FRIDAY, 23 MAY, 1952

Whitehall, May 23, 1952.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty at Buckingham Palace on Friday the 16th instant:—

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please Your Majesty:

We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of The Church of Scotland, beg leave, on the occasion of Your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms, to tender to Your Majesty an expression of our devoted loyalty and attachment.

We humbly offer to Your Majesty our sincere condolence in the great loss which Your Majesty and all Your subjects have sustained by the death of Your beloved Father, His Late Majesty King George the Sixth, of gracious memory, whose courage, devotion to duty, and quiet example in his own home, endeared him as a father to all his people. We gratefully recall Your Father's affectionate regard for the National Church of his ancient realm of Scotland; his presence, in the office of Lord High Commissioner, at its General Assembly; his share in the historic ceremony which completed the Reunion of The Church of Scotland; and his custom, when in Scotland, to worship with his Scottish people.

With humble duty we beg to assure Your Majesty that Your Majesty is already and will continue to be surrounded by the same deep affection as was inspired in us by Your beloved Father.

We desire, with loyal respect, to greet Your Majesty's Consort, His Royal Highness The Duke of Edinburgh, whose personal links with Scotland are a source of pride to us. In the hearts of Your Scottish Subjects Your Majesty's children already hold a secure place of warmest affection.

It has been most pleasing to us to learn how willingly Your Majesty at Your first Council promised to maintain and preserve inviolably the settlement of the true Protestant religion with the government, worship, discipline, rights and privileges of The Church of Scotland.

We recall, with gratitude, the many evidences already given of Your Majesty's high sense of public duty, and the noble words in which Your Majesty has declared that Your whole life, whether it be long or short, shall be devoted to the service of Your people and of the great Imperial family to which we all belong. We desire, humbly, to assure Your Majesty that, in the fulfilment of that vow, Your Majesty will have the unflinching support and the prayers of Your faithful subjects in Scotland.

We pray that the Blessing of Almighty God, the King of Kings, may rest upon Your Majesty, on His Royal Highness Your Consort, and on the Royal Family; that Your Throne may be established throughout all these Realms, in righteousness; and that Your Majesty may be long spared to reign in the hearts of a free, loyal, and contented people.

May it please Your Majesty.

Your Majesty's Most Faithful and Loyal Subjects, The Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name by W. White Anderson, Moderator.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I am deeply grateful for the Loyal Address which you have presented on behalf of the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland.

It is a consolation to Me to know that My beloved father's life of devoted service so endeared him to the Church, for whose well-being he was constantly concerned.

For your generous references to Myself and My family I offer you My thanks. The assurances which you give Me of the loyalty and affection of the Church of Scotland will strengthen Me in My determination faithfully to discharge, under God's guidance, the duties of My high office.

16th May, 1952.

Whitehall, May 23, 1952.

The following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty at Buckingham Palace on Wednesday the 21st instant:—

CONVOCATION OF CANTERBURY.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

We Your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Archbishop, Bishops and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury in Convocation assembled, approach Your Majesty with dutiful assurance of our devotion to Your Majesty's Throne and Person.

Four months ago, a new Convocation, as its first duty, had prepared and adopted a loyal address for presentation to the Sovereign: but before it could be presented, Church, Nation and Commonwealth were plunged into a common sorrow by the death of our beloved King.

We desire to tender to Your Majesty, with Her Majesty the Queen Mother, Queen Mary and all the Royal Family our heartfelt sympathy in your personal bereavement. We are sure that Your Majesty and the Royal Family have found great comfort in the worldwide manifestations of deep respect and admiration for our late Sovereign. In this country and throughout the Commonwealth the King's death has brought a profound and personal sorrow for the loss of a Sovereign deeply loved; and a thankful remembrance of all that his peoples owe to him.

We recall how at all times and especially in the dark days of the war he inspired us by the example of his unflinching courage and unsparing devotion to duty. We recall the strength and simplicity of his character, the keenness of his spirit, the generosity of his heart, whereby he added a fresh lustre to the Throne and entrenched it yet more firmly in the affections of his people. We remember with thankfulness the encouragement which he gave to all Christian people by his resolute faith in God, by his steadfast and unflinching presence Sunday by Sunday at Divine Worship, by his constant readiness to assist the work of the Church at home and overseas, and by countless acts of Christian understanding. We thank God no less for the gracious influence of the Queen Mother at his side and for all that the example of their happy family life has meant to the Nation.

Your Majesty comes to the Throne already possessed of the universal loyalty and affection of your peoples, endeared to them by the great qualities already revealed in your performance of public duties here and overseas; and we are confident that with every passing year the sacred ties which bind Your Majesty and your peoples together will be ever strengthened.

We shall pray that grace and guidance may be given to Your Majesty day by day, to maintain you in health and strength and to support you in your care for the public good. We rejoice that in your home life and in your public duties Your Majesty will have the comfort and counsel of your husband, His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, to aid you; and we pray that God will grant you long life together and will richly bless you in your home and family.

May God grant that under your leadership your peoples may preserve and enlarge the great and godly heritage of this Nation and Commonwealth and set forward truth and justice, charity and peace among the nations of the earth.

It will be the constant care of the Church of England to sustain you with its loyalty, to surround you with its prayers and to seek by faithful discharge of the task committed to it by our Saviour Christ, to set forward Your Majesty's Christian purposes and the well-being of your peoples.

May the blessing of Almighty God rest upon Your Majesty and upon every member of the Royal Family.

Geoffrey Cantuar, President.
R. L. Whytehead, Prolocutor.

May, 1952.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank Your Grace most sincerely for this loyal Address from the Convocation of Canterbury.

My husband and I, My dear Mother and all the members of My Family are deeply moved by your tribute of affection and admiration for My beloved father who, despite failing health, never faltered in that service to his peoples to which he had dedicated himself. As Your Grace and others of you know, he had a simple and resolute faith in God, and sought divine guidance and support in all his undertakings. So also do I earnestly pray that in My endeavours for the spiritual, no less than the material, well-being of My peoples I may ever be sustained and defended by the most gracious and ready help of our Heavenly Father.

My husband joins with Me in thanking you warmly for the assurance of your constant regard and affection towards Us and Our Family.

We pray that Almighty God may ever prosper the work of the Church in promoting the ideals of truth, of righteousness and of charity and, that under Divine Providence, My Reign may enjoy the blessing of Peace.

CONVOCATION OF YORK.

We, Your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Archbishop, Bishops and Clergy of the Province of York in Convocation assembled, approach Your Majesty with the dutiful assurance of our devotion to Your Majesty's Throne and Person.

It was but a few weeks ago, on the opening of a new Convocation, that we prepared a loyal Address to His Majesty King George the Sixth, and to-day it is our desire to express to Your Majesty and all the Royal Family our deep sympathy in the great sorrow which fell so suddenly upon Your Majesty and upon your whole Realm.

Your Majesty's Royal Father gave untiring courage and devotion to the service of his people in peace and war alike. He shared their joys and sorrows and never ceased to strive for the true welfare of Church and Commonwealth. He possessed the hearts of his people, and we are thankful for the example and the memory of a Sovereign who was indeed the father of his great family of nations. It is our earnest prayer that God will grant His consolation to Your Majesty, to Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother who so fully shared His Majesty's labours, to Queen Mary and to all Your Majesty's family.

And now in this our first Address to Your Majesty we ask the blessing of Almighty God upon Your Majesty's reign. We rejoice in the confidence that in bearing your great responsibilities Your Majesty will be guided by His grace and wisdom and supported by the loyal devotion of all your peoples. We pray that with your Royal Consort, the Duke of Edinburgh, and with your children, Your Majesty may long enjoy the happiness of your home and the love of all who live within the wide bounds of your great inheritance.

Cyril Ebor, President.
Benjamin Lancaster, Prolocutor.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

Your Grace,

I am glad to receive at your hands this Address assuring Me of the devotion to the Throne of the Archbishop, Bishops and Clergy of the Province of York. I thank you sincerely for your deep sympathy with Me, My dear mother and all the members of My Family in our sorrow. I am deeply moved by your thankfulness for My beloved father's inspiring example of devoted service, and his abiding concern for the welfare of the Church which, with God's Blessing, I am determined to follow. My husband joins with Me in gratitude to you all for the warmth and affection of your good wishes for ourselves and our children; we would both wish that every home might be as blessed with love and happiness as ours.

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD.

A LOYAL AND DUTIFUL ADDRESS OF CONDOLENCE TO HER MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY QUEEN ELIZABETH THE SECOND ON THE DEATH OF HER ROYAL FATHER KING GEORGE THE SIXTH, AND OF CONGRATULATION ON HER OWN ACCESSION TO THE THRONE.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We The Chancellor Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford respectfully desire to express our profound sympathy with Your Majesty in the loss of a father so greatly beloved and our pride in observing that the high courage which he himself displayed when suddenly called upon to assume the Throne has been matched by your own response to the same call, with a heart however heavy. No King can have earned from all his subjects and from lands beyond his Realms more numerous tributes of genuine affection and respect; none can have given a mourning family and nation better cause to forget their grief in united praise and thanksgiving for a life most nobly spent.

You, Madam, like your Royal Father and his Consort, have been graciously pleased to associate yourself with our academic life and interests, leaving with us the happiest memories of your visit to Oxford nearly four years ago, when you added new lustre to our Doctorate. Now, on your accession to the highest dignity in the land, we offer you, as in love and duty bound, our most loyal homage and devotion. We renew the assurances given by us at the time of your betrothal and our predictions made when the Heir to your Throne was born. We venture to hope that despite the fuller responsibilities of your new station you will put to the proof, whenever occasion offers, the warmth of our welcome and the depth of our loyalties; and we pray to Almighty God that your reign may be long, prosperous, and peaceful and that your own domestic happiness may long irradiate the homes of your people.

Given in our House of Convocation on the sixth day of May in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-two.

(L.S.)

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

It gives Me great satisfaction to receive this Address from the Chancellor, Masters and scholars of Oxford University, of which I am proud to be a Doctor. I thank you for your expressions of sympathy and for your generous and loving tributes to the memory of My dear father. In the discharge of My duties I shall ever be strengthened by the knowledge of the warm affection and deep loyalty of the University towards Me. My husband joins with Me in thanking you for your good wishes and in your prayer that God may grant to My Peoples the blessings of peace and prosperity.

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please Your Majesty,

Of the multitude of societies who at this time desire to offer to Your Majesty their due tributes of loyalty there is none that begs leave to address You with deeper sincerity of devotion than we, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

For more than seven centuries this ancient University, by whose Commission we approach You, has received many and great benefits at the hands of Your Majesty's ancestors; some have furnished rich endowments for our several colleges; some have made generous benefactions for the promotion of religion and learning; and many others have, in divers ways, graciously shown their marks of favour to us.

In this University it is not forgotten that it was from Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the First that we received the body of Statutes by which we were to be governed for nearly three hundred years and that, after her memorable visit to Cambridge in 1564, Her Majesty was pleased to express her deep satisfaction at the manner of her reception.

In recent times we have been honoured by even more intimate association with Your Royal House. Amidst our abiding grief for the death of His late Majesty King George the Sixth, we humbly, yet proudly, recall that he was a Cambridge man and that, despite the burden of ceaseless duty which alike in peace and in war he discharged with so faithful a conscience, he yet found time to take pleasure in his membership both of the University and of the Royal and religious foundation of Trinity College.

To the loyal subjects of this Realm and Commonwealth Your Majesty has already, and in clarion tones, proclaimed Your animation by that spirit of dedication to duty which characterised Your Royal father; and in humble, yet ardent, fealty we beg that You will accept this tribute of our loyalty and service.

With fervent hearts we pray that, comforted by the affection of Your people and fortified by the ready help of Your gallant Consort, Your Majesty may, under God's providence, long live to rule over this Realm in the peace that all men desire.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

It is with great pleasure that I accept this loyal Address from the University of Cambridge. I am deeply touched by your tributes to My father, who, as a member of the University, maintained a very close association with your affairs and an intimate interest in all the activities of the University and the College of which he was a member. For My part, I shall be no less keenly interested in all that concerns your well-being and prosperity. I thank you for your assurances of loyal devotion; and My husband joins with Me in thanking you for your good wishes.

UNIVERSITY OF EDINBURGH.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please Your Majesty:

We, Your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, University Court, Senatus Academicus, Teachers, Students and General Council of the University of Edinburgh, would, on Your Majesty's accession to the Throne, humbly tender this expression of our devotion and attachment to the Royal House and this pledge of our unswerving fidelity.

Proud of Your Majesty's ancient Scottish lineage, we rejoice in the signal services you have already rendered to the peoples of the Commonwealth, and we are confident in our belief that your reign, under the blessing of Almighty God, will continue to promote the well-being and happiness of all the subjects beneath your rule.

Being ever mindful that the foundation of our University was fostered by Your Majesty's royal ancestor, King James the Sixth, a lover as well as a patron of learning, and at times a participator in our scholastic exercises, we likewise cherish the assured hope that Your Majesty, whose name adorns our academic roll, will ever accord your gracious favour to the furtherance of learning that, through knowledge and understanding, all strife and discord may be ended and men in every land live in the quiet enjoyment of their liberty.

We for our part promise such service to you and to all good causes as is appropriate to our professions and attainable by our capacities.

And we, your subjects, shall always pray in earnestness and humility that Your Majesty may long be spared to reign illustriously over your united peoples in prosperity and peace.

Philip, Chancellor.

Alexander Fleming, Rector.

Edward V. Appleton, Principal and Vice-Chancellor.

May, 1952.

I accept this Address from the University of Edinburgh with particular pleasure because of My personal associations with the University, of which I am an Honorary Graduate.

I acknowledge with gratitude your assurances of loyalty to the Throne, and of continued service to the community. I am confident that during My reign the University will play its full part in the pursuit of knowledge and of understanding.

A LOYAL ADDRESS FROM THE FREE CHURCHES

including

THE GENERAL BODY OF PROTESTANT DISSIDENT MINISTERS OF THE THREE DENOMINATIONS, Presbyterian, Independent and Baptist;

THE BODY OF PROTESTANT DISSIDENT MINISTERS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN DENOMINATION;

THE DISSIDENT DEPUTIES representing the Laymen of the Three Denominations;

THE FREE CHURCH FEDERAL COUNCIL, including representatives of the Baptist, Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian Denominations.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please Your Majesty:

We, Your Majesty's dutiful subjects, representing the Free Churches, including the two Bodies of Protestant Dissenters enjoying the ancient and highly valued privilege of personal access to the Sovereign, desire to convey to Your Majesty, upon the occasion of Your Accession, the assurance of our loyalty to Your Person and Throne.

We respectfully offer to Your Majesty our profound sympathy in the heavy sorrow which has befallen You and all the Members of Your Royal House through the death of our late Sovereign, King George the Sixth. We cherish with reverence the memory of his Reign, made glorious by his devotion to duty as the constitutional Monarch of a free people, the sincerity of his religious faith and practice, the identification of himself with all his subjects in their joys and their sufferings, and his personal example of courage and endurance to the uttermost.

We now present our humble loyalty to Your Majesty, abundantly assured by Your own gracious and impressive words that the highest well-being of all Your Peoples will ever be Your foremost care. We pray that Your Reign may be memorable for the deepening of the righteousness that alone exalts a nation, and of its foundations in the sanctity of home and family life; the preservation of our civil and religious freedom, the restoration of true prosperity, and the secure establishment of peace among the nations. We gratefully recall the many devoted services Your Majesty has willingly rendered in times past, endearing You to the hearts of all Your People throughout the Commonwealth; and we are confident that as the years increase, this warm affection will continually deepen and abound.

We assure Your Majesty of our constant prayers that in the discharge of Your high responsibilities You may at all times be guided and sustained by the Divine Wisdom and Power; that You may long be spared to rule in felicity and peace over a united, free and happy People; and that the blessing of God may rest upon Your Majesty, Your Royal Consort, and Your Family.

For the General Body of Protestant Dissident Ministers of the Three Denominations:

Henry Townsend, Chairman.
David T. Davies, Secretary.

For the Body of Protestant Dissident Ministers of the Presbyterian Denomination:

Mortimer Rowe, Chairman.
Roger Thomas, Secretary.

For the Dissident Deputies of the Three Denominations:

C. T. Le Quesne, Chairman.
Harold B. Shephard, Secretary.

For the Free Church Federal Council:

S. Maurice Watts, Moderator.
Arnold Clark, President of the Baptist Union of Great Britain and Ireland.
Leslie J. Tizard, Chairman of the Congregational Union of England and Wales.
H. Watkin-Jones, President of the Methodist Conference.
J. C. Bacon, Past Moderator of the Presbyterian Church of England.
Howell Williams, Moderator of the Presbyterian Church of Wales.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

Dr. Rowe,

I thank you for this loyal Address from the Free Churches which you have presented to Me. The sympathy of the members of your Churches in the grievous loss which I have sustained by the death of My dear father, to whom all his peoples were bound by the strongest ties of affection and esteem, is a great consolation in My sorrow. Your assurances of devotion, affection and confidence will always be a source of strength to Me in the discharge of My duties for the welfare of all the members of our great family of Nations. My husband and I join in your prayers that during My reign our national way of life may be inspired by a deepening appreciation of the Christian verities and values, and that, under Divine Providence, we may all enjoy the blessings of freedom, prosperity and peace.

SOCIETY OF FRIENDS.

TO ELIZABETH, QUEEN OF GREAT BRITAIN AND NORTHERN IRELAND AND OF OTHER REALMS AND TERRITORIES BEYOND THE SEAS.

May it please the Queen:

As representing the Religious Society of Friends commonly known as Quakers, we bring you the love and loyalty of many hearts.

We recall with deep thankfulness the self-sacrificing devotion to duty with which your father, supported by your mother with equal devotion, accepted and discharged the heavy responsibilities that attach to the Throne. We remember with gratitude the simplicity and naturalness that marked all his contacts with his subjects, thereby enhancing the dignity of his high office. The respect and affection that he inspired united his subjects above all differences of race and class and party, and he was able also to strengthen the ties between them and other peoples. You have, to guide you, a great example and we rejoice that you have already shown your intention of following in your father's footsteps.

We pray that God will enable you, through a long and happy reign, to keep your subjects united not only in loyalty to you, our Queen, but also in fresh dedication to those standards of righteousness in family and public life that alone exalt a nation. We pray too that your example and influence may continue to promote understanding and peace among all peoples.

On the last occasion when we were privileged to present an address to the King, we offered our loyal congratulations to your father and mother on your betrothal to the husband of your choice. We rejoice to think how truly your union has been owned and blessed of God. As your father was sustained throughout his reign by your mother so you have at your side a wise counsellor in your husband the Duke of Edinburgh who has already an established place in the affection of your subjects.

We pray that the richest blessings of Almighty God may rest upon you and your husband and upon your children.

Signed on behalf and by direction of the Meeting for Sufferings of the Religious Society of Friends in Great Britain: held on the fourth day of fourth month, 1952.

George A. Sutherland,
Clerk of Meeting for Sufferings.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

It gives Me great pleasure to receive this loyal and affectionate Address from the Religious Society of Friends. I am deeply moved by the sincerity of your tributes to My father, and by the warmth of your good wishes towards Myself, My husband and Our children. I join in your prayer that My Reign may be blessed by God, and that all My peoples may dwell in righteousness and in peace with their fellows throughout the world.

THE ROYAL SOCIETY.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

The Loyal Address of the President, Council and Fellows of the Royal Society of London for Improving Natural Knowledge.

Most Gracious Sovereign.

We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the President, Council and Fellows of the Royal Society of London for Improving Natural Knowledge, humbly desire to express our grief and our sense of personal bereavement in the loss of Your universally beloved and revered Father, our late Sovereign King George the Sixth, a loss which is mourned by the whole Nation and Commonwealth. To Your Majesty we offer our most heartfelt sympathy.

We are proud to remember that twenty years ago His late Majesty when Duke of York was graciously pleased to enter the Fellowship of the Royal Society and later, on His accession to the Throne, to become our Patron. He recognized that the development of Science during His reign was of the greatest importance and that the Improvement of Natural Knowledge, for which the Royal Society was founded by Your Royal Predecessor King Charles the Second, was an object ever worthy of His patronage and support.

We desire also to express our loyalty and our deep devotion to Your Majesty's Person, our pride in your Fellowship of the Royal Society and our sincere felicitations upon Your accession to the Throne.

The interest which Your Majesty and His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh have shown in the progress of Science and Discovery assures us that these elements of national greatness will continue to receive Your Majesty's favour and protection. We venture to express the hope that Your Majesty will graciously consent to become our Patron and thus maintain the close bond between the Crown and the Society which has existed since 1662.

It is our fervent prayer that Your Majesty's reign may be long and happy, and that You may ever rule in the hearts as well as over the persons of a loving, dutiful and grateful people.

On behalf of Her Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, The Council and Fellows of the Royal Society of London.

E. D. Adrian, President.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you for this loyal and dutiful Address. My father, to whom you pay so warm a tribute, watched with great interest the work of the Society in the realm of science, where such momentous discoveries were made during his reign. My husband and I share his conviction of the importance of these studies. It gives Me very great pleasure to become the Patron of the Society, and to assure you of My determination to continue and maintain that close and intimate connection which has existed between the Throne and the Society for nearly three hundred years.

LONDON COUNTY COUNCIL.

THE LOYAL AND DUTIFUL ADDRESS OF THE LONDON COUNTY COUNCIL.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please your Majesty—

We, the Chairman, Aldermen and Councillors of the London County Council—representatives of the people of your Majesty's capital—humbly approach your Majesty to express our profound sorrow at the passing of his late Majesty King George the Sixth, and respectfully to extend to you our loyal congratulations on your Accession to the Throne.

Our late and beloved King was to us an example of all that is good in public and in family life. His unflinching kindness and ready sympathy, his courage and resolution throughout the anxious and troubled years of his reign and the warm encouragement which at all times he gave to us in our work for the people of his capital, endeared him to us and inspired a deep sense of gratitude and admiration.

The people of London have lost a true friend. They derive great comfort, however, from their certain knowledge that his noble spirit and his beneficent influence endure and today live in the person of your Majesty.

It is with gratitude and sincere appreciation that we recall your Majesty's interest in our activities and your visits to our County Hall in the years before your Accession. We have particularly happy memories of your Majesty's gracious presence and the presence of your Royal husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, at the celebration of the Council's Diamond Jubilee and at the opening of our Royal Festival Hall.

We are proud to stand before your Majesty on this day and to offer with our most loyal congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne our warm affection and our homage.

We pray that your Majesty, His Royal Highness and your family may be blessed with long life and every happiness and that the years of your Majesty's reign may be marked by the increase of freedom, peace and prosperity throughout the world.

Edwin Bayliss, Chairman of the Council.
(Countersigned.)

Howard Roberts, Clerk of the Council.

22nd May, 1952.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you for this loyal and dutiful Address from the London County Council. I am deeply moved by the terms of sincerity and affection with which you speak of the personal qualities of My dear father, and of the special place which he won for himself in the hearts of the people of London. So far as I am able, I shall support your endeavours to further the happiness and welfare of the vast population which you represent. In thanking you, with My husband, for your kind wishes, I join earnestly in your prayers for peace, happiness and prosperity.

ROYAL ACADEMY OF ARTS.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

We, Your Majesty's Loyal Subjects, the Members of the Royal Academy of Arts, beg leave humbly to offer the expression of our grief at the death of His Majesty King George VI, and of our sympathy with Your Majesty and the Royal Family in Your great sorrow. We artists have especially to mourn the loss of a Patron, Protector and Supporter who generously came to the aid of his Society, conferring on it so many special marks of his favour. In this His Majesty continued and extended the tradition of Royal Patronage initiated by our Founder, Your Majesty's august ancestor, King George III.

We further desire to express to Your Majesty our congratulations on Your accession to the Throne, and to assure You of our devoted allegiance. The interest You have shown in the Arts emboldens us to express the hope that Your Majesty may continue to bestow upon the Royal Academy the privileges that it has been proud to enjoy under Your illustrious predecessors. May Your Majesty's reign be long, prosperous and happy; and crowned, under Divine Providence, with every blessing.

Gerald Kelly, President.
Henry Rushbury, Keeper.
E. Vincent Harris, Treasurer.
Humphrey Brooke, Secretary.
William Reid Dick, Trustee.
William Russell Flint, Trustee.
Alfred J. Munnings, Past President.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I am pleased to accept this Address from the members of the Royal Academy of Arts. Your sympathy is a great consolation to Me and My Family in our bereavement, and I am strengthened by your assurances of loyalty and allegiance. It will be My pleasure to extend to the Royal Academy the ancient privileges which were continued by My father, and to support your work for the development of the practice and appreciation of the arts.

DEPUTATION FROM THE BOARD OF DEPUTIES OF BRITISH JEWS AND THE ANGLO-JEWISH ASSOCIATION.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, the London Committee of Deputies of the British Jews, the elected and representative body of the Jews of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and we, the Anglo-Jewish Association, both on our own behalf and on behalf of our constituencies and branches, respectfully offer to Your Majesty the expression of the profound sympathy of Your Majesty's Jewish subjects in the irreparable loss suffered by Your Majesty by the untimely death of our late beloved King.

Your Majesty's Jewish subjects in the United Kingdom and in the British Commonwealth and Empire are overwhelmed at the loss they in common with your Majesty's other subjects have sustained in the death of the late King, whose noble example and courage in the dark days and difficult times of His Majesty's unhappily too short reign, and in face of great physical suffering, were an inspiration to his subjects throughout His Majesty's Realms.

His inestimable personal qualities, his wisdom and devotion to the interests of his people endeared him to his subjects of every race and creed and evoked their deepest affection and respect.

The undying memory which His late Majesty has left behind and the gratitude of his devoted subjects will, we earnestly pray, in some measure assuage Your Majesty's grief.

We humbly tender our loyal duty to Your Majesty with our respectful congratulations on your Accession. We assure Your Majesty of our continued devotion to your Throne and Person, and we earnestly pray that the Almighty may bestow the blessings of happiness and peace on Your Majesty and your distinguished Consort, and that you may long continue to enjoy the affection and devoted loyalty of a happy and contented people.

Abraham Cohen, President, Board of Deputies of British Jews.

Ewen E. S. Montagu, President, Anglo-Jewish Association.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I am grateful for this Address of sympathy and good wishes from the Board of Deputies of British Jews and the Anglo-Jewish Association. I am deeply touched by your references to My dear father's inspiring example of courage and devotion to the service of his peoples, and in My efforts to follow his high example of royal duty, I shall be strengthened by the knowledge of the affection and loyalty of My Jewish subjects throughout the Commonwealth.

BANK OF ENGLAND.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, beg leave humbly to approach Your Majesty with an expression of our grief upon the loss of our beloved Sovereign, His late Majesty King George the Sixth.

We mourn His untimely death: but remember with thankfulness how by His dauntless courage He united and upheld the peoples of His Kingdom and Commonwealth through years when men's hearts might have failed them. We find some solace in the memory of His gracious bearing and selfless devotion to duty and in the legacy of His enduring example.

We present to Your Majesty our humble and heartfelt congratulations upon Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne: confident that the well-being of Your peoples will be the object of Your Majesty's continual solicitude.

And we pray that Your Majesty's reign may be long and happy and that the blessing of Almighty God may rest upon Your Majesty.

C. F. Cobbold, Governor.
D. G. M. Bernard, Deputy Governor.
Charles Hambro, Director.
A. W. C. Dascombe, Secretary.

(L.S.)

10th April, 1952.

I am glad to meet you and receive the loyal Address of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England. I am deeply moved by your tribute of gratitude to My dear father's constant courage and faithful resolution in days of great national peril. With God's help I shall ever strive to follow His shining example of service to all My peoples, and your prayers and good wishes will be a source of strength to Me in performing this high duty.

LIEUTENANCY OF THE CITY OF LONDON.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

The Humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the Rest of Your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign:

We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the Rest of Your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, humbly offer to Your Majesty our most profound expressions of condolence on the great loss sustained by Your Majesty by the sad death of a loving father and by Your Majesty's august family in the lamented demise of our late so beloved Sovereign King George the Sixth, desiring also to express to Your Majesty the sense of deep sorrow which will long be felt by the citizens of London and by the British Commonwealth and Empire in the loss of a noble and good Sovereign whose fine qualities have brought incalculable blessings to them and to the world at large during a memorable reign.

It is our duty and earnest wish at the same time to convey to Your Majesty our most sincere congratulations on Your Majesty's accession to the Throne and to assure Your Majesty of our constant loyalty and devotion to Your Majesty's Gracious Person; and we humbly pray that Almighty God will bless Your Majesty with health and happiness to discharge the heavy task before you, supported as you will ever be by the loyal affection of your loving subjects.

Signed by Order of the Court,

Roland Champness.

Clerk to Her Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

CITY OF WESTMINSTER

TO HER MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY QUEEN ELIZABETH II.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Councillors of Your Majesty's loyal City of Westminster, offer on behalf of our citizens our deepest sympathy to Your Majesty in the loss of your most gracious father King George VI, whom we honoured and loved as the father of the great Commonwealth family.

In Your Majesty we acclaim as our Sovereign a Princess who was born and married and has made her home in our City, who has moved freely among us, and who has won our hearts. We have been inspired by Your Majesty's words and example to see in the life of service the noblest of earthly dedications. Watching your travels we have been enabled to stand in spirit beside our kinsmen beyond the seas, and to feel the grandeur of our fellowship in the great family of nations of which Your Majesty is now the Head.

Under Your Majesty's leadership, aided and sustained by His Royal Highness, your gallant Consort, we shall meet with undaunted confidence any challenge that the future may bring, and the citizens of Westminster will strive to excel their fellow-subjects in loyalty of service in proportion to their privilege of dwelling nearest to Your Majesty's person.

With one heart and voice we pray the blessing of Almighty God upon Your Majesty's reign.

Given under the Corporate Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen and Councillors of the City of Westminster this Twenty first day of May 1952.

A. Sciver, Mayor.

Parker Morris, Town Clerk.

(L.S.)

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

The welfare of the City where I was born will ever be near to My heart.
