CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

St. James's Palace, S.W.1.

28th September, 1951.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the award of the George Medal to:—

4022248 Leading Aircraftman Gerald Arthur JARRETT, Royal Air Force, Royal Air Force Station, Hullavington.

In the early hours of 29th May, 1951, a Wellington aircraft crashed and burst into flames about three miles from Royal Air Force Station, Hullavington. Leading Aircraftman Jarrett was in charge of the crash crew for that night as no N.C.O. was available. As driver of the aircraft crash rescue jeep, Jarrett was first on the scene of the accident, arriving there in a commendably short time. The aircraft was burning fiercely and pyrotechnics and oxygen bottles were exploding. Jarrett saw one of the crew alive in the midst of the wreckage. Without any protective clothing and with only two hand-held fire extinguishers, showing complete disregard for his own safety, he entered the burning wreckage and extricated this member of the crew who, unfortunately, succumbed a few minutes later from his injuries. Jarrett then went to the aid of another member of the crew in another area of the burning wreckage and gave him assistance until the arrival of the main fire fighting equipment and ambulance. After this, Jarrett continued to direct fire fighting operations until the fires had been extinguished. Throughout the incident, L.A.C. Jarrett displayed gallantry and devotion to duty of the highest order. He showed great courage and determination in entering the burning aircraft and extricating one member of the crew entirely unassisted, and his courage is further enhanced by his action in again entering the burning wreckage and endeavouring to rescue a second member of the crew. He set an excellent example by his determination, initiative, leadership and complete disregard for his personal safety. His thorough understanding and energetic execution of his duties were beyond praise.

Whitehall, 14 July, 1951.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give and grant unto Richard Hanbury Tenison of Pontypool in the County of Monmouth, Gentleman and his brother Airling Robin Tenison, a minor His Royal Licence and authority that they may henceforth bear and use the surname of Hanbury in addition to and before that of Tenison, and that they may bear the Arms of Hanbury quarterly with those of Tenison and that such surname and Arms may in like manner be taken borne and used by their issue the said Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms and recorded in Our College of Arms otherwise the said Royal Licence and Permission to be void and of none effect.

And to command that the said Royal Concession and Declaration be recorded in the said College of Arms.
