The final order of merit will be determined by combining the marks for written examination and interview.

7. Assignment.

The Commissioners will decide to which Department each successful candidate is to be assigned. A candidate who declines to accept the post offered will have no claim to be assigned to another, but will be regarded as having declined appointment. REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF MEDICAL OFFICERS IN GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS.

1. Age.

Candidates must be at least 28 years of age on 1st August, 1954. No upper age limit is specified. In general, however, Government Departments require a reasonable period of service from persons newly appointed to the Civil Service, and accordingly, the Commissioners reserve the right to give weight to this factor in considering candidates who are over 50 years of age.

2. Sex and Marriage.

(i) Both men and women may compete under these Regulations, except that in the Prison Commission some vacancies will be available for men only and some for women only.

(ii) Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before 15th October, 1946, or who are widows or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid. 3. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

Provided that a candidate will not be eligible for an appointment under the Ministry of Supply unless he is a natural-born British subject and born within the United Kingdom or in one of the self-governing Dominions of parents also born within the United Kingdom or in one of the self-governing Dominions, except when the circumstances are such as to justify a departure from the general rule, in which case provided the candidate satisfies the conditions prescribed by the preceding paragraphs, he may be admitted to appointment by special permission of the Minister of Supply.

4. Qualifications.

Candidates must be fully qualified and registered medical practitioners. It is desirable that candidates should have particular qualifications or experience appropriate to the special requirements of one or more of the Departments in which vacancies are likely to arise, as stated below; but all candidates should state in their applications the nature of any medical work in which they have special qualifications or experience. EXPLANATORY NOTE.

These regulations amend those provisions of the National Insurance (Unemployment and Sickness Benefit) Regulations, 1948, which relate to days of unemployment. They define the circumstances in which a day cannot be treated as a day of unemployment in the case of persons who place unusual restrictions on the work which they are prepared to accept.

They also amend the conditions under which persons following subsidiary occupations may receive unemployment benefit, and in particular increase to 6s. 8d. the daily amount which may be earned by such persons without loss of benefit.
