

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of March, 1955.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 23rd day of February, 1955, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and of the Acts mentioned therein, have prepared the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Lee in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the Legal Estate is vested in Vincent Washington Guest Ranger of Stafford House, Norfolk Street, London, W.C.2, Esquire, and that the Beneficial Interest is vested in Arthur Ivor Stewart-Liberty of Pipers The-Lee Buckinghamshire, Esquire, and that they are the patrons or persons entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said Vincent Washington Guest Ranger desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Bishop of Oxford for the time being and consents to this scheme and the said Arthur Ivor Stewart-Liberty consents to such transfer and to this scheme (in testimony whereof they have executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Harry James, Bishop of Oxford (in testimony whereof he has executed this scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Harry James, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Oxford for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of March, 1955.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 23rd day of February, 1955, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Cyril Archbishop of York (in witness whereof he has signed the Scheme), for effecting the union of the benefice of York St. Denys with St. George and the benefice of York St. Margaret with St. Peter-le-Willows, both situate in the diocese of York.

"SCHEME.

"1. Union of Benefices. The benefice of York St. Denys with St. George and the benefice of York St. Margaret with St. Peter-le-Willows shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of York St. Denys and St. George with St. Margaret and St. Peter-le-Willows', but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect.

"3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of York St. Denys with St. George shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1952, the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of March, 1955.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 23rd day of February, 1955, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Church Commissioners, in pursuance of the Church Patronage Act, 1870, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the interests hereinafter mentioned in the advowsons or perpetual rights of patronage of and presentation to the churches and cures of Monk Okehampton with Broadwood Kelly and Iddesleigh with Dowland, both situate in the diocese of Exeter.

"SCHEME.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the Right Honourable Henry Stafford, Third Earl of Iddesleigh (hereinafter called 'the said Earl of Iddesleigh'), and Vincent Thompson of the City of Exeter in the County of Devon, Solicitor, as the personal representatives of the late Lady Rosalind Lucy Stafford Northcote, are the patrons or persons entitled to a one-half or alternate share in the advowson of the churches and cure of Monk Okehampton with Broadwood Kelly and to one in three turns of presentation to the churches and cure of Iddesleigh with Dowland (which said churches and cures are hereinafter referred to as 'the said benefices'):

"And whereas the said Earl of Iddesleigh and the said Vincent Thompson desire to transfer their interests in the advowsons of the said benefices to the Bishop of Exeter for the time being and are consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof they have executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Church Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the said interests in the advowsons or perpetual rights of patronage of and presentation to the said benefices shall be transferred to the said Robert, Bishop of Exeter, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Exeter for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to
