Whitehall, November 2, 1956.

The following Address was presented to The QUEEN to-day on the occasion of Her Majesty's visit to the Borough of Wallingford:—

May it please Your Majesty.

We the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of Wallingford, with humble duty, extend to Your Majesty our most loyal and affectionate greetings.

We are all deeply conscious of the great honour accorded to us by Your Majesty's gracious visit, it is a memorable occasion for those of us who are present, and will long be remembered by us all.

It also emphasises and renews, the long association between the Crown, and this Ancient Borough.

Last year, as Your Majesty is aware, we celebrated an Historic occasion, the 800th Anniversary of the Granting of our Charter of Incorporation by His Majesty King Henry II, and it was but natural that we should have then looked back over our long history, and especially at the events we were then commemorating.

It was here that the Treaty was signed between King Stephen and Henry, Duke of Normandy, which established the succession to the Throne of England, and to-day, Your Majesty, you are standing within a stone's throw of where this Treaty was signed.

Through the Centuries, Wallingford has shown its close and devoted adherence to the Crown, and it is a matter of pride that Your Majesty has graciously consented to unveil a Plaque recording Your Majesty's visit, and commemorating the granting of our Charter.

We are constantly aware in our hearts, of Your Majesty's arduous and exacting duties, and we welcome the opportunity thus given us, of assuring Your Majesty of Wallingford's continued loyalty and heartfelt devotion, and we pray that Your Majesty's reign over us may be long and happy.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

Thank you, Mr. Mayor, for your Loyal Address and for the warm and affectionate welcome with which the people of Wallingford have greeted me today.

I am very happy to be here so soon after you have celebrated such an important event in your history. In the Charter which was granted to you in 1155, King Henry II gave your ancestors very wide privileges in recognition "of the service and great labour they underwent on his behalf in obtaining his hereditary right of England". As his successor, I am very glad to unveil the plaque which commemorates my visit here some eight hundred years later.

The assurances which you have given to me, Mr. Mayor, bear witness to the constant allegiance of this Borough to the Sovereign throughout eight centuries. In congratulating you on your long record and wishing you peace and prosperity in the years to come, I am confident that the burgesses of Wallingford will never fail in loyalty and devotion to the Crown.

Whitehall, November 2, 1956.

The following Address was presented to The QUEEN to-day on the occasion of the re-opening by Her Majesty of the County Hall in the Borough of Abingdon:—

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please Your Majesty.

We the Mayor Aldermen and Burgesses of Abingdon unite in offering a loyal and affectionate welcome to Your Majesty.

We are grateful for the honour conferred upon our ancient Borough by this Your Majesty's gracious visit in this the fourth centenary year of its incorporation.

In the wide realms over which Your Majesty is Sovereign are many ancient cities and towns. None looks backward more proudly on its share in English history, or forward more eagerly to rendering service in an age fraught with scientific progress than Abingdon. Our Abbey was founded over twelve hundred years ago, and around it grew a civil community which from time to time was granted licences and Charters among other purposes for building Abingdon Bridge, establishing Charities and maintaining the School which is one of the most ancient in England. Our Charter of Incorporation was granted in November, 1556, by Queen Mary I and King Philip, and since then we have been privileged by the grant of nine further Charters between 1665 and 1836.

As the centre of a prosperous farming area, Abingdon was for three centuries the County town of Berks and is still a Quarter Sessions Borough.

Our Guildhall is over 500 years old, and in 1677 the Corporation commenced to build the County Hall as the seat of the County Assizes which continued to be held here until 1868. This building has been restored by Your Majesty's Minister of Works and we are deeply honoured that Your Majesty has graciously consented to re-open it and to inspect the civic treasures contained therein.

Ancient industries such as malting, brewing and the preparation of leather contribute alike with the manufacture of motor cars and concrete products to the prosperity of a town whose merchandise is to be found the world over.

We shall ever pray most devoutly that by the Grace of God Your Majesty may reign long, peacefully and happily over us, your loyal subjects.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

Mr. Mayor,

I thank you for the loyal and affectionate welcome I have been given to-day on my first visit here.

I heard with great interest of the history of Abingdon and of the influence of such different forces as religion and communications on your development over the centuries. Abingdon has long had pride in its origins. To-day, as it celebrates the four hundredth anniversary of the grant of its first Charter, it looks with confidence to its future. New industries have risen around you and these unite with your older industries to foster the prosperity of this ancient town.

In your County Hall you have an enviable memorial of your long and honourable story. I am very glad indeed that my Minister of Works should have restored it, and it will give me great pleasure to re-open it and see the civic treasures and records which it contains. Before I do so, let me wish you, Mr. Mayor, and all who live in this ancient Borough, peace and prosperity in the years to come.

Proceedings up to 10 p.m. each day are reported in the issue on sale at 8.30 the following morning at the Government Bookshop in Kingsway. A Weekly Edition is also published, and bound volumes are issued periodically during the session. Standing Orders can be accepted, if a suitable deposit is sent, for debates on definite subjects.
