

The following Address from the Borough of Andover was presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable John Smith Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bayliff, High-Steward, Sub-Steward, Approved Men and Burgesses, of Your Majesty's Ancient and Loyal Corporation of Andover, in the County of Sarhampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly beg Leave to congratulate Your Sacred Majesty, on that never to be forgotten Glorious Success of Your Arms, and those of Your Allies, under the Wise Councils and True Courage of that Noble and Heroick General, John Duke of Marlborough, whereby the Common Enemy and Oppressor has received the greatest Check he ever met with; God Almighty having reserved the Punishment of that Perfidious Disturber of Christendom to Your Majesty, as an Eminent Reward of that Piety and Justice so conspicuous in all Your Actions.

May the same Divine Hand of Providence still watch over Your Royal Person and Government, and continue You a lasting Preserver of the Liberties of Europe, the Support of the Protestant Religion, and the Joy and Delight of Your People. Given under our Hands and Seal, at our Guild-hall, the Two and Twentieth day of September, in the Third Year of Your Majesty's Reign, 1704.

The following Address from the Borough of Bossney was presented to Her Majesty by John Manley Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Granville.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Timagell, alias Bossney, in the County of Cornwall.

Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to Congratulate the Glorious and Compleat Victory, obtained by Your Majesty's Army, and the Allies, under the Command of the Duke of Marlborough; whose incomparable Conduct and intrepid Valour, by the Blessing of God, have rescued the Empire from immediate Ruine, preserved many Princes and Countries from Destruction, besides other wonderful Advantages to the common Cause; and unquestionably retrieved the antient Honour of England: Visible Rewards from Heaven of Your Majesty's transcendent Piety.

The Blessed Influences of Your Majesty's most Auspicious Reign have revived the drooping Spirits of Your People: The Martial Genius of England shines again in its former Lustre, bringing Comfort and Relief to Your remost distressed Friends, and in all places striking Terror in Your Enemies, who no more will find their Account with England from a lingering unactive War.

For, as in the Days of Your most Renowned and Warlike Ancestors, Your Armies (Madam) reap Laurels at vast Distances upon the Continent; while Your Royal Fleet commands the Ocean, and the whole Naval Power of France darts not dispute Your just Dominion, but flies before Your Admiral on their own Coasts, though so very far from You.

We pray to Almighty God for Your Majesty's long and happy Reign over us, and that Your Royal Hands may be strengthened daily against all Your Enemies; That the Church of England by Law established (that constant Object of Your Princely Care and Bounty, which is illustrated by Your unexampled Charity to Your poorer Clergy) may be for ever protected and made safe against all her restless and crafty Enemies:

And may these prosperous Advances of Your Majesty's Arms by Land and Sea be attended with such other Glorious Successes, as will oblige the Grand Disturber of Christendom to a Peace, that Your Majesty shall judge to be honourable and safe. For we are certain such a Peace will vindicate the Honour of Your Royal Authority, secure the Liberties of Europe, and establish and maintain the Rights, Happiness and Tranquillity of all Your own Dominions; and not used to be explained or resisted at the Expence of a new War.

The following Address from the County of Surrey was presented to Her Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland, Lord Lieutenant of Surrey, attended by several Gentlemen of that County.

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the County of Surrey.

May it please Your most Sacred Majesty.

WE do render unto God our most humble and hearty Thanks for having placed Your most Sacred Majesty on the Throne of Your Ancestors; and do believe the great Blessings continually bestowed upon us are chiefly owing to Your great Piety and Care of the Protestant Religion.

May the great Example of Your so extraordinary Life induce all Your Subjects to imitate it as exactly as is possible, thereby to draw down the Favour and Protection of God Almighty upon Your Majesty and Your Kingdoms; and to give Your Majesty many more such Glorious Victories as now obtained by the Wisdom and Councils of Your Majesty.

By, and the Courage and Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough, Sir George Rooke. Give us therefore Leave, Madam, to congratulate this unparalleled Success of Your Arms, and to glory in being on all Occasions ready and willing to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of Your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, the Church of England, and the Protestant Succession as by Law Established.

The following Address from the County of Warwick was presented to Her Majesty by Sir John Mordaunt and Sir Charles Sturt, barons, Representatives in Parliament of the said County, introduced by the Rt. Hon. Mr. Secretary Heiges.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Noblemen, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Warwick.

May it please Your Majesty.

WE Your Majesty's Dutiful Subjects do with all Joy congratulate Your Majesty upon the late good Successes of Your Majesty's Fleet; and the entire Victory and Defeat of Your Majesty's Enemies the French and Bavarians, by Your Majesty's Arms, under the wise and good Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough, and the Bravery and Courage of his Grace, and the other Great Generals and Officers of the Army; which will be a perpetual Honour and Glory to England, and Your Majesty's Government.

Your Majesty's steady Zeal to maintain the Religion of the Church of England as by Law Established, and Your great Goodness in Easying Your People when engaged in this War, to part with so great a Proportion of Your Majesty's own Revenue; and Your Princely Piety and Bounty to the poor Clergy of the Church of England, to settle for ever a part of the Income of the Crown; and Your Majesty's tender Care of their well-being, and their Trade and Commerce; are justly rewarded with Blessings, that Blessings attend Your Majesty's Government; which we pray and wish may be long and happy, and prosperous, and crowned with all good Success.

The following Address from the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne was presented to Her Majesty by William Carr Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Scarborough.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do humbly congratulate the late Great and Glorious Victories of Your Majesty's Army: And as an Oblation of Gratitude for Your Majesty's Administration of our Government, we beg Leave to Present Your Majesty's Feet our unfeigned Rejoicing, to contribute most fully what in us lies to enable Your Majesty to Prosecute the same with Vigour and Success. That God would Bless this Nation, by giving to Your Majesty increase of Honour and length of Days; and ever be the Morning, the Evening, and the constant Sacrifice of Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects; who have humbly affixed our Common Seal, this Twentieth day of September, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and Four.

The following Address from the Borough of Queensborough was presented to Her Majesty by Robert Crawford and Thomas King Esq; their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, Steward, Bayliff, Chamberlain, and Burgesses, together with the Minister, of Your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Queensborough in Kent.

Most Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most joyful, loyal, and sincerely obedient Subjects, with a most warm and affectionate Duty and Zeal humbly beg Leave to congratulate the late Glorious and Eminent Career of Success, with which the Almighty God (as a just Reward of Your Majesty's Pious and Service to him, and tender Care of his Church, as by Law established) hath blessed Your Majesty's Arms by Land and Sea, under the wise and valiant Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough and Sir George Rooke.

May propitious Heaven, in all Your Godly and Generous Enterprises for the publick Good, ever attend Your Majesty's Arms and such signal Successes. Long and happy may You live and reign in the Hearts of Your loving Subjects, (like another Deborah) a Mother in our Israel, the Pillar of a tottering Empire, the Relief of Syria, the Scourge of Bavaria, the Curb of aspiring France, the happy Instrument of procuring a lasting and honourable Peace to Europe, the King of Great Britain, the Care of Divine Providence, the Defender of the Protestant Faith, and the Joy of all Your People: Who are (and ever shall be) the fervent Prayers of us Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.
