At the Court at Clarence House, the 22nd day of February, 1952.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 7th day of February, 1952, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and the Acts mentioned therein have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Fordwich in the County of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the Public Trustee as trustee of the Marriage Settlement of the Right Honourable Ethel Anne Priscilla, Baroness Desborough, formerly of Taplow Court, Taplow, in the County of Buckingham but now of Panshanger House, near Hertford, in the County of Hertford is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice.

"And whereas the Public Trustee desires and has been authorised to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof the official seal of the Public Trustee has been affixed hereto).

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Geoffrey Francis, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Geoffrey Francis, Archbishop of Canterbury and his successors in the same Archbishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Canterbury.

A 2

At the Court at Clarence House, the 22nd day of February, 1952.

PRESENT

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 7th day of February, 1952, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme (1) for altering the boundaries of the parish of Preston, of the parish of Saint Matthias, Preston, Brighton, and of the parish of Patcham, and (2) for constituting a new parish to be taken out of the parishes of Patcham and Falmer, all of which parishes are in the diocese of Chichester.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas we, the Church Commissioners, are satisfied (1) that it is desirable that the boundaries of the parish of Preston, of the parish of Saint Matthias, Preston, Brighton, and of the parish of Patcham should be altered in the manner described in Part I of the subjoined Schedule and as delineated on the map hereto annexed and (2) that the spiritual interests of the area defined in Part II of the said Schedule and delineated on the said map would be best served by constituting it a new parish and that a suitable endowment therefor will be provided:

"And whereas we have not approved any consecrated church within the area described in Part II of the said Schedule as suitable to be the parish church of the new parish.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Chichester, (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal to this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners do humbly recommend and propose as follows, that is to say:—

"1. As from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council confirming this Scheme, the boundaries of the parish of Preston, of the parish of Saint Matthias, Preston, Brighton, and of the parish of Patcham shall be altered in the manner described in Part I of the said Schedule and as delineated on the said map.

"2.—(a) As from the date of the licence thereto of a minister, the area defined in Part II of the said Schedule and delineated on the said map shall be a separate district for spiritual purposes.

"(b) As from the date of the consecration of a church within the area approved by us, the said Church Commissioners, as suitable to be a parish church or if the church is consecrated before such approval, the date of the approval, the said area shall become a new parish.

"(c) The name of the district (or parish as the case may be) shall be 'The District (or Parish) of Christ the King, South Patcham'.

"(d) The district (or parish) shall be in the Archdeaconry of Lewes and in the rural deanery of Brighton.

"THE SCHEDULE

Part 1.

"(a) The territory (shown by the green colour on the map) to be annexed to the parish of Preston:—

"All that part of the parish of Patcham which is bounded upon the south-west and south by the parish of Preston and upon the remaining sides by an imaginary line commencing at a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Patcham from the parish of Preston in the middle of Surrenden Road and continuing thence northwards along the middle of Surrenden Road to a point opposite the middle of the eastern end of Varndean Road and continuing thence westwards to and along the middle of Varndean Road to a point opposite the southern end of the walls or fences on the western side of the grounds attached to the houses and premises known as Varndean and Fairlie Place and continuing thence northwards to and along the last mentioned walls or fences to a point at the eastern end of the wall or fence on the southern side of the grounds attached to the houses and premises known as Laine House and Effingham Lodge and continuing thence westwards along the last-mentioned walls or fences to a point opposite their western end in the middle of London Road and continuing thence southwards along the middle of London Road to the boundary which divides the parish of Patcham from the parish of Preston.
