did not expert so early a Visir. The Cannon began to play about half an hour after Eight; they formed themselves in 2 Bodies, the Elector with Monlieur Martin and their Troops on our Right, and Monsieur de Tallard with all his on our Lett; which last sell to my Share. They had two little Rivulets, besides a Morass, before, them, which we were obliged to pass over in their view; and Pr. Eugene was toxed to take a great Compass to come to the Enemy, so that it was One a Clock before the Battel began: It lasted with great Vigour till Sun-set, when the Enemy were obliged to retire, and by the Blessing of God we obtained a compleat Victory. We have cut off great Numbers of them, as well in the Action as in the Retreat, besides upwards of 30 Squadions or French, which I pushe into the Danebe, where we saw the greatest part of them perish; Monsieur de Tallard, with several of his General Officers, being taken Prisoners at the same time; And in the Vistage of Bleinheim; which the Enemy had intrenched and tortified, and where they taken Prisoners at the same time; And in the Viltage of Bleinheim; which the Enemy had intrenched and tortified, and where they made the greatest Opposition, I obliged 26 entire Battalions and 12 Squadrons of Dragoons to surrender themselves Prisoners at Discretion. We took likewise all their Tents standing, with their Cannon and Ammunition, as also a great Number of Standards, Kertle-Drums and Colours, in the Action; so that I reckon the greatest part of M. Tallard's Army is taken or destroyed. The Bravery of all our Troops on this Occasion cannot be expressed, the Generals as well as the Officers and Soldiers behaving themselves with the greatest Courage and Resolution; the Horse and Dragoons having been obliged to Charge 4 or 5 several times. The Lie-chor and Monsieur de Marsin were so advantagiously posted, that Prince Eugene could make no impression on them till the third Artack at near 7 ac right, when he made a great Slaughter of dor and Monsieur de Martin were so advantagiously pested, that Prince Eugene could make no impression on them till the third Artack at near 7 at right, when he made a great Slaughter of them; but being near a Wood-side, a good Body of Bavarians retired mro ir, and the rest of that Army retreated towards Lawingen, it being too late, and the Troops too much tired, to perfue them far. I cannot say too much in praise of the Prince's good them far. I cannot say too much in praise of the Prince's good will please to lay this before. Her Majesty and his Royal Highnels, to whom I send my Lord Tunbridge with the good News. I pray you will likewise inform your self, and let me know Her Majesty's Pleasure, as well relating to Monsieur de Tallard and the other General Officers, as for the Dispoal of near 1200 other Officers, and between 8 and good Common Soldiers, who being all made Prisoners by Her Majesty's Troops, are entirely at Her Disposal: Blue as the Charge of Subsisting these Officers and Men' mint be very great, I presume Her Majesty will be enclined that they be exchanged for any other Prisoners that offer.

I should likewise be glad to receive Her Majesty's Directions for the Disposal of the Standards and Colours, whereof I have not yet the Number, but guess there cannot be less than 100. which is more than has been taken in any Battel these many Years.

You will easily believe, That in so long and vigorous an Action the English, who had so great a Share in it, must have suffered, as well in Officers as Men: But I have not yet the Particulars. I am,

MARLBOROUGH.

Woiseball, August 14. An Express arrived here last night from on board Her Majesty's Fleet, being disparched by the Rt. Hon. Sir George Rooke, Vice Admiral of England, and Admiral of Her Majesty's Fleet, with an Account of the taking of Gibraltar: The Varticulars whereof follow.

Majesty's Fleet, with an Account of the taking of Gibraltar: The Particulars whereof follow.

HE 17th of July, the Fleet being then about Seven Leagues to the Eastward of Teruan, a Council of War was held on Board the Royal Catherine, wherein it was resolved to make a studen Attempt upon Gibraltar; and accordingly the Fleet sailed thither, and the 21st got into that Bay; and at 3 a Clock is the asternoon the Marines, English and Dutch, to the Number of 1800, with the Prince of Hesse at the head of them, were put on shore on the Neck of Land to the Northward of the Town, to cut off any Communication with the Country; his Highness having posted his blen there; sent a Summons to the Governor to surrender the Place for the Service of his Catholick Majesty; which he rejecting with great Obstinacy, the Admiral on the 22th in the morning gave Orders. That the Ships which had been appointed to Cannomade the Town, under the Command of Rear-Admiral Byng and Rear-Admiral Vanderdussen, as also those which were to batter the South Mole-head, commanded by Captain Hicks of the Yarmouth, should range themselves accordingly; but the Windblowing contrary, they could not possibly get into their places till the day was spent. In the mean time, to amuse the Enemy, Captain Whitaker was sent. with some Boars, who burnt a French Privater of 12 Guns at the old Mole. The 23d, soon after Break of Day, the Ships being all placed, the Admiral gave the Signal for beginning the Cannonade, which was performed with very great Fury, above 15000 Shot being made in 5 or 6 hours time against the Town; insomuch that the Enemy were soon beat from their Guns, especially at the Sourh Mole-head; Whereupon the Admiral considering, That by gaining that Fortification they should of consequence reduce the Town, ordered Captain Whitaker, with all the Boats armed, to endeavour to posses helder the Fortifications upon the Mole, killed 2 Lieutenants and about 40 Men, and Captain Whitaker landing with the Role, had pushed as shout of she great Platform which th had been oracred upon this service, they advanced and took a Redoubt or small Bastion, half way between the Mole and the Town, and possessed themselves of many of the Enemy's Cannon. The Admiral then tent in a Letter to the Governor, and at the same sime a Meilage to the Prince of Hesie, four to him a peremptory symmons, which his Highers, did accordingly, and on the 24th in the morning the Governor defiring to Capitulate, Hollages were exchanged, and the Capitulation being concluded, the Prine marched into the Town in the Evening, and took Possession of the Land and North-mole Gates and the Cut-works. The Articles are in fubitance as Follow.

I. That the Garison, Officers and Soldiers, may depart with their Necessary Arms and Bagage; and the Officers and other Gentemen of the Town may also carry their Horses with them: They may likewise have what Boars they shall have Occasion for.

II. That they may take out of the Garison 3 Pieces of Brass Caanon, of different Weight, with 12 Charges of Powder and Ball.

III. That they may take Provisions of Bread, Wine and Field, State of the St

IV. That none of the Officers Bagage be fearched, altho' it be carried out in Chefts or Trunks. That the Garifon depart in three days; and such of their Necessaries as they cannot carry out with Conveniency, may remain in the Garison, and be afterwards but for; and that they shall have the liberty to make use or some

V. That fuch Inhabitants, and Soldiers and Officers of the Town, as are willing to remain there, shall have the same Privileges the enjoyed in the time of Charles II. and their Religion and Tribu. of Fidelity to King Charles III. as their lawful King and Mi.

VI. That they shall discover all their Magazines of Powder, and other Ammunition or Provisions and Arms, that may be inde

VII. That all the French, and Subjects of the French King, are excluded from any part of these Capitulations; and all their ficeds shall remain at our Disposal, and their Persons Prisoners of

This Town is extreamly strong, and had 100 Guns mounted, all facing the Sea, and the two narrow Passes to the Land, and wit well supplied with Ammunition. The Officers who have viewed the Fortifications affirm, There never was such an Attack as the Seamen made, for that: 50 Men might have defended those World against Thousands. Ever since our coming to the Bay, greatumbers of Spaniards have appeared on the Hills; but none of them have thought fit to advance towards us.

Windfar, August 13.
