NATIONAL PARKS AND ACCESS TO THE COUNTRYSIDE ACT, 1949.

RURAL DISTRICT COUNCIL OF CHELTENHAM.

Cheltenham Rural District Council (The Whites Farm, Gotherington Footpaths) Diversion Order, 1954.

NOTICE is hereby given that on the 12th day of October, 1954, the Minister of Housing and Local Government confirmed the above Order.

The effect of the Order is to divert the public right of way over the undermentioned existing paths in the field immediately adjacent to the eastern side of the house known as Whites Farm (being the enclosure number 160 on the Ordnance Survey Map for Gloucestershire Sheet XIX.4, 1923, Edition), namely:—

(a) the path running diagonally from the stile at the north eastern corner to the stile at the south western corner of the said field, (b) the path running from the stile at the south eastern corner of the said field diagonally north west to the point near Whites Farm where it joins the existing path running along the northern boundary of the said field and (c) the path running from the stile at the north western corner of the said field immediately adjoining Whites Farm along the north side of the said field to the stile at the north eastern corner thereof; to a new line running continuously along and inside the southern and western boundaries of the said field and for a distance of approximately 312 feet along and immediately inside the northern boundary from the north eastern corner of the said field there turning northwards for a distance of approximately 49 feet into the adjoining field (enclosure number 103 on the Ordnance Survey Map for Gloucestershire Sheet XIX.4, 1923 Edition), and thence in a westerly direction along and inside the boundary of that field to the corner near Whites Farm, the present fence or hedge between the two fields to be removed so as to provide an unobstructed right of way along the route of the new path; all paths so diverted to have access to and from the existing stiles in the four corners of the said field No. 160.

The existing public right of way so to be diverted by the Order will be extinguished as from the 10th day of November, 1954.

A certified copy of the Order and of the map contained in the Order as confirmed by the Minister has been deposited at the offices of the Cheltenham Rural District Council, 14, Imperial Square, Cheltenham, and will be open for inspection free of charge during the hours of 9.15 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2.15 p.m. to 5.15 p.m. on Mondays to Fridays inclusive and during the hours of 9.15 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturdays.

The Order becomes operative as from the date of publication of this notice, namely the 26th day of October, 1954, but if any person aggrieved by the Order desires to question the validity thereof or of any provision contained therein on the grounds that it is not within the powers of the National Parks and Access to the Countryside Act, 1949, or on the grounds that any requirement of the Act or any regulation made thereunder has not been complied with in relation to the approval of the Order he may, within six weeks from the date of publication of this notice, make application to the High Court.

Dated this 26th day of October, 1954.

(121) W. A. G. ACOCKS, Clerk to the Council.
