

"(b) The territory (shown by the brown colour on the map) to be annexed to the parish of Saint Matthias, Preston, Brighton:—

"All that part of the parish of Patcham which lies to the south-east of the middles of Balfour Road and Ditchling Road.

Part II.

"The area comprising:—

"All those parts of the parishes of Patcham and Falmer (shown by the pink and blue colours respectively on the map) (the part of the parish of Falmer being a part of a detached portion of the said parish) which, taken together, are bounded on the south by the parish of Preston and upon the remaining sides by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the parish of Patcham from the parish of Preston in the middle of Surrenden Road and continuing thence northwards along the middle of Surrenden Road to a point opposite the middle of the eastern end of Vardean Road and continuing thence westwards to and along the middle of Vardean Road to a point opposite the southern end of the walls or fences on the western side of the grounds attached to the houses and premises known as Vardean and Fairlie Place and continuing thence northwards to and along the last-mentioned walls or fences to a point at the eastern end of the wall or fence on the southern side of the grounds attached to the houses and premises known as Laine House and Eflingham Lodge and continuing thence westwards along the last-mentioned walls or fences to a point opposite their western end in the middle of London Road and continuing thence northwards along the middle of London Road to a point opposite the middle of the south-western end of Carden Avenue and continuing thence generally north-eastwards to and along the middle of Carden Avenue to a point in the middle of Ditchling Road opposite the north-eastern end of Carden Avenue at the junction of Carden Avenue, Ditchling Road and Colddean Lane (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the parish of Patcham from the aforementioned detached portion of the parish of Falmer) and continuing thence first southwards, then south-westwards and then southwards again along the middle of Ditchling Road (thereby following in part the boundary which divides the parish of Patcham from the parish of Saint Andrew, Moulsecobomb) to a point opposite the middle of the north-eastern end of Balfour Road, and continuing thence south-westwards along the middle of Balfour Road to the boundary which divides the parish of Patcham from the parish of Preston."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Chichester.

F. J. Fernau.

At the Court at Clarence House, the 22nd day of February, 1952.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 7th day of February, 1952, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Powers) Measure, 1938, and with the consent of the Right Reverend Mervyn, Bishop of Winchester (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme), have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for effecting the union of the benefice of Longstock and the benefice of Leckford both situate in the Diocese of Winchester.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Longstock and the benefice of Leckford shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Longstock with Leckford' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. If upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme is published in the London Gazette both of the said benefices shall be vacant, the union shall forthwith take effect; and if upon that day the benefice of Leckford only shall be vacant, the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of the benefice of Longstock.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Longstock shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Archdeaconry and Rural Deanery. The united benefice shall be in the archdeaconry of Basingstoke and in the rural deanery of Andover.

"5. Diversion of endowments. Upon the union taking effect a part of the endowments of the united benefice, namely, a capital sum of £1,886, being a part of a larger capital sum at present held by us, the said Church Commissioners, for the benefit of the benefice of Longstock, shall be severed and diverted from the benefice of Longstock and from the united benefice of Longstock with Leckford and shall be transferred to and be held by us, the said Church Commissioners, as part of and for the benefit of our General Fund and in consideration of the said transfer we shall make out of the said General Fund such periodical payments to the diocesan stipends fund of the diocese of Winchester as we from time to time determine to be equitable having regard to the value of the said endowments."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

F. J. Fernau.

At the Court at Clarence House, the 22nd day of February, 1952.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 7th day of February, 1952, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Powers) Measure, 1938, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of Exeter (testified by his signing this Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Stoke-in-Teignhead and the benefice of Combe-in-Teignhead, both situate in the diocese of Exeter.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Stoke-in-Teignhead and the benefice of Combe-in-Teignhead shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Stoke-in-Teignhead and Combe-in-Teignhead', but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to
