The QUEEN has been pleased to issue a Warrant under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual in form following:—

ELIZABETH R.

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas QUEEN, Defender of the Faith, To all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting!

Whereas by Warrant under the Sign Manual of Our Royal Father, King George the Sixth, Commissioners were appointed to inquire into the present system of taxation of profits and income, including its incidence and effects, with particular reference to the taxation of business profits and the taxation of salaries and wages: to consider whether for the purposes of the national economy the present system is the best way of raising the required revenue from the taxation of profits and income, due regard being paid to the points of view of the taxpayer and of the Exchequer: to consider the present system of personal allowances, reliefs and rates of tax as a means of distributing the tax burden fairly among the individual members of the community; and to make recommendations consistent with maintaining the same total yield of the existing duties in relation to the national income:

And whereas We have deemed it expedient that the terms of reference to Our said Commissioners should be revised:

Now therefore We do Will and Ordain that Our said Commissioners shall inquire into the present system of taxation of profits and income, including its incidence and effects, with particular reference to the taxation of business profits and the taxation of salaries and wages: to consider whether for the purposes of the national economy the present system is the best way of raising the required revenue from the taxation of profits and income, due regard being paid to the points of view of the taxpayer and of the Exchequer: to consider the present system of personal allowances, reliefs and rates of tax as a means of distributing the tax burden fairly among the individual members of the community: to make recommendations bearing in mind that in the present financial situation it may be necessary to maintain
