

Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Right Reverend Kenneth, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Oxford for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of October, 1953.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 9th day of October, 1953, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend Clifford Salisbury, Bishop of Gloucester (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme), for effecting the unions of (1) the benefice of Sevenhampton with Charlton Abbots and the benefice of Hawling (now part of the benefice of Hawling with Cold Salperton) and (2) the benefice of Haselton with Compton Abdale and the benefice of Cold Salperton (now part of the benefice of Hawling with Cold Salperton), all of which benefices are situate in the diocese of Gloucester.

"SCHEME

"1. Union of the Benefices of Sevenhampton with Charlton Abbots and Hawling.

"(i) The benefice of Sevenhampton with Charlton Abbots and the benefice of Hawling, being part of the benefice of Hawling with Cold Salperton, shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Sevenhampton with Charlton Abbots and Hawling', which united benefice shall be in the Archdeaconry and Rural Deanery of Cheltenham, but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"(ii) The union shall take effect upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette and the Reverend Hugh McCalman if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Sevenhampton with Charlton Abbots shall, with his consent (testified by his signature hereto), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"(iii) Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Sevenhampton with Charlton Abbots shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"(iv) In every series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to the united benefice after the union has taken effect the alternate patron who last presented to the benefice of Sevenhampton with Charlton Abbots shall have the first turn, the other patron of the benefice of Sevenhampton with Charlton Abbots shall have the second turn and the alternate patron of the benefice of Hawling with Cold Salperton who was formerly the sole patron of the benefice of Hawling shall have the third turn.

"(v) Upon the union taking effect (a) the whole of the endowments and property then belonging to the benefice of Hawling with Cold Salperton with the exception of the capital sum mentioned in subparagraph (v) of clause 2 of this Scheme and (b) the whole of the endowments and property then belonging to the benefice of Sevenhampton with Charlton Abbots shall be annexed to and together form part of the endowments of the united benefice.

"2. Union of the Benefices of Haselton with Compton Abdale and Cold Salperton.

"(i) The benefice of Haselton with Compton Abdale and the benefice of Cold Salperton, being part of the benefice of Hawling with Cold Salperton, shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Haselton with Compton Abdale and Cold Salperton', but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"(ii) The union shall take effect upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette and the Reverend Gerald Rickards Hughes if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Haselton with Compton Abdale shall, with his consent (testified by his signature hereto), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"(iii) Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Haselton with Compton Abdale shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

"(iv) In every series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to the united benefice after the union has taken effect the alternate patron who did not make the last presentation to the benefice of Haselton with Compton Abdale shall have the first turn, the other patron of the benefice of Haselton with Compton Abdale shall have the second turn and the alternate patron of the benefice of Hawling with Cold Salperton who was formerly the sole patron of the benefice of Cold Salperton shall have the third turn.

"(v) Upon the union taking effect a capital sum sufficient to produce an income of £200 per annum, being part of a larger capital sum at present held by us on behalf of the benefice of Hawling with Cold Salperton shall be annexed to and shall be held by us on behalf of the united benefice and shall, together with the whole of the endowments and property then belonging to the benefice of Haselton with Compton Abdale, form part of the endowments of the united benefice."

And Whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And Whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.
