Windsor, October 14. The following Address from the County of the Town of Drogheda was presented to Her Majesty by His Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Burgesses and Commons, of Your Majesty's ancient County of the Town of Drogheda, in Your Kingdom of Ireland.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being highly sensible of the wonderful Blessings that GOD hath been pleased to signify to Your Majesty, in the extraordinary Success he hath given to Your Arms, and most of Your Allies, under the Conduct of Your Captain-General His Grace the Duke of Marlborough, by the obtaining Two such Glorious Victories in Germany, over the French King, who thought his Armies invincible:

We do therefore most humbly offer up our most hearty Thanks and praises to Almighty GOD, and adore his Divine Providence, that he hath been pleased to preserve and raise up Your Sacred Majesty to be his Glorious Instrument, in his Hand, to reduce that Ambitious Monarch.

And we most humbly crave Leave to assure Your Majesty, That it is, and ever shall be, our hearty Prayers to Almighty GOD, that he will continue his Favours to Your Majesty, and crown You with Success in all Your Undertakings, that You may live long to govern these Kingdoms, to hold the Balance of Europe, to be the Preserver and Protector of the Reformed Religion abroad, and of the Churches of England and Ireland as by Law established at home.

And we most humbly crave Leave to assure Your Majesty, That we shall be always ready with our Lives and Fortunes to stand by and defend Your Majesty, to the utmost of our Power, in the Defence of Your Majesty's most Sacred Person and Government, the Established Religion, and the Protestant Succession.

In Testimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal, the Second Day of October, 1704.

The following Address from the Justices of the Peace, the Deputy Lieutenants and Grand Jury for the County of Hereford, was presented by the Right Honourable the Lord Coningsby.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, the Deputy Lieutenants and Grand Jury for the County of Hereford, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions held for the said County the Third of October, 1704.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, finding Your Majesty permits such as we are to present our humble Thoughts concerning Your Majesty's Actions, do presume to assure Your Majesty, That we can excite us in rejoicing at the Glorious Progress of Your Arms, both by Land and Sea, under the Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough and Sir George Rooke. And we heartily wish that Your Success may be (as Your Majesty declares Your Self will be) still the same.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Charles Harrington Bar. one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Essex, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Guilford.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, of the County of Essex, at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held at Chelmsford, the Third Day of October, in the Third Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and the Grand Jury, for the County of Essex, with all Humility, yet with Hearts full of Joy and Affection, beg Leave to approach Your Royal Throne, and tender our warmest Congratulations to Your Majesty, for the Glorious and Unparalleled Victory obtained by the Forces of Your Majesty and Your Allies, under the Command of the Duke of Marlborough: A Victory so complete, as hath not been heard of in the present Age, nor is, in all its Circumstances, to be equalled in any former.

And we think our selves happy that we have at the same time an Opportunity to congratulate Your Majesty upon the Success of Your Fleet, under the vigilant Care and Command of Sir George Rooke, both in the Storming and Taking of Gibraltar, and the Glorious Victory over the French at Sea, whom the Superiority of Force, added to their many other Advantages, was not able to protect from a shameful Defeat.

These eminent Successes, Madam, which even exceed our most forward Expectations, we esteem as Blessings sent from Heaven for the Reward of Your Exemplary Piety and most illustrious Virtue and Goodness; of Your great Zeal to assist and support Your Allies, protect the Protestant Religion in general; and of Your Royal Promise to shew Your particular Favour to the Church of England, Established by Law, and transmit it secure to our Posterity.

These Virtues, which shine so bright on the English Throne in Your Majesty's Auspicious Reign, fill the Hearts of us, and all Your loving Subjects, with Joy, Duty and Gratitude; and with, we hope, for ever dispel the Mists of Malice, and murmuring Faction.

Permit us therefore, Madam, to render our unfeigned Praises to Him, by whom Kings reign, not only for these signal Victories over the Common Enemy, but more especially for that inestimable Blessing in placing Your Sacred Person on the Throne of Your Ancestors, under whose happy Government we hope to enjoy the Comforts of Peace and Prosperity during our Lives, and leave the same Blessing to those who come after us.

The following Address from the Borough of Great Marlow was presented to Her Majesty by Sir James Erhereage Kt. and James Chase Esq; their Representatives in Parliament; and George Bruer Esq;

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Constables and the rest of the Inhabitants of Your Majesty's ancient Borough of Great Marlow, in the County of Bucks; together with their Representatives in Parliament.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave (amidst the Crouds of Your People) to Congratulate Your Majesty for the signal Victories obtained by Your Army and Fleet, under the Command of His Grace the Duke of Marlborough and Sir George Rooke: Such Victories (MADAM) and against such an Enemy as we could scarce hope for; and such as Posterity will scarce believe, and such as were by Heaven reserved for the Glory of Your Auspicious Reign, whose exemplary Piety has gained the God of Battles into Your Assistance. And may that God evermore defend Your Majesty, and continue these Blessings to us: May the Success of Your Forces increase more and more every day, till there be no Enemy left to dispute Your Power, but only to admire Your Greatness.

And may Your Conquests ne're be at a stand, Till Lewis be Petit, and Anne la Grand.

St. James's, Octob. 15. The following Address from the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and the rest of the Clergy of the Diocese of Bristol, was presented to Her Majesty by his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Bristol.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Bristol, are deeply sensible of Your Majesty's extraordinary Bounty, beyond all Example, to the poor Clergy of this Kingdom; whereby Your Majesty manifests Your self to be the true Head of this Church, by Your lively feeling Compassion to those Members, who, though they have an Honourable Place in it, yet stand in as great need of Maintenance and Support, as most of the meanest of Your Majesty's Subjects.

This Your Majesty's Munificence is the more surprizing and obliging, being granted at a time when You are engaged in a most expensive War; by the wise Management of which, we and all Your Subjects are blessed with Peace, without being exposed to the Rapine and Cruelty of an Enemy who knows no Mercy.

We farther humbly crave Leave to Congratulate the Glorious Victories which God, so soon after this signal Charity, has given Your Majesty's Forces, under the Command and by the admirable Conduct and Valour of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough; together with the success of Your Majesty's Fleet, commanded by Sir George Rooke.

The Blessings we enjoy under Your Majesty's most Gracious Government engage us, as well in Gratitude as Duty, to pray earnestly and constantly to the Sovereign Ruler of all, That Your Reign may be long and happy; That You may continue an Ornament and Defence of our Church and State, and be every Year as Victorious over Your Enemies as You have been this, till none be left that dare oppose You. And we shall not only do this our selves, but also, according to the Duty of our Places, endeavour to persuade all that are committed to our Charge to be of the same Mind.

The following Address from the County of Southampton and from the Borough of Lisle in the County of Dorset, were presented to Her Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Bolton, Lord Lieutenant of both those Counties.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace and Grand Jury for the County of Southampton, at the General Quarter-Sessions held for the County aforesaid at the Castle of Winton, on Tuesday the Third of October, 1704.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

May it please Your Majesty to let us crave Leave humbly to present our late though hearty Congratulation for the late Great and Glorious Successes of Your Majesty's Forces by Land and at Sea, may we the late supposed Exorbitant Power of France and its now defeated Allies; in which we had been earlier, had it not been for the Expectation we had of the Honour of Your Majesty's Presence here before this time: All which, though it must be acknowledged solely to proceed from the Almighty Supreme and Sovereign Governing Providence, who doth what he pleaseth both in Heaven and Earth; yet, without Injustice to Your Majesty, we cannot (under God) but attribute it also to Your Majesty's Wisdom and humane Counsels, the Courage and Conduct of Your Majesty's Generals and Admirals, the Bravery of Your other Officers both at Land and at Sea, and the Matchless and undaunted Courage of Your Soldiers and Seamen, concurring still (we mean, Dread Sovereign) with the Divine Providence. And indeed whoever considers the many early and eminent Blessings, with which the Almighty hath signalized Your Majesty's just and pious Government, cannot wonder that such Successes attend such a Queen; to whose Commands it is our Happiness, as well as our Duty, to give entire Obedience; and for whose long and prosperous Reign in this World, and eternal Happiness and Glory hereafter, are, ought to be, and always shall be, the hearty and constant Prayers and unwearied Wishes of Your Majesty's most Dutiful, most Loyal, most Obedient Subjects.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of Your Majesty's Dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, Freemen, and other Inhabitants, of the Borough of Lisle-Regis, in the County of Somerset.

May it please Your Majesty,

THAT we place Glorious Successes which God hath Graciously given to the Arms of Your Majesty and Your Allies, under the prudent Conduct of the illustrious Duke of Marlborough, having filled the Hearts of Your Subjects with fixed and universal Joy, that they strive who shall be most forward with Congratulatory Addresses to Your Majesty on this happy Occasion.

We also crave Leave to prostrate our selves at Your Majesty's Feet, humbly to congratulate those Glorious Victories, whereby so great a Check hath been given to the Ambition of the Great Disturber of the Peace and Infringer of the Liberties of Europe; and Your Majesty's Forces, by their unparalleled Valour, have acquired immortal Fame and Renown.

We hold our selves obliged, with the greatest Thankfulness, to acknowledge the Happiness we enjoy under Your Majesty's pious Reign, which we heartily pray may be long and prosperous, for the great Good of Your People, and for the Preservation of the Protestant Religion, of which we acknowledge Your Majesty, under God, to be the chief Supporter.

May Your Majesty be the Sovereign of the Hearts and united Affections of all Your Subjects.

May all the secret or open Attempts of the Enemies against Your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government be ever frustrated.

May the Arms of Your Majesty and Your Allies be attended with such an uninterrupted Series of Victory, as may re-establish the Peace and Liberty of Europe.

May Your Majesty's Zeal for God's Glory, the Protestant Religion, be rewarded with all Blessings in this Life; and an immortal Crown of Glory in the next.

This is, and shall be the hearty Prayer of Your Majesty's most humble and most obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Address from the Borough of Harwich was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Thomas Dawkins Esq. Recorder of the said Borough, and John Ellis Esq. their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses, of the ancient Corporation of Harwich.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do with all Humility beg Leave to represent to Your Majesty the great Satisfaction we take in the happy Success of Your Majesty's Arms this Year, wherein more has been done, by the incomparable Conduct, Valour and Resolution of his Grace the Great Duke of Marlborough, in one Campaign, than might have been expected in many, and all fortunate. The French and Bavarian Forces, who together sought themselves invincible upon the Danube, have been twice routed, by Men that march'd Five hundred Miles to attack them in their Fastnesses, with so extraordinary a Defeat, that Your Majesty's Captain General had several Generals and an Army Prisoners; and that Elector, who hoped to usurp the Emperor's Countries, is forced to forsake his own.

Your Majesty's Arms were at the same time in the Heart of Germany, in Portugal, and in Spain, where Sir George Rooke, Your Admiral, by taking Gibraltar, has given the first Footing to the King of Spain in his own Dominions: Your Power has kept the Father in the Throne, and is setting the Son upon his.

Your Majesty's mighty Fleet carries its Terror into the Mediterranean, and returns with as much Ease as a Squadron of Ships did before: It assaults the Spaniards on their own Coasts, and takes from them one of their most considerable Ports; and beats the French Fleet, when the Enemy could hardly with so engage with more Advantage on their side.

These are some of the Wonders of Your Majesty's most Glorious Reign, which we bless God for, and earnestly pray for the Continuance of Your Health and Prosperity, that the same wise Counsels, from whence all these admired Actions flow, may long secure the Happiness of Your Majesty's Subjects, and the Liberties of Europe.

The following Address from the County of Gloucester was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Berkeley, Lord Lieutenant of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant and Lord Bishop of Gloucester, and also of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury and other Gentlemen, assembled at the Quarter Sessions holden for the County of Gloucester, the Third day of October, Anno Dom. 1704.

AS no greater Blessing can accrue to any Nation or People than a Pious, just and Gracious Sovereign, we Esteem our selves infinitely happy, that it hath pleased Almighty God to settle Your Majesty upon the Throne: The Prosperity of Your Government as such, and the glorious Successes of Your Arms abroad, we look upon as Signals of the Divine Goodness towards us: That high Wisdom great Genius and constant Care which Your Majesty shows in the Conduct of Your Affairs, have rendered Your Government more Glorious and more Secure, than under the greatest of Your Royal Predecessors; and the Reputation won by Your Armies in Foreign Parts, under the Wise and Valiant Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough, exceeds whatever have been hitherto attained towards Reducing the Exorbitant, and hitherto Tremendous Power of the French Monarch.

And we likewise beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the Success of Your Majesty's Fleet at Sea, where the Bravery of Your Officers and Seamen has appeared in so eminent a Manner: May it please Almighty God to continue these Successes to Your Majesty, that Your Neighbouring Nations, as well as Native Subjects may ever Bless God Almighty that Your Majesty hath been advanced to the Throne of England, as the true Patroness both of the Religion and Civil Liberties of Your People, the Protector of Your Neighbours, and the undoubted Arbitrator of the Peace of Europe, the ancient and justly prized Privilege of the Imperial Crown of this Your Realm.

May Your Reign be Long and ever Happy in the unfeigned Affections of Your People, in the just Esteem and Veneration of Your Allies and Neighbours, and Terrible to none but such as shall presume or offer to Disturb the Tranquillity of Your most Benign and Gracious Government over us in Church or State, or interrupt in any wise Your pious Care in Settling and Maintaining the Succession in the Protestant Line.

The following Address from the County of Montgomery was presented to Her Majesty by the Hon. Lieutenant-General Chamberlayne, in the absence of the Lord Chamberlain, Lord Lieutenant of the several Counties of North-Wales.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenant, Justices of the Peace, and Militia Officers, of the County of Montgomery.

Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, having, as it is a true Sense of our Duty, as well as by Your Majesty's pious Example and Precept, first rendered to Almighty God, the thanks of all Pilgrims, our most humble and unfeigned Thanks for the late Glorious

We now beg Leave to congratulate Your Majesty upon the same Glorious Occasion; and at the same time, in the most dutiful manner, to express the grateful Sense we have of Your Majesty's pious Zeal for the Church of England, Your generous Regard to the true Interest of Christianity, and Your indulgent Care and Concern for the Welfare and Ease of all Your People, who have just Reason to join with us of the Established Church in a general Te Deum; and with Heart and Voice to say,

Long Live the QUEEN.

The following Address from the Town of Brecon was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Jeffrey Jeffreys, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Bayliff, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other the Inhabitants of Your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Brecon, do humbly beg Leave, together with the rest of Your Loyal Subjects, to Congratulate the late Glorious Victories won by Your Majesty's Forces under the Command of the Duke of Marlborough; and the happy Success of Your Majesty's Fleet in the Straights and Mediterranean, under the Conduct of Sir George Rooke. These Favours of Heaven, as they have rais'd our Hearts to a due Sense of God Almighty's wonderful Goodness and Loving Kindness towards us, so they make us daily pray, That God would be Graciously pleas'd to give Your Majesty (to whose wise Administration and Government, next under him, we owe these Blessings) a happy, long and prosperous Reign over us, to establish our Church, to promote our Welfare, and restore the Peace of Europe.

In Testimony whereof we have herewith affixed our Common Seal the Ninth Day of October, in the Third Year of Your Majesty's Auspicious Reign.

The following Address from the Borough of Minehead was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Jacob Banks, one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of that County.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Borough of Minehead, in the County of Somerset.

WE humbly beg Leave to approach Your Majesty, with Hearts full of Duty and Affection to Your Sacred Person, most humbly to Congratulate the Glorious Success of Your Arms, both by Land and Sea.

Happy happy are we under Your Majesty's most Wise and Gracious Government: When the Fountain is so pure, the Streams must flow sweetly. Your Majesty's great Captains, Heroes of immortal Fame, the Noble Duke of Marlborough and Sir George Rooke, by the good Providence of God, and their own unparalleled Conduct and Bravery, have carried Your Majesty's Honour, and the Nation's Glory, to such a height in the Wars, that England now justly stands upon the Globe as Queen of all the Isles; and You (Great Madam, to our unspeakable Joy) the Triumphant Glorious Queen of her. Let England's Gratitude then be shewn; Let Faction die, and let Lewis thence, whilst we rejoice, and thank both God and You, great Sovereign, that are Your Majesty's most Faithful and Obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Scarborough was presented to Her Majesty by John Hangerford Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bayliffs and Burgesses of the Corporation of Scarborough, in the County of York.

THE just Sense we have of the various Blessings, powered daily upon us through Your Majesty's happy Administration, will not permit us any longer to continue that awful Silence which is owing unto, and which we have hitherto observed towards You. We have seen so much of Your Majesty's gracious Acceptance of the Acclamations and Thanksgivings of Your People, that we are from thence encouraged thus humbly to make a Tender of our Hearts and Hearts, and of all that through Your Goodness we possess, to Your Service. When we consider that especial Providence that has hitherto presided in Your Majesty's Councils; when we consider the Course and Progress of Your past Successes; we find nothing too great for us to hope for. We have in the yet Dawn of Your Glorious Reign seen the first Prince of the Empire, and Catholic King, a Suppliant at Your Feet; we have seen the English Banner displayed upon the Tagns and the Danube, in Support of him, and his Royal House; we have seen the Great Usurper chased by Sea and Land, and all his Lawrels planted upon Your Sacred Head. Go on,

Madam, to the Pitch as least of the Great Augustus: May Your Majesty, be the Court and Refuge of Distressed Kings and States, a Scourge of Tyrants; may You live long, and the English scepter flourish in Your Hand, to the unspeakable Comfort of Your own, and Relief of all Distressed Nations; which, as in Duty bound, shall ever be the Prayers of Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Address from the Town and Borough of Cirencester was presented to Her Majesty by William Master Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Town and Borough of Cirencester in the County of Gloucester.

WE Your Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, presume in this humble manner to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the surprising Success of Your Arms both by Sea and Land; and to declare, with all possible Respect, the just Sense we have of Your Majesty's great Prudence and Conduct, in laying and carrying on so vast a Design, to send a numerous and powerful Army into the very Heart of Germany, to rescue an injured Emperor from the Treachery of his own Subjects, and from an Invasion of an ambitious and aspiring Monarch. Such daring Actions can come only from such a Queen, a mighty Favourite of Heaven, and who seems rewarded by a peculiar Care of Providence to bring these and many more wonderful things to pass.

Can we admire too much Your Majesty's Wisdom, in making Choice of so great a Captain as the Duke of Marlborough! A Hero whose Actions may challenge any Exploits, even of the greatest Generals, though set off to Advantage by artful Historians.

May the united Love of all Your People make Your Majesty's Reign happy and long; and may Your own Piety and Goodness create to more Subjects than You have by Inheritance, that all neighbouring Nations may have that high Esteem and profound Respect for our Great and Glorious Queen, (as a Guardian Angel, fit to hold the Scales of Justice and the Balance of Europe) are the sincere and hearty Wishes and Prayers of, &c.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Turin, Octob. 1. N. S. On the 27th of the last Month the Enemy made themselves Masters of the Citadel and the Borgo, two small Forts belonging to Ivrea; and the Forces that were in them remained Prisoners of War. The 29th the Garison in the Castle beat a Parley, and desired to capitulate; but the Duke of Vendôme would hear of no other Articles than that they should be Prisoners of War, to which they were forced to submit, after having defended themselves a whole Month, with great Vigour and Courage, in a Place very indifferently fortified, which the Enemy pretended to take in 10 days. We are told, that the Baron de Proni, who was Governor of Ivrea, and General Kirchbaum, with the other chief Officers, are to be conducted to Milan, the Spanish Troops in the Duke of Vendôme's Army which are to reinforce the Grand Prior, having been stop'd for two or three days on purpose to guard them on their way to that City: The rest of the Garison are to be sent to Chatillon, in the Valley of Aosta. Yesterday the Marquis de Serie, and the other Officers who commanded our Duke's Forces in that Valley and in the City of the same Name, arrived in his Royal Highness's Camp, the French Forces under the Duke de la Feuillade having possessed themselves of those Places: They attacked the Fort la Thuile on the 27th inst, which was guarded by some Militia, with a new-raised Battalion of Swiss who made no Resistance; so that the Enemy having gained this Post, the Marquis de Serie, with the few Forces he had left, and Cavalier, with his Troop of Sevennois, who had lately joined them, were obliged to retire. Monsieur du Guas, the French Governor of Aiti, has left that Place with only 100 Men in the Castle, having ordered that all the Gates of the Town should be kept shut, except one, to prevent its being surprized by our Troops, and with the rest of his Garison has joined the Body of French Forces commanded by Monsieur Albergotti. We hear, that our Duke is marched from Crescentine with a strong Detachment, which is provided with Bread for 4 or 5 days; and that the Baron de Martini, who is encamped at Monte Chiari, about 5 Miles from Aiti, with a Detachment of 3 Battalions and 700 Horse, has Orders to march to favour his Royal Highness's Design, which is yet a secret: Some believe it may be to surprize Monsieur Albergotti.

Vienna, Octob. 8. All our Advices from Hungary give us good Hopes, from the Disposition which the Malecontents appear to be in at present, that Matters will shortly be brought to an Accommodation; and the Emperor has thereupon been pleased to prolong the Cessation of Arms till the last day of this Month. According to our Advices from Italy, the Imperial Army under the Count de Leiningen, was advanced, on the 26th of the last Month, as far as between Villanova and Salo, on the Lake de Garda.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Weissenbourg, Octob. 13. On Friday the 10th Instant, the Disposition being made for a second Attack of the Redoubt which the Enemy had retaken the night before, it was assaulted about Nine that night with good Success. The Dispute was very hot for above an hour, during which time the Enemy endeavoured three several times to re-pose themselves of it, but were at last obliged to give it over with very great Loss; and our Men continue in Possession of that Post, and have completed a Lodgment at the Foot of the Glacis. The Enemy, upon their their Retreat, set Fire to great quantities of Powder, with Intent to bring their Mines; which being perceived by our Men, was prevented from taking Effect, by cutting off the Fuses. The 11th we continued searching for Mines in the Redoubt, and discovered several Branches leading to them. The same day the Approaches on the Left were advanced, one within 60; and the other within 25 Paces of the Glacis. Yesterday our Men in the Redoubt cut ones one of the Enemy's Mines, out of which they took 800 weight of Powder. Our Approaches on the Left are now carried on within 25 Paces of the Glacis, from whence we shall draw another Parallel, to secure the Batteries which are to be made on the Counter-Scarp, as soon as we have found out the rest of their Mines. Defectors from Landau report, That the Governor is wounded. The Marshal de Villeroi went for France on Friday last, having left the Command of the Army at Haguenau to the Marshal de Marillac. This Morning a Battalion of the Royal Regiment, with Lieutenant-General Ingoldby's, Brigadier-General Hamilton's, and Colonel Tatton's Regiments of Foot, marched from hence, under the Command of Brigadier-General Merdoub, towards Germersheim, where they are to embark to-morrow on the Rhine for Holland. These Regiments, with the Five Battalions sent down a Month ago with the French Prisoners, are to supply the place of the Dutch Battalions and the Six Squadrons of Horse, that are drawn out of the Garrisons in Holland to march towards the Moselle, where they are expected about the end of this Month. General Churchill and my Lord Orkney are likewise gone with these Regiments, intending to make use of the Waters of Aix la Chapelle for their Health, before they embark for England.

Berlin, Octob. 14. The King of Prussia is now at Potsdam; but intends to leave that Town to-morrow, and to take a Progress to Magdebourg, Quedlinburg, Northausen, and several other places, and to return to Potsdam by the 26th Instant. Letters from Dantzick of the 11th say, it was reported that the Czar of Moscow intended to quarrel his Army this Winter in Courland and Samogitia: They had not of late received any certain Accounts of his Motions; but from Riga they had Advice, that the Inhabitants there were under great Apprehensions that he designed to bombard them, having been informed that Preparations were making for that purpose at Nyen-Schans and Norebourg, where they also work with great Application upon the fitting out of a Squadron of Ships against the Spring, to cruise in the East Sea. It is confirmed, That the King of Sweden having left Lemberg, marched with his Army towards Zamosk; but that Town having sent him 200000 Dollars, he changed his March towards Lublin, where Provisions were already got together for his Army: It was not yet known which way he would proceed from thence, or whether he would quarter his Troops this Winter in the Polish Prussia, or in the Greater Poland. In the mean time King Augustus has sent a Detachment of 6 Muscovite Battalions, under the Command of Lieutenant-General Partkul, towards Posen, that were to be joined by several Saxon Battalions, and as was said had already invested that place, into which General Meyerfield had retired with 3000 Swedes. By our last Letters from Pultusk, King Augustus was still there, having cantoned his Forces along the Rivers Weisfel and Bugg.

Paris, Octob. 13. On the 6th and 7th Instant the Count de Saint Iffevan de Gorinas, Envoy Extraordinary from Spain, and Count Scotti, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Parma, had their Audiences of Leave of the French King, the Dauphine, and the rest of the Royal Family, at Fontainebleau, where the Court is at present. On the 12th died in this City Henry Duke of Duras, the eldest of the Marshals of France, aged 79 years; He is succeeded in the Command of Captain of one of the Troops of Horse-Guards by the Marshal de Boufflers, in that of Colonel of the French Regiment of Foot-Guards by the Duke de Guich, Son of the Duke of Grammont, who is at present Ambassador Extraordinary from this Court to that of Madrid; and the Government of the Country of Burgundy, which also became vacant by his Death, is given to the Marshal de Tallard. The Count de Coigny, Lieutenant-General, died the 10th at Coignmacheren, two Leagues below Thionville; and the Marquis d'Alegré is appointed to command in his room the Forces which he was drawing together on the Moselle. Our Letters from Italy give an Account, That the Grand Prior was encamped the 28th past at Medola, where he expected a Reinforcement from the Duke of Vendosme's Army, to enable him to make head against the German Forces under the Count de Leiningen, which were advancing by the way of the Country of Brescia, with intent either to join the Duke of Savoy, or to make a considerable Diversion of our Forces in Favour of his Royal Highness. An Express from the Duke of Vendosme has brought Advice of his having possessed himself of the little Town of Bord, in the Valley of Aosta, and afterwards of the Castle there, wherein was a Garrison of 150 Men, who made a very resolute Defence.

Hague, Octob. 21. N. S. The Detachment for the Moselle, consisting of 10 Battalions and 6 Squadrons, who had their Rendezvous at Mastricht, was to begin its March this day or to-morrow, and will be joined at Coblenz by a Detachment from the Duke of Marlborough's Army, in order to form the Siege of Traarbach. The States of Holland having nominated Monsieur de Salisch to be a General of Foot, the other Provinces have given their Consent to it; and the States General have accordingly procured him to that Command.

Whitehaven, Octob. 8. On the 6th Instant the Amity arrived here. Yesterday came in the Cumberland, the Africa, the Whitehaven, the Catherine, the Mulberry, the Lennet, the Success, the
