along the walls or fences which divide the said close numbered 1101 from the closes numbered 1074 and 1073 and then in a straight line in the same direction down a steep bank to the middle of the stream which forms the boundary dividing the parish of Westbury-upon-Trym from the parish of Henbury."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Bristol.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of April, 1951.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 12th day of April, 1951, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and now humbly propose to Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for altering the name of the parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, South Barnet, in the county of Hertford and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

"SCHEME

"Whereas by Instrument under Seal of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England dated the 31st day of May, 1906, and published in the London Gazette on the 19th day of June, 1906, a particular district was assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Michael and All Angels, South Barnet, situate in the said county of Hertford and in the said diocese of Saint Albans under the name of 'The Particular District of Saint Michael and All Angels, South Barnet'.
