"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and the Acts mentioned therein have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the interest hereinafter mentioned in the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Wootton Glanville with Holnest in the county of Dorset and in the diocese of Salisbury.

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the said Salisbury Diocesan Board of Patronage and of the Right Reverend William Bishop of Salisbury (in testimony whereof they have executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the said interest of the said Charles Edward Townley Woodman in the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Salisbury Diocesan Board of Patronage and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Salisbury Diocesan Board of Patronage."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the said and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.
