Whitehall, October 14, 1955.

The following Addresses were laid before The QUEEN on August 15th, 1955:—

CONVOCATION OF CANTERBURY.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY:

We, Your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Archbishop, Bishops and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury in Convocation assembled, approach Your Majesty with dutiful assurance of our devotion to Your Majesty's Throne and Person.

It is our first duty and our valued privilege as we now assemble in a new Convocation to present this loyal address to Your Majesty. The happy memory of Your Majesty's Coronation and of the hopes and prayers which then surrounded you is still fresh and living in the minds and hearts of all your peoples. Those hopes and prayers have been fulfilled and answered, for Your Majesty, both at home and in your journeys through your wide dominions, has daily given proof of unwearying dedication to the tasks and opportunities of public duty. Your subjects in many parts of the world have rejoiced in Your Majesty's presence among them, and your safe return brought equal joy to us all.

We are thankful that in bearing the burden of the many and grave responsibilities which fall upon you, Your Majesty has the unfailing support of your husband His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh. Our country's life is enriched by the happiness of Your Majesty's home and by the constant readiness of the members of your family to give their active help and sympathy in every good cause.

Your Majesty has been called to reign at a time when the world's life is shadowed by deep divisions and sharp anxieties. But in the affairs of Church and State alike we have sure confidence that Your Majesty's gracious influence will ever strengthen the forces of unity, peace and truth. It is our constant prayer that the Church of England may be enabled to serve these same great purposes faithfully, in affectionate loyalty to Your Majesty and in true devotion to the well-being of the whole nation and Commonwealth bound together under your rule.

May the blessing of Almighty God rest continually upon Your Majesty and upon every member of the Royal Family.

*Geoffrey Cantuar, President.
G. F. Hilder, Prolocutor.*

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

Your Grace, I value highly the dutiful and affectionate terms of the Loyal Address of yourself, the Bishops and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury presented at your first Convocation begun in My reign. I have been touched by your kind references to the fulfilment of the hopes and prayers which sustained Me at My Coronation, and to the good effect of My journeys among My peoples in other countries.

My husband and I join in your thankfulness for the blessing of Our happy family life. His counsel and constant support, together with the unfailing assistance of the other members of My family, have been a source of great strength to Me since I was called to assume wider responsibilities.

In these times of tension the growth of scientific knowledge and power needs to be matched by an equal advance in moral and spiritual qualities and to this end I am continually encouraged in My concern for the well-being of My peoples by the steadfast and progressive work of the Church.

I pray that the blessing of Almighty God may ever rest upon your deliberations, and upon the Church's ministry to My peoples.

CONVOCATION OF YORK.

LOYAL ADDRESS TO THE THRONE IN THE PERSON OF HER MAJESTY QUEEN ELIZABETH II.

We, Your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Archbishop, Bishops and Clergy of the Province of York in Convocation assembled, approach Your Majesty with the dutiful assurance of our devotion to Your Majesty's Throne and Person.

Three years ago we presented a loyal address to Your Majesty in which we prayed that Your Majesty, with your Royal Consort the Duke of Edinburgh and your children, might long enjoy the love of all who live within the bounds of your great inheritance. We rejoice that Your Majesty's untiring devotion to the service of your people has been increasingly rewarded with the loyal affection of your subjects throughout your wide dominions. We rejoice also that in spite of many pressing duties Your Majesty and members of your Royal House have been able to visit your subjects in so many parts of the world and thereby to link them together in closer fellowship.

We recall the solemn splendour of Your Majesty's Coronation, with its note of deep religion, of dedication to the service of God and of dependence upon His guiding wisdom. Into which solemnity, thanks to the discoveries of science, the people of this country and of many other lands were able to enter, as never before, by sound and sight. We pray that the Church of God may ever be enabled to foster and deepen that spirit of dedication in the hearts of all your people.

The longing of men of good will everywhere is for peace between the nations of the world based upon freedom and justice for all. To this cause the Church is pledged in work and prayer. In the faith of Jesus Christ who died for all men we pray that by the power of His spirit the leaders of this and every nation may be guided to establish righteousness, justice and truth in all the world as the sure foundation of peace and the well-being of all men.

And we shall ever pray that the good hand of Almighty God may rest upon Your Majesty, upon your Royal Consort, upon your children as they receive their training for the duties which lie before them, and upon all your Royal House, and that He may crown your Reign with the blessings of peace and prosperity.

Cyril Ebor, President.
A. Selwyn Bean, Prolocutor.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank Your Grace and the Bishops and Clergy of the Province of York for the Loyal Address you have presented at the commencement of your first Convocation begun in My reign. I am grateful for your assurances of loyal devotion, and I deeply appreciate the kind and generous words with which you have referred to My visits to My peoples in many parts of the world.

Most fervently I join in your prayer to Almighty God to foster that spirit of true religion and dedication to His service in which My Coronation was celebrated with such solemnity not only in this country but in many other lands. It is My constant aim, aided by the prayers of the Church, to serve Him by promoting the well-being of all My peoples.

I pray that the blessing of Almighty God will always rest upon the endeavours of the Church to establish His righteousness, the only sure foundation of universal peace.
