The Dean and Prebendaries of Westminster, the Representatives of the Church of Scotland and of the Free Churches, the Domestic Chaplains, and the Chaplains, took their stations in the Nave, immediately before the Officers of Arms, in readiness to lead the Procession.

A Guard of Honour of the Queen's Company Grenadier Guards was mounted in the Vestibule, and the Queen's Company Colour was posted at the entrance to the Choir.

Her Majesty the Queen, accompanied by His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, having proceeded in State from Buckingham Palace, arrived at 11 o'clock at the Royal Entrance to Westminster Abbey, where she was received by the Earl Marshal and the other Great Officers of State, the Lord bearing the Sword of State, the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and the Bishops her Supporters.

Her Majesty the Queen, and His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, went to their retiring rooms. His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester, attended by his page Charles Brook, Esq., and the Peers and others who had arrived with Her Majesty but who did not take part in the Procession, were conducted to the seats reserved for them.

The Peers and others who arrived with Her Majesty and who were to take part in the Procession formed up in their places in the Vestibule.

At 11.15 o'clock the Queen, accompanied by His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, joined the Procession awaiting her in the Vestibule, and, entering by the West Door of the Abbey, proceeded in State through the Nave and the Choir to her Chair of Estate in the Area near to the Altar, the choristers (under the direction of Dr. William McKie, M.V.O., M.A., D.Mus., Organist of the Abbey) singing the Anthem
