Rutland County Council.

THE County Council has carried out the review required by the National Parks and Access to the Countryside Act, 1949, to ascertain what land in Rutland is "Open Country" as defined by the Act, and what action needs to be taken for securing access thereto by the public for open-air recreation.

The Council is satisfied that the public already has adequate access to all "Open Country" in its area and has sent to the Minister of Housing and Local Government a statement to the effect that the Council is of the opinion that no action needs to be taken under the National Parks and Access to the Countryside Act, 1949 for enabling the public to have access to any "Open Country" in the administrative county of Rutland.

Representations to the effect that action needs to be taken in respect of land which is "Open Country" by the making of access agreements or Orders or by the acquisition of land for securing access by the public for open-air recreation, may be sent in writing to the Secretary, Ministry of Housing and Local Government, Whitehall, London, S.W.1 before the 31st May 1952, and any representation should state the grounds on which it is made.
