And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Liverpool.

F. J. Fernau.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of December, 1951.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 1st day of November, 1951, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of Salisbury, (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Edington and the benefice of Imber both situate in the diocese of Salisbury.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices and Parishes. The said benefice of Edington and the said benefice of Imber shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Edington and Imber' and the parishes of the said benefices shall also be united into one parish for ecclesiastical purposes.

"2. Taking effect of union. With the consent, (certified by his signature hereto), of the Reverend William Bernard Charles, being the present incumbent of the benefice of Edington, the union shall take effect (a) if the benefice of Imber is vacant upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme is published in the London Gazette upon that day, or (b) if the benefice of Imber is not vacant upon that day, upon the next avoidance of that benefice; and in either event the Reverend William Bernard Charles, if he is then the incumbent of the benefice of Edington, shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Parish Church. The Parish Church of the parish of Edington shall be the Parish Church of the United Parish.

"4. Registers. The marriage registers current at the Church of Imber shall be dealt with in accordance with Section 62 of the Marriage Act, 1949, and the register books (if any) of baptisms and burials and other the records and muniments deposited in the said Church shall be transferred to the Parish Church of Edington.

"5. Parsonage House. The parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Edington shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice, and the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Imber and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be sold and disposed of by us, the said Church Commissioners, at such time and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and the net proceeds of such sale shall be held by us as part of the endowments of the united benefice.

"6. Archdeaconry and Rural Deanery. The united benefice shall be in the Archdeaconry of Wilts and in the rural deanery of Devizes."

And whereas the provisions of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

F. J. Fernau.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of December, 1951.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 9th day of November, 1951, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for constituting a new parish to be taken out of the parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, Belgrave, in the diocese of Leicester.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas we, the Church Commissioners, are satisfied that the spiritual interests of the area defined in the subjoined Schedule and delineated on the map hereto annexed would be best served by constituting it a new parish:

"And whereas we are satisfied that a suitable endowment therefor will be provided:

"And whereas we have not approved any consecrated church within the area as suitable to be the parish church of the new parish:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Guy Vernon, Bishop of Leicester, (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal to this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, do humbly recommend and propose as follows, that is to say:—

"1. Constitution:

"(a) As from the date of the licence thereto of a minister, the area defined in the subjoined Schedule and delineated on the map hereto annexed shall be a separate district for spiritual purposes.

"(b) As from the date of the consecration of a church within the area approved by us, the said Church Commissioners, as suitable to be a parish church or if the church is consecrated before such approval, the date of the approval, the said area shall become a new parish.

"(c) The name of the district (or parish as the case may be) shall be 'The District (or Parish) of Saint Gabriel, Leicester.'

"2. Archdeaconry and Rural Deanery:

"The parish shall be in the archdeaconry of Leicester and in the rural deanery of Christianity (or Leicester).
