

Whitehall, 29th March, 1957.

The QUEEN has been pleased to issue a Commission under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual in form following:—

ELIZABETH R.

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Our other Realms and Territories QUEEN, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith, To

Our Trusty and Well-beloved:—

Sir Harry Pilkington, Knight;

Sir David Hughes Parry, Knight, one of Our Counsel learned in the Law, Professor of English Law in the University of London;

Sir Hugh Watson, Knight, Deputy Keeper of Our Signet;

John Jewkes, Esquire, Commander of Our Most Excellent Order of the British Empire, Professor of Economic Organisation in the University of Oxford;

Samuel Watson, Esquire, Commander of Our Most Excellent Order of the British Empire;

John Henry Gunlake, Esquire, Commander of Our Most Excellent Order of the British Empire, Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries, Fellow of the Royal Statistical Society;

Kathleen Mary Carver Baxter;

Arthur Desmond Bonham-Carter, Esquire, upon whom has been conferred the Territorial Decoration;

Ian Donald McIntosh, Esquire, Master of Arts, Greeting!

WHEREAS We have deemed it expedient that a Commission should forthwith issue to consider (a) How the levels of professional remuneration from all sources now received by doctors and dentists taking any part in the National Health Service compare with the remuneration received by members of other professions, by other members of the medical and dental professions, and by people engaged in connected occupations; (b) What, in the light of the foregoing, should be the proper current levels of remuneration of such doctors and dentists by the National Health Service; (c) Whether, and if so what, arrangements should be made to keep that remuneration under review: And to make recommendations:

Now Know Ye that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your knowledge and ability, have authorized and appointed, and do by these Presents authorize and appoint you the said Sir Harry Pilkington (Chairman); Sir David Hughes Parry; Sir Hugh Watson; John Jewkes; Samuel Watson; John Henry Gunlake; Kathleen Mary Carver Baxter; Arthur Desmond Bonham-Carter and Ian Donald McIntosh to be Our Commissioners for the purposes of the said inquiry:

And for the better effecting of the purposes of this Our Commission, We do by these Presents give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you, full power to call before you such persons as you shall judge likely to afford you any information upon the subject of this Our Commission; to call for information in writing; and also to call for, have access to and examine all such books, documents, registers and records as may afford you the fullest information on the subject and to inquire of and concerning the premises by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever:

And We do by these Presents authorize and empower you, or any of you, to visit and personally inspect such places as you may deem it expedient so to inspect for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes aforesaid:

And We do by these Presents will and ordain that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment:

And We do further ordain that you, or any three or more of you, have liberty to report your proceedings under this Our Commission from time to time if you shall judge it expedient so to do:

And Our further will and pleasure is that you do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us your opinion upon the matters herein submitted for your consideration.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's the twenty-seventh day of March, 1957; In the Sixth Year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command.

TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England, on Friday, the 5th April, 1957, at 1 p.m. for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the National Loans Act, 1939, to the amount of £250,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5,000, £10,000, £25,000, £50,000 or £100,000. They will be dated at the option of the tenderer on any business day from Monday, the 8th April, 1957, to Saturday, the 13th April, 1957, inclusive, and will be due 91 days after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000 and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. Notification will be sent by post on the same day as Tenders are received, to the persons whose Tenders are accepted in whole or in part, and payment in full of the amounts due in respect of such accepted Tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 1.30 p.m. (Saturday, 11.30 a.m.) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.
