TUESDAY, 26 JULY, 1955

Whitehall, July 26, 1955.

The following Address was presented to The QUEEN on the occasion of Her Majesty's visit to Winchester on the 25th instant:—

To The QUEEN's MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY:
MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY:

We the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Winchester desire to greet Your Majesty with the expression of our unflinching allegiance to the Throne on this Your first public visit with His Royal Highness to our ancient and loyal City since Your Majesty's Accession.

We are deeply conscious of the great honour conferred upon our City by Your Majesty's graciousness in coming here today. In this year we celebrate the 800th anniversary of the grant of two charters by Your Majesty's predecessor King Henry II confirming ancient privileges even then long held by the City and we hope that Your Majesty will inspect these and the other charters which we treasure.

Your Majesty is today visiting St. Mary's College and our historic Cathedral in addition to the celebrations of the bicentenary of the Kings Royal Rifle Corps, one of the three famous regiments with which the City is honoured to be connected.

The citizens of a City which for nearly 2000 years has played a part in the historic events of the nation will ever display the highest standards of loyalty and service to Your Majesty and we are proud that the school, the Cathedral and the Regiments so closely associated with our civic life continue to provide leadership in the life of the nation.

In welcoming Your Majesty to the ancient capital we are reminded of the visits of Your Majesty's illustrious father, King George VI whom we remember with the deepest affection and admiration.

We humbly pray that Your Majesty's reign may be long and glorious and may continue to be blessed with the great happiness which Your Majesty's inspiring service to the nation and the Commonwealth so justly deserves.

(L.S.) Given under the Common Seal of The Mayor Aldermen and Citizens of Winchester This 25th day of July One thousand nine hundred and fifty five.

B. G. Thackeray, Mayor.
R. H. McCall, Town Clerk.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

Mr. Mayor,

I thank you and the citizens of Winchester for the warm expressions of loyalty in your Address and for the affectionate welcome which I and My Husband have received on this our first visit to your City since My Accession.

I am glad to be with you today when you are celebrating the grant of two Royal Charters by King Henry II 800 years ago. Those Charters record the importance of the City in Medieval and even earlier times. Yet this was not the beginning of your story, which is indeed enshrined in the history of our Country, for men made their homes here before the dawn of Christianity.

Winchester has long been famous as a seat of religion, of sovereignty, of learning and of trade. And, as you have reminded me, the City has close associations with three regiments famous for their loyalty to the Crown and their service to our Country. It is a happy occasion that your celebrations should fall in the same year as the Two-Hundredth Anniversary of the raising of The King's Royal Rifle Corps on Christmas Day, 1755.

My Husband joins with me in congratulating you on the vigour with which you have maintained your character and traditions and in wishing the citizens of Winchester every happiness in the years to come.
