PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"And whereas we deem it expedient to revise and to improve the provision for the grant of pensions to the widows and children of officers and seamen and marines in respect of service in the Royal Navy and Royal Marines, and to provide gratuities for the widows and children of officers and seamen and marines who die in the course of such service:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorise us to award pensions and gratuities at the rates and subject to the conditions specified in the Schedule annexed hereto:

"SECTION IV""Conditions Governing the Award of Widows' and Children's Pensions"*Widows' Pensions

"7. To be eligible for pension a widow must have been married to the officer or seaman or marine before his retirement or discharge to pension, or, if he subsequently gave further service in circumstances rendering him eligible to be considered for a re-assessment of retired pay or service pension, before the termination of such further service.

"8. If the death of the officer or seaman or marine occurred within a year of his marriage it shall be for the Admiralty to determine whether the circumstances of the case warrant the withholding or restriction of the award which would normally be admissible.

"9. A widow's pension shall cease on her re-marriage, but if she again becomes a widow her pension may be restored in whole, or in part, provided her pecuniary circumstances are, in the opinion of the Admiralty, such as to justify the restoration.

Children's Pensions

"10. Children's pensions may be granted, subject to the conditions stated, to:—

"(a) Legitimate children of the officer or seaman or marine where the mother is, or would have been, eligible for a widow's pension.

"(b) Step-children of the officer or seaman or marine where the mother is, or would have been, eligible for a widow's pension, and who were mainly dependent on him at the time of death.

"(c) Children adopted by the officer or seaman or marine, or by his wife, before his retirement or discharge to pension (or, if he subsequently gave further service in circumstances rendering him eligible to be considered for a re-assessment of retired pay or service pension, before the termination of such further service), who were mainly dependent on him at the time of his death.

"(d) Illegitimate children of the officer or seaman or marine, or of his wife, born before his retirement or discharge to pension (or, if he subsequently gave further service in circumstances rendering him eligible to be considered for a re-assessment of retired pay or service pension, before the termination of such further service), who were mainly dependent on him at the time of his death.

"11. Children's pensions will normally cease when the child attains the age of 18 years in the case of officers and Regimental Sergeant Majors, R.M., or the age of 16 years in the case of lower ranks, but may be granted or continued after those ages:—

"(a) if the child continues in receipt of full-time education, or is an apprentice receiving not more than nominal wages, or

"(b) if the child was, before attaining the normal age limit as above laid down, and still is, afflicted with some mental or bodily infirmity, and thereby rendered incapable of earning his or her own living, provided the pecuniary circumstances of the child and family are considered by the Admiralty to justify the award.

"12. Children's pensions shall be issuable to the widow or mother of the child, or other person responsible for the child's maintenance, or to the child direct, as may be decided by the Admiralty.

"Pensions of children of officers and of Regimental Sergeant Majors, R.M., may be issued annually in advance, with effect from the 1st April in each year.

"Conditions—General.

"13. A widow's or child's pension cannot be claimed as a right.

"14. A widow's or child's pension shall not be given if the service of the officer or seaman or marine was, in the opinion of the Admiralty, unsatisfactory.

"15. If the death of an officer or rating or marine, or the wound, injury or disease which resulted in his death, was due wholly or in part to his own negligence or misconduct or to any cause within his control, any grant which might otherwise have been made to his widow or children may be withheld or reduced in amount at the discretion of the Admiralty.

"16. If an officer retired, dismissed the Service, or called upon to retire for misconduct or inefficiency, or a rating or marine discharged for misconduct or inefficiency, was not granted any retired pay or pension in respect of his service, no award shall be made to the family. If reduced retired pay or pension was allowed, the award to the widow shall be reduced by one-half the percentage of such reduction.

"17. A pension shall not be granted or continued where the applicant is unworthy nor, subject to any exception which the Admiralty may approve, shall it be granted to a widow who was separated from her husband at the time of his death. Should an exception be approved, the grant shall be at such rate, within the scales laid down, and subject to such conditions, as the Admiralty may determine.

"18. If the applicant is granted any other pension or allowance from the public on account of the services of the deceased, whether in the Royal Navy or in the Royal Marines or in any other capacity, the amount of such other grant may be taken into consideration, and the award permissible under this Schedule may be withheld or reduced at the discretion of the Admiralty.

"19. No award under Sections I, II or III shall be payable to a widow or child who is in receipt of a pension or allowance on the ground that the death of the officer or seaman or marine concerned was due to his service in the Royal Navy or Royal Marines.

"20. In exceptional circumstances, the Admiralty may at their discretion suspend or withhold the whole or any part of a pension granted under this Schedule, and they may divert the whole or any part for the benefit of persons dependent on the pensioner.

"21. The date of commencement of pension shall be determined according to the circumstances of the case and shall normally, if application is not unduly delayed, be the date following death, or the date following the termination of allowances issuable after death.

"Commutation of Retired Pay under the Pensions Commutation Acts.

"22. The wife and children of an officer who commutes his retired pay wholly or partially, under the Pensions Commutation Acts of 1871 to 1882, shall not thereby be deprived of any entitlement to pension under this Schedule, but the award to the widow of an officer whose marriage took place after commutation, to a legitimate or illegitimate child born after commutation, to a step-child eligible by virtue of a marriage after commutation, or to a child adopted after commutation, shall be reduced by an amount corresponding to the proportion of retired pay commuted.

"SECTION V.

"Revision of 'Ordinary' Pension Scheme.

"23. The following changes shall be made in the provision for the grant of 'Ordinary' pensions and compassionate allowances to the widows and children of officers and Sergeant Majors, R.M., made in earlier Orders in Council, and all such Orders in Council shall be construed, as from 1st December, 1952, as amended accordingly:—

"(a) The pecuniary circumstances of the applicant or pensioner shall be ignored, except insofar as they relate to the restoration of widows' pensions on second widowhood, or to the grant or continuance of a compassionate allowance on account of infirmity to children over the normal age limits for such awards.

"(b) Differences in age between husband and wife, and the husband's age on marriage, shall not be taken into account.

"(c) Pension may be granted notwithstanding that the husband did not survive his marriage by at least a year, if the circumstances are considered to justify the award.

"(d) Marriage before retirement or before discharge to pension shall not be a condition where the officer or Sergeant Major, R.M., gave further service qualifying for a re-assessment of retired pay or pension, and married before the termination of such further service.

"(e) Re-employed service after 2nd September, 1939, may be reckoned, if the officer or Sergeant Major, R.M., received (or if he died during such service, would have been eligible to receive) retired pay or pension, or a re-assessed award, in respect of such service; higher rank held during the re-employment may be taken into account to the same extent as for retired pay purposes.

16th November, 1956.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

RECRUITMENT FROM UNIVERSITY GRADUATES TO THE EXECUTIVE CLASS OF THE HOME CIVIL SERVICE AND GRADE 5 POSTS IN BRANCH B OF THE FOREIGN SERVICE.

1. No candidate may compete more than twice in the annual competitions for recruitment to the Executive Class from university graduates.

2. Age.

Candidates must be at least 20½ and under 24 years of age on the 1st August, 1957. But a candidate who has served or is serving in H.M. Forces may deduct from his actual age the period of such service rendered before the 1st August, 1957.

3. Sex.

Both men and women are eligible, but women will not ordinarily be appointed to posts in the Admiralty or War Office or to the Immigration Service of the Home Office.

4. Marriage.

(a) Married women are not eligible for appointment to Branch B of the Foreign Service; a woman member of Branch B must resign her appointment on marriage.

(b) The approval of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs is required before a successful male candidate who is married takes up a Foreign Service appointment.

5. Nationality.

(1) To be eligible for appointment (other than to a situation in the Foreign Service) a candidate must be a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic and in addition satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) if he was a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth—

(i) at least one of his parents must be, or have been at death, a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic, or

(ii) the candidate must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(b) if he was not a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth, he must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(c) if not qualified under sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, he must satisfy the Commissioners that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

(2) A candidate will not be eligible for appointment to a situation in the Foreign Service unless at all times since his birth he has been either a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and was born of parents each of whom is or was at death a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and has or had been one or the other at all times since birth:

Provided that, notwithstanding that the aforesaid conditions are not satisfied, he may, by special permission of the Secretary of State, be admitted to appointment if—

(i) he has at all times since his birth been either a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic, and

(ii) his father is or was at death a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and has or had been one or the other at all times from birth, and

(iii) he satisfies the Secretary of State that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

6. Education.

Candidates must either (a) have obtained a degree at a recognised university, or (b) be in the last year of a course for a degree at a recognised university. In the latter case, they will not be appointed (if declared successful) unless they produce evidence, not later than 1st September of the year in which they compete, that they have obtained their degree.

7. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character.

8. Examination.

(i) The examination consists of the following:—

(A) A written examination in

(a) three compulsory subjects, namely Essay, English, and Present Day, for each of which a maximum of 100 marks is allotted, and

(b) a selection from the optional subjects set out in the Appendix. Subject to the provisions in the Appendix, candidates may take optional subjects up to a total of 500 marks. (The marks awarded on these optional subjects will be adjusted to a maximum of 700 marks, making 1,000 marks in all for the written examination.)

(B) An interview before the Final Interview Board, which will award a mark out of a maximum of 300 for the candidate's record, intelligence, and personal qualities.

(ii) The final order of merit will be determined by the total marks gained in the whole examination. In the event of a tie between two or more candidates the Commissioners will decide which to declare successful.

9. Candidates trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers elsewhere than in England and Wales and upon whose training public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

10. Assignment.

The Commissioners will decide to which Department each successful candidate is to be assigned. Assignments will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service, but the wishes of candidates will, where possible, be taken into account. A candidate who declines to accept the post offered will have no claim to be assigned to another, but will be regarded as having declined appointment.

In order to be eligible for assignment to Branch B of the Foreign Service candidates will be required to satisfy the Final Interview Board that they have the ability to learn languages.

11. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them on their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

12. Fee.

The total fee payable by all candidates is £2. Of this £1 must be paid on application.
