

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday August 31. to Monday September 4. 1704.

Windſor, September 3.

THE following Adreſſes from the Grand Jury of the County of Weſtmoreland was this day preſented to Her Maſteſty by the Rt. Hon. Mr. Secretary Harley.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

The humble Adreſſes of the Grand Jury for the County of Weſtmoreland, at the Aſſizes and General Gaol-Delivery held for the ſaid County at Appleby the 23d day of Auguſt, Anno Dom. 1704.

Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Maſteſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, tho' placed at a remote Diſtance from Your Throne, humbly beg Leave to ſhew Your Sacred Preſence, with a Duty and Zeal as warm and affectionate as the very beſt of Your Loyal Engliſh Subjects can pretend. None can more heartily congratulate the Glorious Succeſs of Your Arms both by Land and Sea; none can be more tranſported with Joy for the Signal Victories both by Land and Sea; none can be more ſenſible of the inexpressible Bleſſing this whole Nation enjoys under Your Auſpicious Reign; none can be more thankful to God for ſuch a Mercy; and none can more fervently pray for the long Continuance of it. We take a great Satisfaction and Pleaſure to think that the great advantages lately obtained over the Common Enemy are owing mainly to the Courage and Conduct of Your Maſteſty's Generals and Admirals, the Gallantry of Your Engliſh Forces, which (we doubt not) will in Your Arms formidable to all Your Enemies, and Your Auguſt Memory ſacred to all Poſterity. As we reckon our ſelves ſecurely ſecured of our Religion and Liberties, and every thing that is dear to us, ſo long as Your Maſteſty's Wiſdom and Piety, next under Heav'n, ſteers the Helm, and governs this happy Iſland; ſo Your Maſteſty with the ſame aſſurance depend upon our Loyalty and Fidelity, and ſincerely command both our Lives and Fortunes, whenever Your Maſteſty ſhall require it.

We are in our Power, Madam, to expreſs what Bleſſings and Felicitations we wiſh to Your Royal Perſon; nor can the Poſiteſt and moſt Rhetorical Adreſſes ſufficiently declare with what Zeal and Unanimity we are all of us reſolved to live and die, in Defence of Your Crown and Dignity, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law Eſtabliſhed, and on all Occaſions to approve our ſelves Your Maſteſty's moſt Dutiful, Loyal, and moſt Obedient Subjects.

The following Adreſſes from the County of Somerſet was alſo preſented to Her Maſteſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

The humble Adreſſes of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, and others, of the County of Somerſet, held at the City of Wells, on the 22d day of Auguſt, in the Third Year of the Maſteſty's Reign.

WE heartily congratulate the good Succeſs of Your Maſteſty's Allies and Armies, under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough; and we cannot at the ſame time be forgetful, but to reſpectfully ſhew Your Maſteſty's moſt Obedient Thanks for Your Maſteſty's Care of the Church, eſpecially of the Maſteſty's unparallel'd Bounty to the Members thereof. And we humbly wiſh and pray for the good Succeſs of Your Maſteſty's Forces both by Land and Sea: ſo we aſſure Your Maſteſty, That we ſhall always be ready and zealous to aſſiſt Your Maſteſty in all Your Royal Undertakings, and ever be, as we duly acknowledge our ſelves, Your Maſteſty's moſt Dutiful Subjects.

The following Adreſſes from the City of Oxford was preſented to Her Maſteſty by Francis Norreys and Thomas Rowley Eſqs; their Reſolutions in Parliament, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Brouncker, High Steward of the ſaid City.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

The humble Adreſſes of the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Commonalty, of the City of Oxm.

WE with all Europe ſounds of the late Glorious Succeſs of Your Maſteſty's Arms, under the Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, in the entire Deſeat of the joint Forces of France and the Emperor, are highly rejoicing.

We Your Maſteſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects can't ſit ſtill in our ſilent Seats, but we humbly beg Leave to congratulate the Succeſs of that memorable Day, which has given the World a ſreſh ſiſtance of Engliſh Arms, under Engliſh Conduct, and juſtly retrieved the ancient Glory of Engliſh Arms.

We are ſenſible the Triumph is owing to the Bleſſing of Almighty God.

God on Your Maſteſty's great Piety and Care of the Church of England as by Law Eſtabliſhed; and Your Maſteſty's great Wiſdom, which, in the Choice of Your General, and Management of the Publick Affairs, ſhines through all Nations: It fills the Hearts of all Your good Subjects and Allies with pregnant Hopes of a happy Event of this War, and obliges a cheerful Aſſiſtance in it, whiſt You, Madam! bleſs Your People with Your Royal Preſence and Protection at home, and at the ſame time ſtrike deeper Terrors into Your Enemies abroad.

This gives us a new Occaſion to thank God for Your Maſteſty, and to pray for Your long and happy Reign over us; That no Faction's Diſpute may ever diſturb Your Peace at home; And that Your Victorious Arms may proceed abroad with the like Succeſs, until You have Reſtor'd the Peace of Europe.

The following Adreſſes was preſented to Her Maſteſty by John Brougham Eſq; Secretary to the Exchequer, introduced by the Honourable the Lord High Treafurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

The humble Adreſſes of the Deputy-Lieutenants, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand Jury for the County of Cumberland, at the Aſſizes held at Carlisle the 19th day of Auguſt, in the Third Year of Your Maſteſty's moſt Auſpicious Reign.

WE Your Maſteſty's Dutiful and Loyal Subjects humbly crave Leave to congratulate the happy Succeſs of Your Maſteſty's Arms both by Land and Sea, under the Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, and Sir George Rooke; the joyful News of whereof comes to us whiſt we are here call'd together in the Service of Your Maſteſty, and our Country.

The common Share that we have in this Bleſſing, with the reſt of Your Maſteſty's good Subjects, is great: But allow us, Madam, to think our ſelves more eſpecially oblig'd to return our Thanks to God, and Your Maſteſty's wiſe Councils, for our being deliver'd from thoſe Apprehenſions we were under of being the firſt Sufferers from the Conſpiracies of Your Maſteſty's and the Kingdom's Enemies in theſe Northern Parts of Your Dominions, whoſe treaſonable Practices threaten'd us in a more eminent Manner than the reſt of Your Engliſh Subjects.

May God long continue his Gracious Providence in the Preſervation of Your Maſteſty's Royal Perſon, and make You the Head and Support of the whole Proteſtant Intereſt, as You are the Head and Support of Your Maſteſty's moſt Dutiful Subjects.

All which Adreſſes Her Maſteſty received very graciously.

Vienna, Auguſt 27: N. S. On the 24th Inſtant Te Deum was ſung here, with a triptic Diſcharge of our Cannon; for the Signal Victory obtained over the French and Bavarians at Blenheim the 13th Inſtant. A Courier from Rome paſſed lately through this City, in his way to Poland, with a Brief to the Nuncio there; whereby the Pope authorizes him to allow King Auguſtus the Tenth of all Eccleſiaſtical Revenues for the ſpace of two years. The Cardinal Primate is cited to make his Appearance at Rome within the Term of three months; and both he and all the other Biſhops in Poland are warn'd not to crown Stanislaus for King, under the Penalty of being deprived of their Benefices, which the Pope threatens to confer on others, in caſe of Diſobedience. A Meſſenger arriv'd here the 17th Inſtant, with Letters from the Two Deputies of the Malecontents in Hungary; who were with Prince Ragotzi before Segedin the 13th. The Trenches had been open'd 3 days, and a French Engineer had given the Prince Hopes of taking the Place in 6 days more; however he thought fit to raiſe the Siege the 12th, and was going to Gungos, to meet there with his chief Generals, in the Preſence of the Archbiſhop of Colocza; in order to examine the Emperor's Declaration of the 20th of June, and the Conditions which Count Lamberg had Orders to propoſe for a Ceſſation of Arms: In the mean time Directions are given to haſten the raiſing of the Recruits for General Heiſter's Army, who we hear is advanced to Schavava, and has poſſeſſed himſelf of that Paſs; having routed a Body of the Malecontents which lay there. A conſiderable Body of the Militia is alſo ordered to join him. We hear the Malecontents in Tranſylvania have elected Ragotzi Prince of that Country.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Eppingen, September 3 On the 18th of the laſt Month the Marſhal de Tallard, with moſt of the other Priſoners of Note; march'd from Hochſter towards Hanau and Francfort, under a Guard of 40 Engliſh Horſe. At the ſame time the Repartition was made of all the reſt of the Priſoners, who were ordered to ſeveral Places adjoining, for the better Conveniency of keeping them, till they could be removed further into the Country; and we found that in the whole (including near 3000 who are entered into our Service) their number exceeds 13000 Officers and Soldiers. The 19th the Army march'd from strengthen, and encamped with the Right at Puntz, and the Left at Gundelshagen; from whence we advanced towards Langenau and Ober-Eichingen; and the 21st we came to Sefflingen, a little more than an English Mile from Ulm. Upon our March we were told, that great numbers of Officers of the Enemy had been hurried in the several Villages by which we passed, and we were informed by the People here, that when the Enemy marched from Ulm they carried with them upwards of 7000 wounded, whereas near 1000 were Officers; and that they burnt many of their Wagons, that they might make use of the Horses to make Litters to carry off the Officers. All our Horses, with several Parties of Horse had been sent out in pursuit of the Enemy, who, with the Country People, cut off all that could not keep up with their Army; so that we heard they had made great Slaughter of them. The Enemy having left in Garrison at Ulm 4 French and 5 Bavarian Battalions, we began upon our Arrival at Sefflingen to block up them. The 21st in the morning a Deputy came from the City of Memmingen, to crave my Lord Duke of Marlborough's Protection, who gave an Account, That the Electors of Bavaria, with her 5 Children, had passed through that Place with a Guard of 12 Squadrons of Horse, in order to follow the Elector. The 22d the Governour of Ulm sent out of the Town 450 Prisoners, taken by the Army at Hochster, Dillingen, and other Places, with a Compliment to the Duke of Marlborough, praying his Grace would take an offering of Prisoners to return an equal number of theirs; but that he refused being all of the German Troops, his Grace sent them to Peace again. The Elector of Bavaria's Communication with his own Country being now entirely cut off, a Trumpeter came from Ulm the 23d at night, with a Letter from his Imperial Highness to the Duke of Marlborough, desiring he would send some Cavalry to enclose to the Electors, which his Grace refused, by a Trumpeter of his own, to Munich, the Elector of Bavaria, who is gone back thither. Prince Lewis of Baden came to our Camp the 24th, to confer with his Grace and the Duke of Marlborough, having left his Army encamped at Lauingen. The 26th our Troops began their March towards the Rhine by different Routes, for the ease of the Country. Prince Lewis began his March the 29th with the Imperial Horse, and Prince Eugene resolved to go to Rowley to attack the Troops in those Parts and in the Lines, to join us on the Rhine. General Thungen was left at Sefflingen, with the Troops that were to have besieged Ingolstadt, to attack Ulm, in case the Place should not be surrendered by Composition. The Emperor has ordered the Troops that have been acting against the Elector of Bavaria on the Borders of Tirol, under the Command of Lieutenant-General Guttenstein, and Lieutenant-General Tierheimb, to march immediately to join in the Count of Leiningen, in order to make a Diversion in favour of the Duke of Savoy; and Count Massey set out the 29th in his way to Turin, to acquaint his Royal Highness with the Measures that are taking here for the rest of the Campaign, which 'tis hoped may oblige the Enemy to draw a considerable Body of their Troops out of Italy. By Letters we intercepted of the 19th past, going from Dulligen to the French Court, the Enemy own the Loss of upwards of 20000 Men killed, taken Prisoners, and who have deserted after their Retreat, which was in very great Disorder; They make the number of the Deserters to amount to many Thousand. The English and Danish Troops which marched, under the Command of General Churchill, from Sefflingen the 26th past, encamped that night at Heuntheim; the next day they continued their March to Gross-Schiffen; the 28th to Eberspach; where they halted the 29th; the 30th they came to Gross-Heppach; and the 31st to Mundelsheim, where they halted the day following; and yesterday passed the Neckar at Laufen, and came to Gross-Gartach. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough joined them the 31st in the evening at Mundelsheim from the Camp before Ulm, which he had left the day before at 5 in the morning. Count Wratislaw stays here to receive the Proposals of the Electors of Bavaria for the delivering up of that Place; and General Thungen, who commands the Siege, is making Preparations for carrying it on with Vigour, if it be not surrendered. He has with him 24 Squadrons and 23 Battalions, besides 3 Battalions more, which are on their March to join him: He was to open the Trenches the 30th at night, and will attack the Place with 40 Pieces of Cannon, besides Mortars. When we are Masters of it, the French will have no more Troops on this side the Rhine. My Lord Duke having received an Invitation from the Duke Regent of Wirtemberg, by his Grand Marshal, to his Residence at Stuttgart, his Grace went thither the first Instant in the morning, accompanied by several of the General Officers; and, after a very splendid Entertainment, returned in the evening to the Army. The Enemy having repassed the Black Forest, and being since retired over the Rhine, Prince Eugene did not go to Rowley, as he intended, but went directly to Raistr, to draw the Troops together, and march with them towards Philipsbourg. Prince Lewis is gone for 3 or 4 days to Alschaffembourg. We had a Report at Stuttgart, That the French had disarmed the Bavarians who are with them; but this wants Confirmation. This day we marched from Gross-Gartach hither, and to morrow the Duke of Marlborough will advance with the Horse to Langenrich, and from thence to Philipsbourg, to join the Troops Prince Eugene is drawing together there from the Lines, in order to pass the Rhine, and take Poit on the other side, while the Foot comes up by easier Marches.

- A LIST of the Officers of Her Majesty's Forces who were killed in the Battel of Bleinheim, and of those who are since dead of the Wounds they received in that Action:
- Brigadier-General Row.
 - Of Major-General Wood's Regiment, Lieutenant-Colonel Featherstonhugh, Cornet Odiarne.
 - Of Colonel Cadogan's, Lieutenant Greucere.

Of Lieutenant-General Wyndham's, Major Chenevix, Lieutenant Payne, Cornet Saunders, Cornet Thompson, Quarter-Master Crocker.

Of the Duke of Schomburg's, Major Creed, Lieutenant Hawker, Cornet Charleston.

Of the Guards, Lieutenant-Colonel Philip Dormer.

Of the Royal Regiment of Foot, Colonel John White, Lord Forbes Captain, Ensign Geo. Connaway, Ensign James Craig.

Of Prince George's, Captain Ol. Luke, Lieutenant Alexander Schimlhuice, Lieutenant Geo. Palfrey.

Of Brigadier Webb's, Major Frederick Cornwallis.

Of Brigadier Hamilton's, Captain Henry Browne, Captain A. hazed Rollefrow, Captain Vaulin, Ensign William M. yic.

Of the Lord North's, Captain Warner Dawes, Sir John Sarah, Captain Gr. Cavendish, Captain Thomas Burton, Lieutenant J. Frayer, Lieutenant John Wycks, Ensign Walter Breames, Ensign Tho. Dawson.

Of the Earl of Derby's, Captain Garret Coughlane, Lieutenant Ran. Browne, Ensign William Sabon, Ensign James Hesketh.

Of Brigadier Row's, Lieutenant-Colonel Dayel, Captain Alexander Straiton, Captain David Straiton, Lieutenant John Vandergrach, Lieutenant William Campbell, Lieutenant Walter Traillion.

Of Brigadier How's, Captain James Tankred, Lieutenant Will Kent, Lieutenant Thomas Simons, Ensign Thomas Jackson.

Of the Duke of Marlborough's, Captain Vere Fitz-Simons, Captain Gardner, Captain John Bayly, Lieutenant John Parvor.

Of Brigadier Ferguson's, Captain Alexander Campbell, Lieutenant Ar. Dowglais, Lieutenant Geo. Seaton, Ensign James Hope.

Philipsbourg, September 2. Prince Eugene of Savoy arrived here this day, and the Troops under his Command have begun to dig the Rhine. The Elector of Bavaria and the Marshal de Villars have passed that River with their Forces, and are now at Strasbourg.

Hague, September 9. N.S. Monsieur d'Auverquerque has left his Camp at St. Itron, and is now with his Army near Honsell. A Conspiracy has lately been discovered, wherein one of his Excellency's Guides and several other Persons were concerned, to bring him into the Hands of the Enemy. The Recruits, with a Supply of Ammunition designed from hence for Portugal, will sail a week or two. Our Fleet of Merchant Ships from Hull and Scotland, to the number of about 100 Sail, is come into the Bay. Our homeward-bound Greenland Fleet, to the number of 100 Sail, is like to be safely arrived in our Ports, as are also 100 more of Merchant Ships from the Baltic, and two from the East-Indies. Tomorrow is to be observed here as a Day of Publick Thanksgiving for the late Glorious Victory at Bleinheim.

Portsmouth, August 31. Sir Stafford Fairborne sailed yesterday from Spithead to St. Helens, with several of Her Majesty's Ships.

Windsor, September 3. The Count de Briançon, Envoy Extraordinary from his Royal Highness the Duke of Savoy, had this day an Audience from Her Majesty, at which he delivered a Letter from his Master, in relation to the Affairs of Piedmont, whereas he received a very favourable Answer.

The Baron de Schurz, Envoy Extraordinary from the House of Brunwick Lunenbourg, had this day an Audience from Her Majesty; wherein he congratulated Her Majesty, in the Name of the Elector of Hanover and the Duke of Zell, for the Great and Glorious Victory lately obtained by Her Majesty's Forces at Mollath.

Her Majesty has received Two Letters, one from the Elector of Saxony, the other from the Bishop of Munster, congratulating the Success of Her Majesty's Arms at Hochster; by which Her Majesty has preserved the Empire from Ruine.

This is to give Notice to all Persons concerned, That Her Majesty has thought it necessary, in this time of War, to direct, That no Person whatsoever be received on board any of Her Majesty's Men of War, a Passenger, or any of the Packet-Boats, or be permitted to pass beyond the Sea on board any other Vessel out of any Port of England or Wales, who have not a Pass under Her Majesty's Royal Signet or Sign Manual, or under the Hand and Seal of One of Her Majesty's Secretaries of State; Except only Officers, Soldiers and Recruits of Her Majesty's Army in Holland, Flanders, or Portugal, who are to produce a Pass for that purpose from the Generalissimo, or General, and hereof all the Officers of the Customs, and other Her Majesty's Officers in the several Ports, are to take due Notice, and to be careful that none be suffered to pass beyond the Sea, but in the Manner mentioned; excepting only into the Kingdom of Ireland.

Whereas a Letter, dated the 31st of August, and signed J. T. W. sent by the Penny-Post to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; This is to give Notice to the Person who writ the said Letter, That if he will apply himself to the Secretary of State to whom he directed it, he shall receive Satisfaction in what he desires.

A Letter signed S. N. dated the 2d of this Instant September, has been sent to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to give Notice to the Person who wrote that Letter, that if he will come to the said Secretary of State, he shall receive all due Encouragement, and Satisfaction in what he mentions.

Whereas a Letter, dated the 31st day of August last past, and signed S. W. was sent to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to give Notice to the said Person, that if he will come to the said Secretary of State, he shall receive all due Encouragement, and Satisfaction in what he mentions.

The Directors for Greenwich Hospital do give Notice, That any Officers desirous to perform the Work in the great Hall of the said Hospital, may there be informed, by the Clerk of the Works, of the manner how the same is to be done, and may make their Proposals to the Directors at the Office of Her Majesty's Works in Scotland, on Friday morning the 8th of this Instant September.

T

THE following is rendered in every, Sec.

To the Q

The humble A

Arch-Deaco

May it please

Graciously for

of God, upon the

the Conduct of

of Sea and the Profits, that

Liberties of your

shall presume to

The Joy of your

in, when the

to, to a Prin

quished by a me

being duly b

Kingdoms, the

of our most

Majesty's Person

We therefore our Assurances

A Zeal which

Influences of Di

That the God of your out his Br

Life be so long,

acted, your Ex

Foreign Nation

the so Potent

Glorious, as To

Which Addr

St. James's,

and Common

Majesty with acted very gr

of Knighthood

To the Q

The humble A

mons of Your

Dread Govern

Although f

A great We

our hopes were to equal them r

throughly hat

and our Allies

The Banks of

Age: The Dan

Henry Push Est

fills the Elect

French King

Judgment (de

that these Gen

Such Enimies

into one Scarr

Gracious God,

Wise sincere P

can pretend to

May the same

The sacred Pe

settling Europe

long Live, the

your Neighbou

You witness th

institutions th

marks of an O