Windsor, September 14.

THIS Day Captain Trevor, Commander of Her Majesty's Ship the Triton, arrived here; being sent Express by Sir George Rooke from the Fleet, with Letters to His Royal Highness, dated on board the Royal Catherine off of Cape St. Vincent, August 27. O. S. 1702. which contain the following Account.

ON the 9th Instant, returning from watering our Ships on the Coast of Barbary to Gibraltar, with little Wind Easterly, our Scouts to the Windward made the Signals of seeing the Enemy's Fleet, which, according to the Account they gave, consisted of 56 Sail, and were a bout 10 Leagues to Windward of us. A Council of Flag-Officers was called, wherein it was determined to go to the Eastward of Gibraltar to receive and engage them; But perceiving that Night, by the Report of their Signals, that they were not far from us, we followed them in the Morning with all the Sail we could make.

On the 11th we forced one of the Enemy's Ships ashore near Algera; the Crew quitted her, set her on Fire, and she blew up immediately. We continued still pursuing them; and the 12th, after hearing any of their Guns all Night, nor seeing any of their Sails in the Morning, our Admiral had a Jealousy they might be a Double, and by the help of their Gallies slip between us and the Shore to the Westward; so that a Council of War was called, wherein it was resolved, That in Case we did not see the Enemy before Night, we should make the best of our way to Gibraltar; but standing in to the Shore about Noon we discovered the Enemy's Fleet and Gallies to the Westward, near Cape Malaga, going away large. We immediately made all the Sail we could attain, and continued the Chase all Night.

On Sunday the 13th in the Morning, we were within 3 Leagues of the Enemy, who brought to with their Heads to the Southward, the Wind being Easterly, formed their Line, and lay to receive us. Their Line consisted of 52 Ships, and 24 Gallies; they were very strong in the Center, and weaker in the Van and Rear, to which which, most of the Gallies were divided into three Squadrons; the Center was Monsieur de Thoulouse with the White Squadron; the Van the White and Blue; and in the Rear the Blue; each Admiral had his Vice and Rear-Admirals. Our Line consisted of 33 Ships; the Admiral, and Rear Admirals Bings and Dilks being in the Center, Sir Claudessy Spowell and Sir John Leake led the Van, and the Dutch the Rear.

The Admiral ordered the Swallow and Panther, with the Lark and Newport, and a Frigate, to lie to the Windward of us, that while the Enemy's Van should push through our Line with their Gallies and Frigates, they might give them some Diversion. We bore down upon the Enemy in Order of Battle, a little after Tea a Clock, when being about half Gun-shot from them, they set all their Sails at once, and seemed to intend to stretch a-lead; and weather us, so that our Admiral, after firing a Chase Gun at the French Admiral to try for him, of which he took no notice, put the Signal out, and began the Battle, which fell very heavy on the Royal Catherine, the St. George, and the Strenuous. About two in the afternoon, the Enemy's Van gave way to ours, and the Battle ended with the Day; when the Enemy went away to the help of their Gallies to the Leeward. In the Night the Wind shifted to the Northward, and in the Morning to the Westward, which gave the Enemy the Wind of us: We lay by all Day within three Leagues of one another, repairing our Defects, and at Night they filed and stood to the Northward.

On the 15th in the Morning the Enemy was got four or five Leagues to the Windward of us; but a little before Noon we had a Breeze of Wind Easterly, with which we bore down on them till four a Clock Afternoon: It being too late to Engage, we brought to; and lay by with our Heads to the Northward all Night. On the 16th in the Morning, the Wind being still Easterly, hazy weather, and having no sight of the Enemy, or their Scouts, we filed and bore away to the Westward, supposing they would have gone away for Cadix; but being advised from Gibraltar, and the Capt of Barbary, that they did not pass the Streights, we concluded they had been so severely treated, as to oblige them to return to Tarsh.

The Admiral says, he must do the Officers the Justice to say, that every Man in the Line did his Duty without the least Umbrage of Contumelious Reflection, and that he never observed the true English Spirit so apparent and prevalent in our Seamen, as on this Occasion.

The Battle is so much the more Glorious to Her Majesty's Arms, because the Enemy had a Superiority of 600 great Guns; and likewise the advantage of cleaner Ships; being lately come out of Port; nor to mention the great use of their Gallies in towing on or off their great Ships; and in supplying them with fresh Water as often as they had any killed or disabled; But all these Advantages were surmounted by the Bravery and good Conduct of our Officers; and the undaunted Courage of our Windsor, 5 September 16. The following Address has been presented to Her Majesty.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Representatives, Recorder, and approved Men, of the Town of Guildford in Surrey, assembled on Thursday the 7th of September, to celebrate the Day of Thanksgiving for the Victory obtained over the French and Bavarians, by Her Majesty's Army under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, and the Success of Your Royal Fleet under the Command of Sir George Rooke.

May it please Your Majesty,

TO permit Your ancient Corporation to lay themselves at Your Royal Feet, with that Duty and Humility which becomes Subjects sensible of the Happiness they enjoy under Your most Auspicious Reign.

It is Your Majesty's Exemplary Piety and Virtue that hath given us these Glorious Victories obtained by Sea and Land; by which the Plains of Germany are covered with the Bodies of our Slaughter'd Enemies; and the Rhine and the Danube are tinged with their Blood. The Empire acknowledges Your Majesty its Guardian and Protector; Spain wants only an Opportunity to be so happy; France is reduced to the same Extremity and Conspiration, as after the Barrels of Creilly and Poytiers; and the Name of Marlborough is now as terrible as the Black Prince was to their Ancestors.

As Success and Victory has begun, so may the Blessing of Health and Peace attend You, with a long and prosperous Reign: And give us Leave, on this Occasion, to assure Your most Excellent Majesty, That we will, to the utmost of our Power, stand by and support Your Majesty's Person and Government, the Church of England, and the Protestant Succession as by Law Established.

The Two following Addresses from the County Palatine of Cheshire, and the City of Chester, were presented to Her Majesty by the Honourable Lieutenant-General Cholmondeley, in the Absence of the Lord Cholmondeley, Lord-Lieutenant of the County, introduced by the most Honourable the Lord-High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace, of the County Palatine of Cheshire, and the Militia Officers of the said County.

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the late Glorious Victory, obtained by Your Majesty's Army under the Command of the Duke of Marlborough, against the French and Bavarians in Germany, wherein the eminent Courage and Conduct of Your Majesty's General, and the unparalleled Bravery of Your Forces employed in that great Action, were equally conspicuous.

We beg Leave also, upon this Occasion, to assure Your Majesty, That as the Beginning of Your Majesty's auspicious Reign hath carried the Glory of the English Arms beyond that of any of Your Royal Ancestors; so shall we cheerfully contribute our most hearty Prayers and Endeavours, that the Continuance of the same may be blessed with a Number of Years and Successes, beyond those of our late Renowned Queen Elizabeth, and with that Unanimity and Moderation among all Your Majesty's Subjects, which we resolve to practice and promote in our respective Stations in this County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Citizens of the City of Chester.

WE Your Majesty's most Faithful Subjects, do most thankfully acknowledge the continual Favour and Goodness of Almighty God, in the many great Advantages and Successes attending Your Majesty's happy Reign over us; but more especially in the late Signal Victory obtained by Your Majesty's Forces in Germany, under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, in the total Defeat of a more numerous Army of the French and Bavarians united.

As the Fame of this Glorious Victory will render Your Majesty's Arms, the Commands of Your Generals, and the Bravery of Your Forces, renowned through the whole World, so we hope the Consequences thereof will expedite the Deliverance of Europe from the Exorbitant Power of France.

We beg Leave to make use of this welcome Occasion to assure Your Majesty of our hearty Wishes and most earnest Prayers, that the Blessings of Heaven may be multiplied upon Your sacred Person, and attend all Your Undertakings; and that Your Majesty's Life and Reign may be long, Peaceful and Glorious. In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto put our Common Seal of the said City, the First Day of September, in the Third Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

The Address which follows was presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Berkeley, Lord Lieutenant, and High-Steward of the County and City and County of Gloucester.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, of Your City of Gloucester, in Common Council Assembled.

WE humbly beg the Liberty (most Gracious Sovereign) to offer Your Majesty, That the Success of Your Arms has filled our Hearts with unspeakable Joy. The Renowned Queen Elizabeth saved a Common-wealth; but Your Hand hath Susceid a lost Empire from Ruin.

This most welcome News was surprizing: But when we reflect on the Courage of Your Soldiers, the Conduct of Your General, the Merit of Your Virtues, and the Justice of Heaven, we could hope for no less than this happy Day: And we find hope for more, because we believe You were anciently to restore the Balance of Europe.

May all Your Majesty's Subjects assist in the Dispatch of this Glorious Work, without Difference or Delay; may You have an uninterrupted Series of Success; and that Your Reign may be long and prosperous; shall be the constant Prayers of us, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Dated under our Common Seal the 6th day of September, in the Third Year of Your Majesty's Reign. 1704.

The following Address from the Borough of Fory was presented to Her Majesty by George Granville Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Granville, Lord-Lieutenant of Cornwall.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Free-Burgesses, and other Inhabitants, of Your Majesty's Borough of Fory, in the County of Cornwall.

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, presume we cannot be too early, nor too zealous in our Congratulations for the happy and glorious Success of Your Majesty's Arms, under the Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough.

We cannot but attribute these manifold Blessings of Almighty God upon Your Majesty's Reign, to that exemplary Piety that shine through all Your Actions and Intentions; and especially to Your peculiar Care of the Church of England, and Your late singular and unexampled Bounty to the Poor Clergy, for which we humbly entreat Your Majesty to accept our unfeigned Thanks, as true Sons of that excellent and reformed Church in the World.

Your County of Cornwall was long since honour'd with the Distinction of Loyal, by Your Royal Grandfather King Charles the first, and Your Royal Uncle King Charles the Second, our most Gracious Sovereigns: Nor shall we ever depart from those principles that may continue our Right to the same Title.

As this Western part of Your Dominions has been Fruitful in all Ages in Champions for the Crown and Royal Family, as it produced many Famous Admirals in the Reign of Your Glorious Predecessor Queen Elizabeth, not only to discover new Worlds, but to defend the old from the Tyranny of Universal Monarchs; and as in this latter Age, the great and immediate Instruments of the Restauration were illustrious Natives of this and our neighbouring County, so we cannot but admire the good Providence of God, who has ordained at this time, that the General who now leads Your Armies to Victory, who has not only retriev'd the Reputation of the English Arms, but rais'd it to a Degree of Glory greater than ever, has his Veins full of the Blood of our Country-men, and particularly descends from that Name which first humbled the Pride of the Spaniard, as he has given the first Check to the boundless Ambition of France.

Nor do we esteem it a less Happiness, that the same Providence has furnish'd Your Majesty with a Person from amongst us, to be entrusted with the Management of Your Revenues, whose frugal and faithful Administration has appeared to be such both in that high Station, and in Your Councils, that Your People might almost believe themselves in full Peace at home, were it not for the Fame of Your Victories abroad.

May God Almighty continue to prosper Your Majesty's Arms, which are gloriously employ'd to rescue and protect Monarchs, and not to disturb or oppress: May we for ever establish King Torne, by whose generous Assistance, the Thrones of so many Princes seem destined to be established: And may the same Spirit of Loyalty, Religion and Union, possess all Your People, that none may render themselves unworthy its Protection and Blessing of so Excellent a Queen.

The following Address from the Borough of Liskeard, in the County of Cornwall, was presented to Her Majesty by William Bridges, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Granville, Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Cornwall.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

IN Obedience to Your Majesty's Royal Proclamation, we Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, of Your Ancient Borough of Liskeard in the County of Cornwall, have this day, with much Cheerfulness, given publick Thanks to Almighty God, for the great and Glorious tion, we Your Majesty's Borough of L- with much Content for the great and Gl-rien Victory, by his Blessing, lately obtained by the Arms of Your Majesty and Your Allies, under the Command of the Duke of Marlborough, over the French and Bavarians.

We will always heartily pray for the same Success on all Your Majesty's Undertakings, during the Continuance of the present War; which we are sure Your Majesty entered into for the effectual reducing the Exorbitant Power of the French King, and obtaining a Glorious Peace through Europe; which will tend to the Glory of God, the Honour and Safety of Your Majesty, and the Good of all Your Subjects.

And we do, on this Occasion, humbly crave Leave to assure Your Majesty, That we hope all Your good Subjects throughout Your Kingdom will heartily agree to the Raising sufficient Funds for the carrying on and maintaining so just and necessary a War; and our Representatives in Parliament have our Directions for that purpose.

May Your Majesty long Reign over us, are the hearty Prayers of Your Majesty's most obedient Subjects of this Borough.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Guildhall, this 7th day of September, in the Third Year of Your Majesty's most happy, and auspicious Reign over us. Annoq; Dom. 1704.

The following Address from the Borough of New Shoreham was presented to Her Majesty by John Pery and Nathaniel Gould Esqs, their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Constable and Inhabitants of the Borough of New-Shoreham in the County of Sussex.

May it please Your Majesty, WE Your Majesty's most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the late Glorious Victory, obtained by Your Army under the Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough.

Whilst the Terror of Your Majesty's Arms is carried into Remote Countries, we who live upon the Sea-Coast, even in sight of Your Enemies, do dwell Securely, and Enjoy, with the rest of Your Subjects, the happy Influences of Your Auspicious Government.

May the Great God, who hath so signally Blessed the Beginnings of Your Majesty's Reign with wonderful and amazing Successes, fit us to direct Your Councils, and make You Victorious over all Your Enemies by Sea and Land.

The following Address from the Members of the Council, General Assembly, and Field Officers of Her Majesty's Island of Barbadoes, was presented to Her Majesty by William Bridges Esq, and divers other Gentlemen, introduced by the Right Honourable Sir Charles Hedges, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Members of Her Majesty's Council, the General Assembly, and the Field Officers of the Regiments of the Militia, of the Island of Barbadoes.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE the Members of Your Majesty's Council, General Assembly, and the Field Officers of the Militia of this Your Island of Barbadoes, do in most humble manner repeat our most hearty Thanks to Almighty God for Preserving Your Sacred Person to sit upon and Rule the Throne of Your Royal Ancestors; and that amongst the rest of Your Majesty's Subjects, Your Benign Influence has extended even to us, in the remote Part of Your Dominions: And we do most Gratefully acknowledge, That this Poor declining Island, has, in a particular Manner, shared of Your Royal Bounty, by a most Charitable and Generous Granting the Petition of the Inhabitants, which could never before be obtained from any of Your Majesty's Royal Predecessors; which is, That the Duty of Four and an half per Cent. raised on the Product of this Island, Exported from hence, should be applied to the Uses of this Island: The good Effects of which great Favour, we are already most sensible of; and do most humbly pray, That Your Majesty will be Graciously pleased to Order, That there be no Relaxation of this Your Seasonable Bounty; the Condition of the Fortifications, Breast-Works, and also most necessary Occasions, requiring the same.

And as we do return our most sincere Thanks to Your Royal Majesty, for the further Continuance of Your Care of, and Bounty to us, by augmenting the Yearly Salary of the Governor of this Island out of Your own Money, which was formerly done by the Publick here, and to the Misfortune of this Island has been often carried such a length, that the People were thereby much disquieted; from which Grievance You have been pleased for the future to Release us; so at the same time we do in a most humble Manner, and with all Joy, represent to Your Majesty, our great Satisfaction and Happiness in this Government under his Excellency Sir Bevil Granville Your Majesty's Governor here, who has with great Cheerfulness and Duty complied with Your Majesty's Order, and has utterly Declined the unlawful Shifts for Gain, which we fear have formerly been too often practised here, to the great Prejudice of the Inhabitants; and has ever since his Arrival constantly applied himself to the Administration of this Government both Civil and Military; which defeating the Purposes of some Corrupt Men, has given him great Disturbances and Interruption in his Government: Such ill-disposed Persons, for their own private and unlawful Ends, endeavouring to sow Dissentions and Misunderstandings amongst Your Majesty's Loyal Subjects, which might have had of fatal Consequence, had not his prudent Conduct and Disposition in Affairs here prevented the same; and we are in great Obligations to Your Majesty's Royal Assistance and Encouragement, with respect to the future; it appearing plainly to us, That his Majesty's Honour and Care has been bent to Advance and Preserve Your Majesty's Honour, to Maintain and Promote the Interest of England, and the Island, against the unconsiderate Endeavours of such Indiscreet Men, who would violate the same; which will appear manifest, if Your Majesty be graciously Condescend to inspect the Representations transmitted to Administration, since his Accession to this Government.

And We do most heartily Implore Your Majesty's most Gracious Protection, justification and Encouragement of so faithful a Servant of Your Majesty; who, as a Blessed Influence to us, of the beginning of Your Reign, is the remarkable and commendable Instance of the Honour, who has so absolutely disregarded his own private Interest, Gain, that he has been at great Expence and Pains to Utilize the Inhabitants for the Promotion of Your Majesty's Service, the Peace and Well-being of this Government upon all Occasions; for which Reasons we humbly represent and pray, that Your Majesty will be Graciously pleased to have further suitable Consideration of him, in this dear and expensive Island, both for Your Majesty's Honour and Comfort.

And that Your Majesty may be always faithfully and well served and that God Almighty may preserve You long to Reign over us; that Your wise and good Government may remain to Your own Honour, Praise and Happiness, and the Welfare of all Your Majesty's Dominions is the hearty and sincere Prayer of, Your Majesty's most Loyal and Obedient Subjects.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Wisdom, September 18.

This day came in Two Mails from Holland, the first of the 16th Instant, M. S. which bring an Account, That his Grace the Duke of Marlborough marched the 6th to Kiroloch; and having Advice, That some of the Enemy's Squadrons appeared on the rising Ground over-against Philipsbourg, he ordered the English and Danish Horse to advance, and pass over the Rhine with all Expedition, to join the Palatine Troops which Prince Eugene had sent over that morning; upon whose Approach the Enemy retired. The 7th, the rest of the Army passed over the River. The Marshals de Villeroy and Martin, and the Count de Coignies, passed themselves on the Palles along the River Queich, which they had begun to fortify, as if they had intended to oppose his Grace's passing that River; but upon our Army's advancing thither, they retired the 9th from their Camp in great Confusion to Haguenau. The 12th Prince Lewis marched to Landau, with the Forces which are to carry on the Siege of that Place, while the Duke of Marlborough covers it with the rest of the Army. That day Brigadier-General Ferguson marched with 5 English Battalions to Mentz, where they are to embark on the Rhine, with the French Prisoners, and to conduct them to Holland. At Night his Grace received an Express from General Thungen, with the News of the Surrender of Ulm upon Articles; by which they were to march out the 11th, with two Pieces of Cannon, and other Marks of Honour, and to be conducted to Strasburg; and the General having left a Garrison there, marched to join the Army before Landau: There were found in the Place 233 Pieces of Cannon, 26 Mortars, and 1200 Barrels of Powder, besides other Stores and Provisions in great abundance. The Day our Army pass'd the Queich, a Party of the Imperial Horse met some Squadrons of the Enemy, who had been conducting 4 Barralions and a considerable Sum of Money to Landau; whom they immediately attacked and put to the Rout, killing upwards of 100 on the Spot, and taking many Prisoners; The Enemy were Command'd by the Duke de Montfort, a Major-General, who is fifth Deed of his Wounds. These Letters left the Army the 15th Instant at Weissenburg Prince Lewis intended to open his Trenches before Landau the next Day.

There are Three Mails still due from Holland.
