NOTICE is hereby given that a statement has been submitted to the Minister of Housing and Local Government whereby under the provisions of Section 62 of the above-named Act the Cardiganshire County Planning Committee (acting under powers delegated by the Cardiganshire County Council) deem that as respects the County of Cardigan no action needs to be taken whether by the making of access agreements or orders or by the acquisition of land for securing access by the public for open-air recreation, for the following reasons:—

(i) The proportion of open country in the county over which access is available is considered adequate to serve the needs of the whole county as it comprises an estimated acreage of 90,240, or just under one-quarter of the total county acreage. There is in addition to this a considerable area of Crown Land in the hill regions of Cardiganshire which is at the present time open to the public.

There is, further, access to beaches and foreshores over the greater part of the Cardiganshire coast, and to the Lake and Rivers, and public rights of access to commons and all open countryside are satisfactorily protected.

Representations in writing may be made to the Secretary, Ministry of Housing and Local Government, Whitehall, London, S.W.1, to reach him not later than the 31st day of March, 1952, that action needs to be taken in the County of Cardigan, whether by the making of access agreements or orders or by the acquisition of land, for securing access by the public for open-air recreation.
