Civil Service Commission, 1st June, 1956.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz. :—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT TO THE STATISTICIAN CLASS OF THE HOME CIVIL SERVICE.1. Sex.

Both men and women may compete under these Regulations.

2. Age.

Candidates must be at least 20½ years and under 24 years of age on the 1st August, 1956. But

(a) a candidate who has served or is serving in H.M. Forces may deduct from his actual age the period of such service rendered before the 1st August, 1956;

(b) a candidate who has post-graduate statistical experience approved by the Commissioners may deduct from his actual age the period of such experience gained before the 1st August, 1956, up to a maximum of three years.

3. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject, or

(ii) have resided in Her Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalised British subjects, they must have resided in Her Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with Her Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

4. Qualifications and Experience.

Candidates may be mathematical or economic statisticians. They must have a University degree with first or second class honours (upper second where the second class is divided) with Statistics as the principal subject or as a substantial part of the final examination, or a post-graduate University diploma in Statistics, or a higher degree in Statistics. Those so qualifying this summer will be eligible. Preference will be given to candidates who have good academic qualifications and some post-graduate statistical experience.

5. Competition.

The candidates who appear from their applications to be eligible under these regulations and to have the best qualifications and experience will be invited to a preliminary informal interview, and to an interview before a Final Selection Board, which will recommend to the Civil Service Commissioners those considered most suitable for appointment. The Commissioners' decision will be final.

6. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

7. Candidates trained as teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g. the Scottish Educational Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners. This does not apply to persons trained in England or Wales.

8. Assignment.

The Commissioners will decide to which Government Department each successful candidate is to be assigned. Assignments will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service, but the wishes of candidates will, where possible, be taken into account. A candidate who declines to accept the post offered will have no claim to be assigned to another, but will be regarded as having declined appointment.

9. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

10. Fee.

Every successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £4 before the issue of a certificate of qualification for appointment.

Civil Service Commission, 1st June, 1956.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF BOYS AND GIRLS TO THE CLERICAL CLASSES (GENERAL AND DEPARTMENTAL) OF THE HOME CIVIL SERVICE.1. Age.

Candidates must be at least 16 and under 18 years of age on 1st September, 1956.

But candidates who have served in any established post to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, or who have served on established conditions except for sick leave and pension in a post to which such a certificate would normally apply, may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding two years which they may have spent in such service before 1st September, 1956.

2. Sex.

Both boys and girls are eligible.

3. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject; or

(ii) have resided in Her Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalised British subjects, they must have resided in Her Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with Her Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

4. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character.

5. Examination.

The subjects of examination and the marks they will carry are as follows:—

Compulsory Subjects.

(1) English	200
(2) Arithmetic	100

Optional Subjects.

(3) Mathematics	200
(4) Science	200
(5) One of the following languages:— French, German, Spanish, Latin, Greek, Welsh	200
(6) A second language chosen from the list given under head (5)	200
(7) History	200
(8) Geography	200

Candidates may take three optional subjects. Not more than two languages may be chosen from the list given under head (5).

Candidates will be arranged in order of merit on their total marks in the examination. Even if there are unfilled vacancies, no candidate will be appointed who does not reach a standard which satisfies the Civil Service Commissioners.

6. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g. the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners. This does not apply to teachers trained in England or Wales.

7. Assignment.

The Commissioners will decide to which Department each successful candidate is to be assigned. A candidate who declines to accept the post offered will have no claim to be assigned to another, but will be regarded as having declined appointment. Assignments will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service, but the wishes of candidates will, where possible, be taken into account.

8. Fee.

No fee required.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competition will be held under the above Regulations commencing on 4th September, 1956.

Applications on the prescribed form for admission to the Competition should be received by the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission on or before 5th July, 1956. Application forms may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

Civil Service Commission, 1st June, 1956.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF BOYS AND GIRLS TO GRADE 6 POSTS IN BRANCH B OF THE FOREIGN SERVICE.1. Age.

Candidates must be at least 16 and under 18 years of age on 1st September, 1956. But candidates who have served in any established post to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, or who have served on established conditions except for sick leave and pension in a post to which such a certificate would normally apply, may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding two years which they may have spent in such service before 1st September, 1956.

2. Sex and Marriage.

- Candidates may be of either sex; but
- married women are not eligible (a woman member of Branch B must resign her appointment on marriage);
 - the approval of the Secretary of State is required before a successful male candidate who is married takes up appointment.

3. Nationality.

- Every candidate must
 - be a natural-born British subject; and
 - have been born within the United Kingdom or within one of the self-governing Dominions of parents both of whom were also born within the United Kingdom or within one of the self-governing Dominions.
- No departure from this rule will be made without the special permission of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and then only in exceptional cases and in favour of candidates who are British subjects and who satisfy one of the following conditions:—
 - If natural-born British subjects, they must either
 - have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject; or
 - have resided in Her Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.
 - If naturalised British subjects, they must have resided in Her Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.
 - If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph, they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with Her Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

4. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character.

5. Examination.

The subjects of examination and the marks they will carry are as follows:—

Compulsory Subjects.
(1) English	200
(2) Arithmetic	100
Optional Subjects.
(3) Mathematics	200
(4) Science	200
(5) One of the following languages—French, German, Spanish, Latin, Greek, Welsh	200
(6) A second language chosen from the list given under head (5)	200
(7) History	200
(8) Geography	200

Candidates must take one of the languages in the list given under head (5); they must also take two other optional subjects. Not more than two languages in all may be chosen from the list under head (5).

Candidates will be arranged in order of merit on their total marks in the examination, but before any candidate can be appointed he or she will be required to establish, in an interview at the Foreign Office, that he or she is in other respects suitable for appointment to the Foreign Service. Even if there are unfilled vacancies no candidate will be appointed who does not reach a standard which satisfies the Civil Service Commissioners.

6. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g. the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners. This does not apply to teachers trained in England or Wales.

7. Fee.

No fee required.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competition will be held under the above Regulations commencing on 4th September, 1956. Applications on the prescribed form for admission to the Competition should be received by the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission on or before 5th July, 1956. Application forms may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

Civil Service Commission, 1st June, 1956.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz. :—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF CARTOGRAPHICAL DRAUGHTSMEN IN THE GEOLOGICAL SURVEY AND MUSEUM UNDER THE DEPARTMENT OF SCIENTIFIC AND INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH.

1. Age.

Candidates must be at least 18 years of age on 1st September, 1956. There is no upper age limit.

2. Sex.

- Both men and women are eligible.
- Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before the 15th October, 1946, or who are widowed or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid. Provided that this undertaking will not be required if the break between the first period of service (including any period of unestablished service immediately following the period in respect of which the gratuity was paid) and the date of re-establishment is more than seven years.

3. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

- If natural-born British subjects, they must either
 - have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject; or
 - have resided in Her Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.
- If naturalised British subjects, they must have resided in Her Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.
- If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph, they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with Her Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

4. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character.

5. Qualifications.

- Candidates must
- have obtained a School Certificate with at least three credits; or the Senior Leaving Certificate awarded by the Scottish Education Department; or
 - have obtained the General Certificate of Education with passes at Ordinary level in English Language and two of the following subjects: Mathematics, Art, Geography, a science subject, a foreign language; or
 - the Scottish Leaving Certificate with passes on the lower grade in English and two of the following subjects: Mathematics, Art, Geography, Science, a foreign language; or
 - produce a statement from the Scottish Education Department that they have attained a standard at least as high as that required under (a) or (b) above; or
 - have passed an examination accepted by the Commissioners as of an academic standard at least as high as that required under (a), (b) or (c) above.

Exceptionally, candidates without the above qualifications may be admitted if they have at least three years' experience in a cartographic drawing office, including at least one year's service in a Government Department, and provided that a Certificate of Competence is furnished by their Department at the time of their application.

Applications will be accepted provisionally from candidates awaiting the results of their General Certificate of Education (or equivalent) examinations, but all candidates must be in possession of the qualifications given in (a) to (e) above by the date of the written examination (30th August, 1956).

6. Examination.

Candidates who appear from their applications to be suitably qualified (see Regulation 5) will be examined in:—

- | | |
|--|-----------|
| (1) Lettering | 100 marks |
| (2) Line Drawing and Map
Colouring | 75 marks |

Candidates must attain in each subject a standard satisfactory to the Commissioners; the final order of merit of the candidates will be determined by their total marks in the two subjects. Even if there are unfilled vacancies, no candidate will be appointed who does not reach a standard in each subject which satisfies the Commissioners. The Commissioners' decision will be final.

7. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g. the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners. This does not apply to teachers trained in England or Wales.

8. Fee.

An application fee of 7s. 6d. is payable by all candidates. This must be sent with the application form, and is not returnable in any circumstances. A further fee of 12s. 6d., being the balance of the prescribed fee of £1, must be paid by each candidate on admission to the examination.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competition will be held under the above Regulations commencing on 30th August, 1956.

Applications on the prescribed form for admission to the Competition should be received by the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission on or before 12th July, 1956. Application forms may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACTS, 1944 AND 1947.

EXTINGUISHMENT OF PUBLIC RIGHTS OF WAY.

City of Plymouth.

Notice is hereby given that the Minister of Housing and Local Government, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by section 23 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1944, as incorporated with the Town and Country Planning Act, 1947, has prepared in draft and proposes to make an Order extinguishing the public rights of way over part of Cobourg Lane, Plymouth.

A copy of the draft Order and of a map showing the rights of way proposed to be extinguished may be inspected at the Town Clerk's Office, Pounds House, Plymouth, without payment of fee during the usual office hours.

Any objections to this proposal must be made in writing, and addressed to the Minister of Housing and Local Government, Whitehall, London, S.W.1, not later than the 1st day of September, 1956.

The Minister is not, in all cases, required to cause a local inquiry to be held. It is important, therefore, that an objection should include a full statement in writing of the grounds on which the objection is made, as the objector may have no further opportunity to make such a statement.

Dated this 29th day of May, 1956.

E. H. T. Wiltshire, Assistant Secretary, Ministry of Housing and Local Government.

NOTICE OF SEIZURE UNDER THE CUSTOMS AND EXCISE ACT, 1952.

To:—Friedrich Lindner,
Kaufbeuren—Neugablonz,
Germany.

Date 1st June, 1956.

Pursuant to section 275 (5) of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952, and paragraph 1 of the 7th Schedule thereto, the Commissioners of Customs and Excise hereby give you notice that by virtue of the powers contained in the customs and excise Acts and enactments amending those Acts, certain goods, namely one package, marked M.C.107, containing assorted imitation stones and 8½ gross imitation jewellery components imported at London Airport on 18th July, 1955, in aircraft G—ANHA and entered to free entry No. 01943/29.7.55 have been seized upon the grounds that:—

(1) Certain of the "imitation stones", namely those described on invoice 5301/55 as numbers E11075, E9798, E15424 and P10056 and the 8½ gross imitation jewellery components are goods chargeable with a duty of customs and were, without payment of that duty, unloaded from an aircraft in the United Kingdom, whereby and by force of section 44 (a) of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952, the said goods are liable to forfeiture;

(2) The said "imitation stones" described on invoice 5301/55 as numbers E11075, E9798, E15424 and P10056 together with 8½ gross imitation jewellery components made of plastic were imported contrary to the prohibition for the time being in force with respect thereto by virtue of the Import of Goods (Control) Order, 1954, made under section 1 of the Import, Export and Customs Powers (Defence) Act, 1939, whereby and by force of section 44 (b) of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952, and section 3 (1) of the Import, Export and Customs Powers (Defence) Act, 1939, the said goods are liable to forfeiture;

(3) 8½ gross imitation jewellery components made of plastic were imported concealed in a container, namely the said package marked M.C.107 holding goods of a different description, namely glass imitation stones, whereby and by force of section 44 (d) of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952, the said goods are liable to forfeiture;

(4) The contents of the said package marked M.C.107 were found not to correspond with the entry made thereof because the entry declared the contents of the said package to be beads of glass, namely loose glass stones, none of which is liable to any customs duty, when in fact the said contents included items, referred to at (1) above, liable to duty and in addition included 8½ gross imitation jewellery components made of plastic, whereby and by force of section 44 (e) of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952, the said goods are liable to forfeiture;

(5) The remaining contents of the said package marked M.C.107 were packed with the goods referred to at (1), (2), (3) and (4) above being goods liable to forfeiture under the customs Acts, whereby and by force of section 277 (1) of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952, the said goods are liable to forfeiture.

If you claim that the said goods are not liable to forfeiture you must within one month from the date of this notice of seizure give notice of your claim in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 3 of the 7th Schedule to the said Customs and Excise Act, 1952, specifying the name and address of a solicitor in England who is authorised to accept service of process and to act on your behalf. In default of such notice the said goods will be deemed to have been duly condemned as forfeited and will be liable to be disposed of in such manner as the Commissioners of Customs and Excise may direct. If you make such claim within the time aforesaid, legal proceedings will be taken for the condemnation thereof.

NOTICE OF SEIZURE UNDER THE CUSTOMS AND EXCISE ACT, 1952.

To:—Friedrich Lindner,
Kaufbeuren-Neugablonz,
Germany.

1st June, 1956.

Pursuant to section 275 (5) of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952, and paragraph 1 of the 7th Schedule thereto, the Commissioners of Customs and Excise hereby give you notice that by virtue of the powers contained in the Customs and Excise Acts and enactments amending those Acts, certain goods, to wit one package, marked M.C.109 London, containing components for imitation jewellery, imported at London Airport on the 15th August, 1955, in aircraft G-AMOE and entered to prime entry No. 08184/29.8.55, have been seized as liable to forfeiture upon the grounds that the said goods were imported contrary to the prohibition for the time being in force with respect thereto by virtue of the Import of Goods (Control) Order, 1954, made under section 1 of the Import, Export and Customs Powers (Defence) Act, 1939. Whereby and by force of section 44 (b) of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952, the said goods are liable to forfeiture.

If you claim that the said goods are not liable to forfeiture you must within one month from the date of this notice of seizure give notice of your claim in accordance with the said Schedule to the said Act specifying the name and address of a solicitor in England who is authorised to accept service of process and to act on your behalf, in default of such notice the said goods will be deemed to have been duly condemned as forfeited and will be liable to be disposed of in such manner as the Commissioners of Customs and Excise may direct. If you make such claim within the time aforesaid, legal proceedings will be taken for the condemnation thereof.
