TO THE QUEEN's MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

The Humble Loyal and Dutiful Address of the Borough of Romsey.

May it please Your Majesty:

We the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Romsey do humbly desire to offer to Your Majesty and to Your Royal Highness a loyal and dutiful welcome to this Borough.

We are deeply conscious of the honour conferred upon us by Your gracious presence here today and we wish to assure you not only of our loyalty but also of our affectionate regard.

We recall with gratitude favours conferred upon Romsey in the past and particularly the granting of Charters to the Borough by Your Majesty's royal predecessors King James I and King William III, and we look to the future with confidence and determination that our Borough will use to the best advantage the powers entrusted to it.

We hope that Your Majesty and Your Royal Highness will keep happy memories of an occasion which will not only be a landmark in the annals of our Borough but will be treasured in our hearts always.

We do earnestly pray that God may bless Your Majesty and Your Royal Highness in all your undertakings, knowing as we do your devotion to the welfare of this realm of England which we all love and which you cherish with such affection.

Given under the Common Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of Romsey this Sixth day of April, One thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven.

H. G. Mackrell, Mayor.

K. C. E. Holmes, Town Clerk.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

Thank you Mr. Mayor for the loyal and affectionate terms of the Address of the Borough of Romsey and for the warmth of the welcome with which you have received me and my husband.

It is always a real pleasure to both of us to visit Romsey—a place of which we have the most happy memories. We are especially pleased to be with you when you are celebrating the 350th anniversary of the grant of your charter of incorporation; and we look forward to joining with you in the service of thanksgiving on this occasion in your ancient Abbey, where we have so often worshipped.

The stream of history has quietly flowed through your town, and its course has been marked by a long tradition of good management of the affairs of the Borough in which the Corporation may take very proper pride. Against this background Mr. Mayor, you and your colleagues can confidently survey the years to come and I am sure that it will ever be your purpose to maintain this high tradition.

My husband and I take this opportunity of congratulating you on your achievements and of expressing our good wishes for the welfare, happiness and prosperity of the people of Romsey.
