

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Birmingham.

F. J. Fernau.

At the Court at Clarence House, the 9th day of April, 1952.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 28th day of March, 1952, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for altering the boundaries of the parishes of Thrybergh and Holy Trinity, Dalton, both in the diocese of Sheffield.

"Whereas we are satisfied that it is desirable that the boundaries of the said parishes should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Leslie, Bishop of Sheffield, consents to the proposed arrangements (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme):

"Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme the boundaries of the said parishes of Thrybergh and Holy Trinity, Dalton, shall be altered in the manner described in the Schedule and delineated on the map annexed to this Scheme.

"THE SCHEDULE.

"The territory, shown by the pink colour on the map, to be annexed to the parish of Thrybergh:—

"All that part of the parish of Holy Trinity, Dalton, which is bounded on the east and north by the parish of Thrybergh and on the remaining sides by an imaginary line commencing at a point on the boundary which divides the parish of Thrybergh from the parish of Holy Trinity, Dalton, at the northwestern end of the wall or fence which forms the southwestern boundary of the close numbered 43 on the map and extending thence southeastwards along the said wall or fence and the wall or fence which forms the southwestern boundary of the close numbered 42 to its southeastern end and continuing thence generally southeastwards first to and then along the middle of Magna Lane (thereby crossing Doncaster Road) to a point in the middle of the bridge or culvert which carries Magna Lane over Dalton Brook and continuing thence eastwards along the middle of Dalton Brook to the boundary which divides the parish of Holy Trinity, Dalton, from the parish of Thrybergh."

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Sheffield.

F. J. Fernau.

At the Court at Clarence House, the 9th day of April, 1952.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 28th day of March, 1952, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Powers) Measure, 1938, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Mervyn, Bishop of Winchester (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Overton and the benefice of Laverstoke with Freefolk Syfrewaste both situate in the diocese of Winchester.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Overton and the benefice of Laverstoke with Freefolk Syfrewaste shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Overton with Laverstoke with Freefolk' but the parishes of the said benefice shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall take effect forthwith.

"3. Parsonage house. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Overton shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the patron of the benefice of Laverstoke with Freefolk Syfrewaste having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union.

"5. Clerical or lay assistance. Upon the union taking effect the incumbent shall employ such clerical or lay assistance to assist him in performing the duties of the united benefice as the bishop of the said diocese of Winchester may from time to time direct.

"6. Diversion of endowments. Upon the union taking effect a part of the endowments of the united benefice, namely, a capital sum sufficient to produce an annual sum of £427, being part of a larger capital sum at present held by us, the said Church Commissioners, on behalf of the benefice of Overton shall be transferred to and become vested in us to be held as part of and for the benefit of our General Fund and in consideration of the said transfer we shall make out of the said General Fund such periodical payments to the diocesan stipends fund of the diocese of Winchester as we from time to time determine to be equitable having regard to the value of the said endowments."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.
