CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

St. James's Palace, S.W.1.
 22nd December, 1953.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased, on the advice of Her Majesty's Canadian Ministers, to approve the undermentioned awards of the George Medal.

Awarded the George Medal:—

Albert Richard DECUYPER, Comox, British Columbia.

Robert Thomas WATERS, Comox, British Columbia.

A Lancaster aircraft which was returning from an instrument practice flight crashed and caught fire near the R.C.A.F. Station at Comox. Mr. Decuyper, who had been working on a farm nearby, immediately ran to the scene. A fourteen year old boy, Robert Waters, saw the crash and having summoned assistance, joined Decuyper. In order to reach the aircraft, it was necessary for them to fight their way through heavy bush and swamp. On reaching the burning machine Decuyper saw one of the occupants endeavouring to free himself and immediately went to his aid. As he reached the port wing of the aircraft he was hurled into the air by the force of an explosion but was uninjured. Undaunted by his narrow escape from serious injury, Decuyper unhesitatingly approached the now blazing machine and was successful in removing the injured man. Waters meanwhile was attempting to rescue another of the occupants. Despite the intense heat and the danger of explosions, and with complete disregard of his own safety, he entered the flaming wreckage and dragged the dazed and injured man away. By their unselfish acts of heroism, during which they hazarded their own lives, Decuyper and Waters were responsible for saving the lives of two members of the Royal Canadian Air Force.
