1. Age.

Candidates for appointment as Psychologist must be at least 21 and under 31 years of age on 1st August, 1956. But a candidate who has served or is serving on a regular (including a regular short-service) engagement in H.M. Forces may for this purpose deduct from his actual age the period of such service rendered before 1st August, 1956.

2. Sex and Marriage.

(i) Both men and women may compete under these Regulations, but the number of vacancies available for women may be restricted. Women will not be assigned to the Admiralty, and certain vacancies in other Departments may be reserved for men or for women.

(ii) Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before 15th October, 1946, or who are widowed or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid. Provided that this undertaking will not be required if the break between the first period of service (including any period of unestablished service immediately following the period in respect of which the gratuity was paid) and the date of re-establishment is more than seven years.

3. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either:—

- (i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject; or of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalised British subjects, they must have resided in Her Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with Her Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

Provided that a candidate will not be eligible for an appointment under the Admiralty, War Office, or Ministry of Supply unless he is a natural-born British subject and born within the United Kingdom or in one of the self-governing dominions of parents also born within the United Kingdom or in one of the self-governing dominions, except when the circumstances are such as to justify a departure from the general rule, in which case provided the candidate satisfies the conditions prescribed by the preceding paragraphs, he may be admitted to appointment by special permission of the First Lord of the Admiralty, Secretary of State for War, or Minister of Supply, as the case may be.

4. Qualifications.

(1) Candidates must have professional qualifications or experience in Psychology as stated below:—

(a) A first or second class honours degree of a recognised University in which Psychology was taken as a main subject; or

(iii) was elected as an Associate of the Society after 1943.

Candidates taking the Final examinations under (a), (b), (c), (d) above in Summer 1956 may compete, but they will not be offered appointment unless they obtain the qualification concerned by 31st August, 1956.

5. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

6. Competition.

The candidates who appear from their applications to have the best qualifications and experience will be invited to interview in London before a Selection Board, which will recommend to the Civil Service Commissioners those considered most suitable for appointment. The Commissioners' decision will be final.

7. Candidates trained as Teachers.

Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland), has been notified to the Commissioners. This does not apply to teachers trained in England or Wales.

8. Assignment.

The Commissioners will decide to which Department each successful candidate is to be assigned. Assignment will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service, but the wishes of candidates will be respected as far as possible.

9. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.
