And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme, have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Newcastle.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of December, 1954.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Supplementary Scheme bearing date the 9th day of December, 1954, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Supplementary Scheme under Section 11 of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, for making an alteration in the provisions of an Order of His late Majesty King George the Fifth in Council dated 2nd day of May, 1925, and published in the London Gazette on the 8th day of the same month for uniting the benefices of Cheselbourne; Hilton; and Melcombe Horsey; all situate in the diocese of Salisbury.

"SUPPLEMENTARY SCHEME

"Whereas by Clause 4 of the said Order it was directed that upon the union of the said benefices taking effect a curate should be appointed to assist the incumbent in performing the duties of the united benefice at a stipend of £250 per annum, and that the whole of the tithe rent charge and other endowments derived from the said benefice of Melcombe Horsey should be appropriated as a fund for securing the provision of such stipend as aforesaid:

"And whereas the union of the said benefices took effect on the 7th day of October, 1929:

"And whereas it has been represented to us and we are satisfied that since the making of the said Order the circumstances of the said benefices have now so changed as to render the provision of such assistance no longer necessary:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of Salisbury, and of the Reverend Gwyn Aubrey Thomas, being the incumbent of the united benefice of Hilton with Cheselbourne and Melcombe Horsey (in witness whereof they have signed this Scheme), we do humbly recommend and propose that upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the provisions of Clause 4 of the said Order shall be wholly rescinded."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, relating to the preparation and submission of this Supplementary Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Supplementary Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Supplementary Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of December, 1954.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 9th day of December, 1954, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Geoffrey, Archbishop of Canterbury (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of Bishopsbourne and the benefice of Kingston both situate in the diocese of Canterbury.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of Bishopsbourne and the benefice of Kingston shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Bishopsbourne with Kingston', but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend Frank James Cartman if he is then the incumbent of the benefice of Bishopsbourne shall, and his consent (testified by his signature hereto), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Bishopsbourne shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.
