Earl Marshal's Office,

14, Belgrave Square,
London, S.W.1.

1st December, 1952.

THE EARL MARSHAL'S NOTICE TO PEERS AND PEERESSES CONCERNING THEIR ATTENDANCE AT THE SOLEMNITY OF THE CORONATION OF HER MOST SACRED MAJESTY QUEEN ELIZABETH II IN WESTMINSTER ABBEY ON JUNE 2ND NEXT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty having been pleased to command me, as Earl Marshal of England, to prepare and countersign Letters of Summons to be passed under the Royal Sign Manual, requiring the attendance of Peers and Peeresses of Great Britain at the Solemnity of Her Majesty's Royal Coronation, and the Queen having been further pleased to command me to prepare such Letters also for those Peers of Ireland whose right to vote at the election of a Representative Peer for Ireland has, on claim made on their behalf, been admitted by the House of Lords and who are not now Members of the House of Commons, I do hereby request that all those Peers who, in conformity with the above regulations, desire to attend at the Solemnity of the Royal Coronation of Her Majesty, will be pleased to transmit their respective addresses to me at this office; and that the Peeresses who may desire to attend at the said Coronation, will also be pleased to transmit their respective Christian names and addresses to me, in order that their applications may be considered.

NOTE.—1. Only the applications of those Peers and Peeresses who reply to the above intimation before the 18th day of December will receive consideration. A reasonable margin of time will be allowed in the case of those Peers and Peeresses who are at present residing overseas.

2. Owing to the shortage of space in the Abbey, and the necessity of providing seating for Representatives of the Commonwealth and Empire, the number of Peers and Peeresses who will receive summonses to attend may have to be curtailed.

No guarantee can therefore be given that the receipt of applications as requested above will ensure summonses to attend, and it may be necessary to arrange distribution by ballot or by other similar means.

3. It is regretted that owing to the reasons mentioned in Note 2 above, the Widows of Peers will not receive Her Majesty's Summons upon this occasion, excepting those who are Dames Grand Cross of the Orders of Knighthood.

NORFOLK,
Earl Marshal.

Earl Marshal's Office,

14, Belgrave Square,
London, S.W.1.

1st December, 1952.

THE EARL MARSHAL'S ORDERS CONCERNING THE ROBES AND DRESS TO BE WORN BY PEERS AND PEERESSES ATTENDING THE SOLEMNITY OF THE CORONATION OF HER MOST SACRED MAJESTY QUEEN ELIZABETH II IN WESTMINSTER ABBEY.

PEERS.

Those Peers taking part in the Processions or Ceremonies in Westminster Abbey will wear Robes of State, with coronets, over full Dress Civil Uniform or No. 1 Full Dress Naval Uniform, Full Dress Military Uniform or Full Dress Royal Air Force Uniform to which they may be entitled or, if not entitled to any uniform, then over full velvet Court Dress, or one of the alternative styles of Court Dress, as laid down in the Regulations for Court Dress in the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Those Peers not taking part in the processions or ceremonies will be expected to wear the same if possible. Alternatively, they may wear mantles of Orders of Knighthood to which they may be entitled, or Parliament Robes, over any dress which they wore at a previous Coronation, or over evening dress (knee breeches optional) or a black suit with white shirt, wing collar, white bow tie and waistcoat (as for evening dress). Peers below the rank of Earl who are not in possession of coronets may wear, as an alternative to coronets, Caps of State of a pattern similar to those worn inside coronets, details of which will be available on application to the Earl Marshal's Office after January 15th.

The Robe of State of a Peer is to be of crimson velvet, edged down the front with miniver pure, with a full cape also of miniver pure with rows or bars of ermine tails (or the like) according to degree:—

A Baron—two rows of ermine tails.

A Viscount—two rows and a half.

An Earl—three rows.

A Marquess—three rows and a half.

A Duke—four rows.

The coronet of a Peer is to be of silver gilt, the cap of crimson velvet turned up with ermine, with a golden tassel on the top, the circlet having on its rim, in the case of:—

A Baron—Six silver balls on the rim of equal size and at equal distances.

A Viscount—Sixteen silver balls on the rim, all of equal size.

An Earl—Eight silver balls, raised on points, with golden strawberry leaves between the points, very slightly raised.

A Marquess—Four golden strawberry leaves and four silver balls alternately, all very slightly raised, and all of equal height.

A Duke—Eight golden strawberry leaves, very slightly raised, and all of equal height.

No jewels or precious stones may adorn the coronets of Peers, nor counterfeit pearls be used instead of silver balls. The circlets of coronets of all degrees are to be chased, or engraved, with representations of jewels, except those of Barons, which are to be plain.

NOTE.

1. Decorations and Collars and Stars of Orders of Knighthood will be worn.

2. A Peer whose highest dignity is in the Peerage of Scotland or Ireland will wear robes and coronet of such dignity.

PEERESSES.

Peeresses attending will be expected to wear, if possible, Robes of State and coronets, according to their respective ranks, together with Kirtles and Coronation dress.

Those not in possession of the above, and below the degree of Countess, may wear alternative robes and dress, details of which will be available on application to the Earl Marshal's Office after January 15th.

Those not in possession of coronets, and who are below the degree of Countess, may wear alternatively Caps of State of a pattern similar to those worn inside a coronet, exact details of which will also be available after January 15th.

The Robe of State of a Peeress consists of a mantle of crimson velvet with a train, the whole edged with a band of miniver pure and having a cape also of miniver pure with rows or bars of ermine tails (or the like), as follows:—

A Baroness—The train three feet on the ground, the edging of miniver pure to be two inches, and the cape to have two rows of ermine tails.

A Viscountess—The train a yard and a quarter, the edging two inches, and two rows and a half of ermine tails.

A Countess—The train a yard and a half, the edging three inches, and three rows of ermine tails.

A Marchioness—The train a yard and three quarters, the edging four inches, and the cape to have three rows and a half of ermine tails.

A Duchess—The train two yards, the edging to be five inches in breadth, and the cape to have four rows of ermine tails.

The Coronet of a Peeress is to be similar in all respects to that of a Peer of the same degree, except in regard to its size, which is to be smaller.

The Coronation Dress worn by a Peeress with her Robe consists of a Kirtle of crimson velvet, bordered all round with a narrow edging of miniver pure, scalloped or straight in front, or gathered back in three festoons, each tied with a bow of golden tinsel, plain otherwise. The Kirtle, which may be fastened down the back or the front, opens from the waist: widening gradually down to the ground. The sleeves should be about nine inches long, and each have two narrow bands of miniver pure, and a like edging which may be scalloped. White lace sleeves may be added.

The Kirtle is worn over the usual full Court Dress, without a train. The petticoat (or skirt) should be white or slightly cream coloured, with lace, embroidery, or brocade, in accordance with taste. Brocade is to be of gold or silver; no colour may be introduced into it. Feathers and veils will not be worn but a tiara should be worn, if possible.

NOTE.

1. Jewels may be worn round the neck, on the bodice, and on the petticoat.

2. Any Robes and Kirtles worn at previous Coronations may be worn.

3. The wives of Peers, and Peeresses in their own right whose highest dignity is in the Peerage of Scotland or Ireland, will wear robes of such dignity.

Government House, Canberra.

2nd December, 1952.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to approve the following immediate award in recognition of gallant and distinguished service in Korea.

Distinguished Flying Cross.

Flight Lieutenant Edgar Wesley GUY (033133), Royal Australian Air Force, No. 77 (Interceptor/Fighter) Squadron.

Flight Lieutenant Guy was a member of No. 77 (Interceptor/Fighter) Squadron, Royal Australian Air Force, Korea, from February, 1952, until August, 1952, and over the last three months of this period held the appointment of Flight Commander. On 27th August, 1952, Flight Lieutenant Guy led the Squadron in a rocket attack against an enemy Divisional Headquarters in North Korea. The target, located in most difficult terrain, was heavily defended, and visibility was reduced to a minimum due to adverse weather. By his daring and brilliant leadership, Flight Lieutenant Guy located the position, led the Squadron into attack, and completely destroyed the target. During his operational tour, Flight Lieutenant Guy carried out 174 individual sorties, all of which were flown in Meteor Jet Fighter Aircraft against the enemy, including 80 strike attacks against defended enemy installations, troop and supply areas and lines of communication. He personally led the Squadron on many of those attacks. Throughout his entire operational tour, Flight Lieutenant Guy consistently displayed personal courage, leadership and ability of a very high order, bringing great credit upon himself and the Royal Australian Air Force.

Civil Service Commission, 2nd December, 1952.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF PLANS ASSISTANTS IN H.M. LAND REGISTRY.

1. Age.

Candidates must be at least 16 and under 18 years of age on 1st March, 1953.

But candidates who have served in any established post to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, or who have served on established conditions except for sick leave and pension in a post to which such a certificate would normally apply, may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding two years which they may have spent in such service before 1st March, 1953, provided that the maximum of two years may be extended by any period of compulsory service in H.M. Forces under the National Service Acts.

2. Sex.

Both boys and girls are eligible.

3. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject; or

(ii) have resided in Her Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalised British subjects, they must have resided in Her Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph, they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with Her Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

4. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character.

5. Examination.

The subjects of examination and the marks they will carry are as follows:—

(1) English	200
(2) Arithmetic	100
(3) Mathematics	200
(4) Drawing	200

Candidates will be arranged in order of merit according to their aggregate of marks in the examination as a whole. Even if there are unfilled vacancies, no candidate will be appointed who does not attain an aggregate which satisfies the Civil Service Commissioners.

6. Candidates trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

7. Fee.

An application fee of 7s. 6d. is payable by all candidates. This must be sent with the application form, and is not returnable in any circumstances. A further fee of 12s. 6d., being the balance of the prescribed fee of £1, must be paid by each candidate on admission to the examination.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competition will be held under the above Regulations commencing on 3rd March, 1953.

No person will be admitted to the Competition from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received on or before 1st January, 1953, an application on the prescribed form which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

Civil Service Commission, 2nd December, 1952.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

RECRUITMENT OF SHIP SURVEYORS (MALE) IN THE MARINE SURVEY SERVICE OF THE MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT.

1. Age.

Candidates must be at least 28 years of age on the 1st January, 1953. The Commissioners have not specified an upper age limit for this Competition. In general, however, Government Departments require a reasonable period of service from persons newly appointed to the Civil Service; and accordingly the Commissioners reserve the right to give weight to this factor in considering candidates for these posts who are over 50 years of age.

2. Sex.

Men only may compete under these Regulations.

3. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject, or

(ii) have resided in Her Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalised British subjects, they must have resided in Her Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with Her Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

4. Qualifications.

Candidates must possess a University degree in Naval Architecture or furnish other evidence of satisfactory educational attainments.

The candidate must have been trained in the theory and practice of ship design, construction, and repair for not less than five years, and since the completion of his training must have had practical experience in the building and repairing of ships for not less than three years. He must have attained to a position of responsibility in a shipbuilding or ship-repairing establishment.

When at least one year has been spent in a day course that includes Naval Architecture at a recognised Technical School or College, the time so spent will be allowed to count as one year, but no more, out of the five years' training required.

The candidate must also submit copies of testimonials giving particulars of appointments held since completion of his training.

Every candidate must, before he is declared successful, pass the Ministry of Transport sight test. A candidate who has not passed this test at the time he sends in his application will, if he is chosen for interview, receive an instruction to present himself at a convenient centre to undergo the test.

5. Application.

A candidate may make one, and only one, application under these Regulations. Application must be made on the appropriate form within the time and in the manner of which notice is given by the Commissioners.

6. Competition.

Candidates who are accepted by the Ministry of Transport and the Civil Service Commissioners as suitably qualified will be required to attend for interview in London before a Board consisting of representatives of the Civil Service Commissioners and the Ministry of Transport.

The Selection Board in reaching their decision will take into account candidates' technical knowledge, their record and experience, and their personal qualities as shown at the interview. Importance is attached to personal qualities and they will play a considerable part in determining the success of a candidate.

The Selection Board will recommend to the Civil Service Commissioners for appointment the candidates who appear to them to have the best qualifications.

7. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

8. Candidates trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

9. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

10. Fee.

Each successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £4 before the issue of a Certificate of Qualification for appointment.

Civil Service Commission, 2nd December, 1952.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

RECRUITMENT OF ENGINEER AND SHIP SURVEYORS (MALE) IN THE MARINE SURVEY SERVICE OF THE MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT.

1. Age.

Candidates must be at least 28 years of age on the 1st January, 1953. The Commissioners have not specified an upper age limit for this competition. In general, however, Government Departments require a reasonable period of service from persons newly appointed to the Civil Service; and accordingly the Commissioners reserve the right to give weight to this factor in considering candidates for these posts who are over 50 years of age.

2. Sex.

Men only may compete under these Regulations.

3. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with Her Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

4. Qualifications.

Either

(a) (i) Candidates must possess, at the date of making application, either (i) an Extra First Class Certificate of Competency as an engineer in the Mercantile Marine or (ii) a First Class Certificate of Competency, endorsed for steam or for motor as may be relevant, together with a University degree in Engineering, or (iii) a First Class Certificate of Competency, endorsed for steam or for motor as may be relevant. Candidates in possession of qualifications as at (iii) above will be required to obtain one of the two extra qualifications outlined in (i) and (ii) above, i.e. either Extra First Class Certificate of Competency or University degree in Engineering, before completion of the period of probation. Failure to obtain the full qualifications within the specified period will lead to termination of established appointment.

(ii) Candidates must have served at sea as engineers as indicated below, in foreign-going ships propelled by steam or by heavy oil engines, for at least five years; experience of heavy oil engines is desirable. Service in home trade ships propelled by steam or heavy oil engines if not less than 66 N.H.P. will be accepted to a limited extent in lieu of service in foreign-going ships (eighteen months' service in home trade ships being regarded as equivalent to twelve months' service in foreign-going ships), but a candidate must have served for a period of at least two years in foreign-going ships. The qualifying service must have been performed as a Chief Engineer or as a Watch-keeping Engineer on main engines or boilers. Where experience of slightly less than five years is of a particularly valuable type, a candidate with less than five years' service may be admitted at the discretion of the Commissioners.

(iii) Candidates must also submit copies of testimonials giving particulars of their sea service and of any shore appointments they have held subsequent to obtaining their First Class or Extra First Class Certificate, as the case may be.

or

(b) They must be retired Naval Engineer Officers who have served on a regular engagement and who are in possession of a First Class Certificate of Competency or of Service. They must have served for at least a total of five years at sea in H.M. Ships in full commission as Engineer Officer, Senior Engineer or Watch-keeping Engineer Officer. They must submit full particulars of their service in the Royal Navy.

(c) Every candidate must, before he is declared successful, pass the Ministry of Transport sight test. A candidate who has not passed this test at the time he sends in his application will, if he is chosen for interview, receive an instruction to present himself at a convenient centre to undergo the test.

5. Application.

A candidate may make one, and only one, application under these Regulations. Application must be made on the appropriate form within the time and in the manner of which notice is given by the Commissioners.

6. Competition.

Candidates who are accepted by the Ministry of Transport and the Civil Service Commissioners as suitably qualified will be required to attend for interview in London before a Board consisting of representatives of the Civil Service Commissioners and the Ministry of Transport.

The interview will test

(i) Technical knowledge—Questions may be asked covering any part of the syllabus for Extra First Class Certificate and will be particularly directed to the following subjects:—

Practice and theory in the design, operation and maintenance of all types of marine machinery, including electrical machinery; of all types of boilers used at sea for the generation of steam; and in the construction, repair and propulsion of steel ships. The candidate may be required to illustrate his replies by means of rough sketches.

(ii) Record and experience—The Board will take into consideration the candidate's record and experience, and testimonials he submits from persons having direct knowledge of his work in the past.

(iii) Personal qualities—Importance is attached to personal qualities and will play a considerable part in determining the success of a candidate.

The Selection Board will recommend to the Civil Service Commissioners for appointment the candidates who appear to them to have the best qualifications. The Board may also recommend that certain candidates should be classified as reserve candidates, and considered by the Commissioners for appointment in conjunction with the results of later Boards. The decision of the Commissioners will be final.

7. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

8. Candidates trained as teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

9. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

10. Fee.

Each successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £4 before the issue of a Certificate of Qualification for appointment.

Civil Service Commission, 2nd December, 1952.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

RECRUITMENT OF NAUTICAL SURVEYORS (MALE) IN THE MARINE SURVEY SERVICE OF THE MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT.

1. Age.

Candidates must be at least 28 years of age on the 1st January, 1953. The Commissioners have not specified an upper age limit for this competition. In general, however, Government Departments require a reasonable period of service from persons newly appointed to the Civil Service; and accordingly the Commissioners reserve the right to give weight to this factor in considering candidates for these posts who are over 50 years of age.

2. Sex.

Men only may compete under these Regulations.

3. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject, or

(ii) have resided in Her Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalised British subjects, they must have resided in Her Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with Her Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

4. Qualifications.

Candidates must possess, at the date of making application, either (i) an Extra Master's Certificate of Competency or (ii) a Master's Certificate of Competency, and in either case he must have been in command as a Master of a Foreign-going merchant steam or motor ship. Candidates in possession of a Master's Certificate of Competency will be required to obtain the Extra Master's Certificate of Competency before completion of the period of probation. Failure to obtain the full qualification within the specified period will lead to the termination of established appointment.

The candidates must also submit copies of testimonials giving particulars of recent appointments.

Every candidate must, before he is declared successful, pass the Ministry of Transport sight test. A candidate who has not passed this test at the time he sends in his application will, if he is chosen for interview, receive an instruction to present himself at a convenient centre to undergo the test.

5. Application.

A candidate may make one, and only one, application under these Regulations. Application must be made on the appropriate form within the time and in the manner of which notice is given by the Commissioners.

6. Competition.

Candidates who are accepted by the Ministry of Transport and the Civil Service Commissioners as suitably qualified will be required to attend for interview in London before a Board consisting of representatives of the Civil Service Commissioners and the Ministry of Transport.

The Selection Board in reaching their decision will take into account candidates' technical knowledge, their record and experience, and their personal qualities as shown at the interview. Importance is attached to personal qualities and they will play a considerable part in determining the success of a candidate.

The Selection Board will recommend to the Civil Service Commissioners for appointment the candidates who appear to them to have the best qualifications. The Board may also recommend that certain candidates should be classified as reserve candidates, and considered by the Commissioners for appointment in conjunction with the results of later Boards. The decision of the Commissioners will be final.

7. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

8. Candidates trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

9. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

10. Fee.

Each successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £4 before the issue of a Certificate of Qualification for appointment.
