W^m Friday, October 6. The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and Chancellor of the University of Dublin.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows and Scholars, of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin in Ireland.

M^r Gracious Sovereign,

In the deepest Sense of Duty, and Gratitude, we humbly Congratulate the many and glorious Successes of Your Majesty's Reign, owing to the Wisdom of Your Councils, the Conduct, and Bravery of Your Commanders, and the Signal Blessing of Almighty God upon them all: By which Means You are in this short space already become the Glory of the present Age, and a great Example to all that shall ever sit upon the Throne of these Kingdoms.

It now become evident to all, that nothing is too great to be expected from a long Continuance of Your Rule over us; which we crave Your Majesty will continue we pray for as for our own Lives and Safety; for Liberty and Happiness; for the Settlement of true Religion among us; and for our common Parent, from whose Tenderness Affection and Bounty alone, we of this Nation ever hope to be in a Condition of receiving the Blessings of a Peace, and of having any small Share in the Prosperity of England.

The same Spirit of Wisdom go on to inspire Your Royal Breast, and the best Resolutions; and may the same visible Hand of God be in the execution of them: That as You have apparently made the Advantage of his true Religion, and the Happiness of Your People, Your Aim; it may all come home to Your Self at last; till both You and Your Subjects shall have nothing more to wish for, except one from those who sit at the happy Heir of all Your Virtues and the mighty Regent that attend them.

Given under our Common Seal the 26th of September, in the second Year of Her Majesty's Reign.

The following Address from the City of Lincoln was presented to Her Majesty by Sir John Meres, to whom the same was sent in the Silence of the Members of Parliament for that City.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty, of the City of Lincoln.

May it please Your Majesty,

W^e Your Majesty's Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, beg Leave to humbly present to Your Majesty our unfeigned grateful Acknowledgments of Your Majesty's great Wisdom in the Management of our Affairs; but more especially in the great Case Your Majesty has taken in the applying of the Money raised by Parliament for carrying on the War; by which means Your Majesty's Forces, and those of our Allies, have, under the valourous and prudent Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough, gained a most glorious and compleat Victory over the French and Bavarians near the Banks of the Danube: And Your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of Sir George Rooke hath, in a great distance from Your Dominions, taken a strong and advantagious Port from the Spaniards, and forced back the French Fleet and Spanish Gallies, without the Loss of any of Your Majesty's Ships: Which blessed Effects of Your Majesty's wise and gracious Government stand good Grounds to hope, as we shall always pray, that Your Majestys Arms may continue Successful, to the obtaining a lasting and undivided Peace; and that Your Majesty's happy Reign over us, may be long and prosperous.

Given under our Common Seal this Second Day of October, in the Third Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address from the City of Hereford was presented to Her Majesty by the Honourable James Bridges Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Sovereign,

W^e the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Hereford, in Common Council assembled, do heartily give Thanks to Almighty God for the great and glorious Victory lately obtained by the Arms of Your Majesty and of Your Allies near the Banks of the Danube, where Your Majesty's Power was almost unthought of. We also give unto God our like Thanks for his giving Your Majesty Courage to prosecute a necessary War against a late formidable Enemy, and for giving You Wisdom to make Choice of able Counsellors, and of a valiant Commander. These signal Blessings from God, upon Your Majesty we attribute to Your own great Piety and Resolution to advance the True Worship of God, and to suppress all Vice and Immorality, the bold Sins of former Times: And we doubt not, but that by the steady Course of Your Christian Life herein, You will procure more Showers of Blessings upon Your Self, and upon Your happy People, if they follow Your Majesty's Example. Then we may expect a Succession of more Victories at Land and at Sea: Then we may expect to see the Pride of France reduced by Your Majesty's Arms, and Your Fleets still Triumphant over all Armadas provided to insult Your Majesty's Dominions, and to interrupt such our State of Peace as scarce any other European enemy but our selves under the Auspicious Government of Your Majesty, the Defender of our Primitive Faith, and of all we have which is dear to us. O happy England! where there is such a Peace; where the Church Established by Law Religiously Professeth, and Learnedly Defends the True and Apostolick Doctrine; where there is neither Tyrant nor Slave; where the Sovereign upholds the Liberty of the Subject, and the People with their Hands, Hearts, and Purse, endeavour to maintain the Sovereignty so their own Security: These things give us good Reason sincerely to pray, that Your Majesty may be never wanting on the Throne to us, Your Majesty's most willingly Dutiful and Obedient Subjects.

In Testimony whereof we have hereto, with an unanimous Vote, put our Common Seal of this City of Hereford this 23d day of September, in the Third Year of Your Majesty's most Gracious Reign over us.

The following Addresses have likewise been presented to Her Majesty:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Winchester.

W^e Your Majesty's most Dutiful Subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Winchester, beg Leave to offer Your Majesty our most sincere and humble Thanks, not only for the many Blessings we enjoy under Your Government, in common with the rest of Your People, but also for that peculiar Goodness in freely granting part of Your Revenue for the Maintenance of our Poor Brethren. This sensible Charity, so Your Clergy has confirm'd to us, the Belief we justly entertain'd upon Your first Accession to the Throne, that the Establish'd Church, to which Your Majesty had express'd so early and so particular a Regard, wou'd be distinguish'd in Your Royal Favour. We shall therefore make it our chiefest Concern to pursue those great Ends which we are assur'd Your Majesty intended by this Bounty towards us, the Honour of God, and the Welfare of Your People; constantly offering up our Prayers that God woud continue Your Majesty's Life a lasting Blessing to these Nations, and joyfully returning our Praise to him, for so signal an instance of Your Piety, and for all our other Happiness under Your most prosperous Reign.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the British Subjects residing in Dantzic.

May it please Your Majesty,

T^e he happy Influences of Your Majesty's most Auspicious Reign, are in their Extent equal to Your Royal Care; and shed a general Blessing upon all Christendom: This City, and we Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects residing in it, feel the Benefit of Your Gracious Protection, and therefore think our selves bound in Duty and Gratitude, to beg Leave, that we may joynt our most affectionate Congratulations, with those of our Brethren at home, for the glorious Successes it pleases Almighty God to grant Your Majesty's Arms, under the wise and valiant Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, Sir George Rooke, and Your Majesty's other Commanders by Sea and Land.

It fills our Hearts with Joy, and most thankful Acknowledgments of the Divine Goodness; that Great Britain, tho' divded from the rest of the World, is now so eminently the Protector of the Common Rights and Liberties of Mankind: Even Your Majesty's Enemies will in time, we hope, partake in these ineffable Advantages, and be deliver'd from the Cruelties of that Arbitrary Government they long have labour'd under, and all Europe most justly dreaded, till God rais'd up Your Majesty to dispense those Fears.

May it please the same Great God, to grant Your Majesty a long and prosperous Reign, and continue his Blessings upon all Your Undertakings: Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Maidstone was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Thomas Colepeper Bar. High Sheriff of the County of Kent.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common Council, and Freemen of Your Majesty's Town of Maidstone in the County of Kent.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, in all humble manner beg Leave to Congratulate the late Glorious Success of Your Majesty's Arms both by Land and Sea, under the Courage and Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough and Sir George Rooke; in turning so Confusion and Flight the mighty Armies and Navies of Your Enemies; and leading their General Captive.

Such great Actions in Parts so remote, under such Brave Commanders, and in so just a Cause, will render Your Memory and Reign Glorious, and the Gallantry of Your English Forces Formidable to all Nations; And we heartily pray, that Your Victorious Armies and Fleets may continually proceed with the like Success; until You have brought Low the unsatiable Ambition of the great Oppressor, who hath long sought the Destruction of this Church and Nation, and to make Slaves of a People, who never can be such, whilst they remain Your Majesty's Subjects.

May the same Providence which hath Established Your Majesty upon the Throne be from henceforth and for ever the Defence and Shield of his Anointed, to Protect Your Person, and Prolong Your Days, for the Safety and Prosperity of all Your own Dominions, and the Support of the Protestant Interest in the rest of Christendom.

Sealed with our Common Seal the Sixteenth Day of September, in Third Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address from the Borough of Heddon was presented to Her Majesty by Henry Guy and Anthony Duncomb Esqrs; their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs and Burgesses, of Your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Heddon in the County of York.

Most Gracious and most Glorious Sovereign,

Among the rest of Your ever Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, we beg Leave humbly to represent to Your Majesty, That great was the Joy wherewith we first received the News of that never to be forgotten Victory lately obtain'd in Germany over the French and Bavarian Armies, by Your Majesty's Forces and those of Your Allies, under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough. When we reflect upon the Justice of that Cause wherein Your Majesty is so Gloriously engaged, not only for the necessary Defence of Your own Dominions, but Safety of Europe; When we consider that ready Application and Wisdom in Council; that unbaken Zeal to the Established Church; that prudent Management of the publick Revenue; and that tender REGARD to the common Good of Your People, all which have so Eminently appeared throughout Your Majesty's Reign; we may reasonably look upon that Success, and such others as have attended Your Majesty's Arms both at Sea and Land, as the natural Effects or just Rewards of so good and wise an Administration: Yet can we not but be sensible, how far the Glory of that Action at Blenheim, (great as it was) is owing to the true Courage of those Troops, supported by the Bravery and Conduct of that able General under whom they fought.

While we thus presume to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the Successes of that Glorious Day, we cannot but at the same time beg Leave to own our farther Joy for the safe Deliverance of that Your Majesty's Captain General from those many and great Dangers to which his Person was so generously expos'd in the Heat of Battle; whereby he seems to have been preserved, as the most proper Instrument under Your Majesty, to pursue and finish that great Work, which Divine Providence seems to have designed to be the immortal Glory of Your Majesty's Reign.

That it may so prove, and that a Work already so far advanced may have a successful and glorious an end, we beg Leave to assure Your Majesty of our utmost Endeavours; and that with Hearts full of Duty and Zeal, we shall continue to pray for Your Majesty's long Life and happy Reign over us.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Venus, Octob. 1. N. S. Two Deputies who came lately from Prince Ragozki, were sent back the 27th past; and yesterday Baron Szivary's Secretary returned hither with an Account, That the Prolongation of the Truce to the 15th instant had been accepted by the Malecontents: He also brought Passes for the Imperial Commissioners, and for Monsieur Bruyninx Envoy from the States General to repair to Schenirz the Place of Treasy. The Marquis de Foy goes from hence to morrow to the Duke of Marlborough's Camp to consult with his Grace, and the other Generals, about the sending of Succours to the Duke of Savoy. The Turkish Envoy, from this Place the 27th past, in order to return home, being very well satisfied with his Reception, and the Presents which have been made him by the Emperor. Letters from Constantinople the 18th of August, assure us, That the Ottoman Porte commands the Resolution to observe exactly the Treaty of Carlowitz, and particularly to maintain a good Correspondence with the Empress.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Weissenburg, Octo. 1. The 3d instant in the Afternoon a great Sally was made on Landau by 700 Men; but Prince Lewis being then in the Trenches, gave no good Orders, and disposed all things so well, that the Enemy was immediately repulsed with the loss of about 300 Men, without doing us any Damage at all. The 4th, the Prussian Forces began a Redoubt for the Security of their Attack on the Left; and the King of the Romans being in the Trenches, gave Order for the Battery of Mortars to fire that Night. Yesterday Lieutenant and 18 Men came over to us from the Town, who give an Account, That the Garrison suffers very much by their continual Fatigues, and that we have already dismounted several of our Cannon. Last Night, the Redoubts and the Parapet between them were finished; and our Men have begun the Sap in search of the Enemy's Mines, in order to make a Lodgment on the Counterpart. The Prussian Battery of 30 Pieces of Cannon will be ready to-morrow, though the Weather be now bad. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough intends to morrow to wait upon the King of Romans in the Camp before Landau.

Berlin, Octob. 1. Part of the Troops designed from hence in Prussia began their march yesterday, and the rest will follow in two days. Monsieur Prebendorf, Great Treasurer of Poland, is daily expected here with the Character of Ambassador Extraordinary from King Augustus, and that part of the Republick which is in his Interest, in whose behalf he is to acknowledge the King of Prussia in that Quality. Our Letters from Poland contain very little News, King Augustus being still in the same Post; incarousing the joining of the Rivers Bissig and Weissel, it being uncertain which way the King of Sweden design'd to march next; but it was said, That General Reinschild, with a Detachment of the Swedish Forces was advanced into the Territory of Lublin.

Hague, Octob. 14. N. S. The Forces designed for the Model are in a readiness to march, and will be reinforced by four Battalions and six Regiments of Horse, from the Army Commanded by his Grace d' Auverquerque. Our Fleet of Men of War and Merchant Ships from the Streights is arrived, and the Admirals Callicoon and Wassenaer, are expected here this Evening. The Convoy in Portugal, with a Reinforcement for our Troops there, left Holland yesterday from the Texel. They will be from Switzerland, that the Cattles of Ivrea are surrendered to the Duke of Vendome, and the Garrison made Prisoners of War. These Letters add, That there were yet three considerable Bodies of Camisars in the Service, who were so exasperated by the Defection of some of their Companions, that they had resolved to put to Death any Persons that should come to make Proposals to them of that Nature, as they had already done one that came with great Offers from the Marquise Villars to one of their Chiefs.

Dublin, Octob. 25. This day a Proclamation was published by Order of the Lords Justices, declaring Her Majesty's Pleasure, That the Parliament in this Kingdom, now Prorogued unto the 3d day of October next, should be further continued by Prorogation from that day unto Saturday the 10th day of February next.

Falmouth, October 2. Yesterday came in here Her Majesty's Ships the King's Fisher, Burlington and Dartmouth, with 7 homeward-bound East-India Ships under their Convoy from St. Helena, which Place they left the 25th of July last. This Morning came in here several Coasters from the Eastward; as did also the Terceras, the Medall Gally, and the Sea Nymph, bound for the Streights; with the John and the Charles, both of this Place, laden with Salt from Lisbon, but last from Plymouth; and the Four Brothers of and for Hispaniola.

Plimouth, October 3. Yesterday passed by this Harbour Her Majesty's Ships the Hazardous and Laystoff, with Six Sail of Ships under their Convoy, bound for Falmouth; and Eight Sail of Merchant-men came in here for London.

Dartmouth, October 3. Yesterday in the Evening passed by this Harbour to the Westward three of Her Majesty's Ships; as did this day two more, being bound to Plimouth, and thence to Ireland, to Convoy the Transport Ships which are to receive on board the Forces designed to be sent from that Kingdom to Portugal. Yesterday came in here two Guernsey Privateers from cruizing.

at had been accepted by the Imperial Court from the States General of Marlborough's Camp, encards, about the end of the Turkish Empress home, being very resplendent which have been Constanople of the new Porte communicated by of Carlowitz, and Conference with the French of their Agents in the French Army at Night. Yesterday in the Town who go much by their command, united several of her Parallels between the Sap in search of the on the American continent will be ready next. His Grace has signed upon the King of Poland, in the Ambassador Extraordinary Republic which acknowledged the King of Poland contained the same: Post bearing uncertain what next; but it was of the Swedish Forces.
