Insurance (Unemployment and Sickness Benefit) Amendment (No. 2) Regulations, 1957.

A short explanatory note on these regulations is appended to this notice.

Copies of the preliminary draft of these regulations may be purchased directly (price 4d.) from Her Majesty's Stationery Office at the following addresses:—York House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2; 13a, Castle Street, Edinburgh 2; 39, King Street, Manchester 2; 109, St. Mary Street, Cardiff; 80, Chichester Street, Belfast; or through any bookseller.

The Committee will take into consideration any objection, made by or on behalf of persons affected, sent to them before 16th July, 1957. Objections should be addressed to the Secretary, National Insurance Advisory Committee, 10, John Adam Street, London, W.C.2.

Ifor Evans, Chairman.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

These Regulations amend those provisions of the National Insurance (Unemployment and Sickness Benefit) Regulations, 1948, which provide for the taking into account, for the purposes of unemployment and sickness benefit, of contributions other than those of the appropriate class; those provisions which prohibit (in the case of an insured person who is following any gainful occupation) a day's being treated as a day of unemployment; those provisions which prescribe, in relation to a female relative of a person entitled to unemployment benefit or sickness benefit, conditions to be fulfilled for the purpose of that person's right to an increase of benefit in respect of her and those provisions which prescribe relatives in respect of one of whom a person entitled to unemployment benefit or sickness benefit may be entitled to an increase of such benefit if the relative is residing with, and is wholly or mainly maintained by, the person so entitled. They also revoke those provisions which prescribe, in relation to a woman having the care of a child of the family of a person entitled to benefit of certain descriptions, conditions to be fulfilled for the purpose of that person's right to an increase of benefit in respect of her.
