

Ealing, Christ Church, and the benefice of Ealing, Saint Saviour, both situate in the diocese of London:

" SUPPLEMENTARY SCHEME

" Whereas in accordance with the provisions of the said Order in Council the aforesaid benefices became united together into one benefice under the style of 'The United Benefice of Ealing, Christ the Saviour' with effect from the twelfth day of October, 1951, and the parishes of the said benefices thereupon became united into one parish for ecclesiastical purposes, and the parish church of the parish of Christ Church, Ealing, became the parish church of the united parish:

" And whereas provision is made in the said Order for the appropriation of the church of Saint Saviour, Ealing, for any of the purposes mentioned in the 24th Section of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923; and the said church of Saint Saviour has accordingly ceased to be used for Divine Service:

" And whereas the Reverend Prebendary Wilfred Henry Aglionby (formerly the incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Saviour, Ealing, and now the incumbent of the said united benefice) Edward Stanley Griffin of 10, King's Avenue, Ealing, London, W.5., and Charles Edmund Street of 21, Elm Avenue, Ealing, London, W.5., as trustees, hold a fund for the rebuilding and adornment of the said church of Saint Saviour, Ealing, and the object of the said fund failed upon the said church ceasing to be used for Divine Service:

" Now therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the said fund shall be applied by the said trustees for the like object for the benefit of Christ Church, Ealing, being the parish church of the aforesaid united parish, including the repair and maintenance of the fabric, the installation of a new heating system and the renewal of the lighting system."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Supplementary Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Supplementary Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Supplementary Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 24th day of June, 1952.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Minister of Housing and Local Government, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the Parish of Wainfleet All Saints, in the County of Lincoln, ten days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by subsequent enactments, made a Representation to Her Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the Public Health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Civil Parish of Wainfleet All Saints in the said County of Lincoln, save with the previous approval of the Minister of Housing and Local Government, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein as follows, viz.:—

Wainfleet All Saints.—Forthwith and entirely in the old Churchyard of All Saints in the said Parish;

Provided that—

In the said Churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give Notice of such Representation and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 5th day of August next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 5th day of August.
