

patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Norwich Diocesan Board of Patronage."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Norwich.

F. J. Fernau.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of July, 1952.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of July, 1952, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Spencer, Bishop of Peterborough (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Cottesbrooke and the benefice of Great Creaton both site in the diocese of Peterborough.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Cottesbrooke and the benefice of Great Creaton shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'the United Benefice of Cottesbrooke with Great Creaton,' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend James Cecil Williams, if he is then incumbent of the said benefices of Cottesbrooke and Great Creaton, shall, with his consent (testified by his signature hereto), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Cottesbrooke shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"4. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the patron of the benefice of Cottesbrooke having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Schemes has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of July, 1952.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 26th day of June, 1952, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of Salisbury (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme), have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for effecting the union of the benefice of Hilmarton and a part of the benefice of Bremhill with Foxham and Highway, both situate in the diocese of Salisbury.

"SCHEME.

"1. With the consents (testified by their signing this Scheme) of the Reverend Kenneth Saunders Rich and of the Reverend Arthur Lyle Bradbury as the incumbents respectively of the said benefices of Hilmarton and Bremhill with Foxham and Highway, upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette a part of the benefice and parish of Bremhill with Foxham and Highway, namely, all that detached part of such benefice and parish containing the church of Saint Peter, Highway, shall be severed from the remaining part of that benefice and parish and united to the benefice and parish of Hilmarton under the style of 'The United Benefice of Hilmarton and Highway'.
