SUPPLIES AND SERVICES.

ELECTRIC LIGHTING.

The Minister of Fuel and Power hereby gives notice that he has made the Electric Lighting (Restriction) (No. 3) General Licence, 1951—S.I. 1951 No. 2229, copies of which may be purchased direct from H.M. Stationery Office at the following addresses:—

Civil Service Commission, 21st December, 1951.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

RECRUITMENT UNDER NORMAL REGULATIONS OF ASSISTANT EXAMINERS OF PAPER AND OFFICE REQUISITES IN H.M. STATIONERY OFFICE.

1. Sex and Marriage.

(i) Both men and women may compete under these Regulations.

(ii) Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before 15th October, 1946, or who are widows or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid.

2. Age.

Candidates must be at least 22 and under 32 years of age on the 1st September, 1951. But

(a) a candidate who has served or is serving on a regular (including a regular short-service) engagement in H.M. Forces may deduct the period of such service from his actual age;

(b) candidates who have served in any established post to which they were admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, or who have served on established conditions except for sick leave and pension in a post to which such a Certificate would normally apply, may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding two years which they may have spent in such service.

3. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject; or

(ii) have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalised British subjects, they must have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing, or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

4. Qualifications.

Candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners and the Controller of H.M. Stationery Office that they possess such knowledge of physics and chemistry, and have undergone such practical training, as to fit them for the situation. Their training in chemistry and physics must be such as will enable them to investigate faults and troubles inherent or arising in paper of all kinds, cardboard, parchment and vellums, and stationers' sundries, and to carry out tests appropriate to the examination of supplies for the Public Service. A practical knowledge of some or all of these materials is desirable.

5. Competition

Candidates who appear from their application forms to have the best qualifications will be admitted to (a) a preliminary informal interview to test their technical knowledge, and (b) an interview
