(i) at least one of his parents must be, or have been at death, a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic, or

(ii) the candidate must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(b) if he was not a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth, he must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(c) if not qualified under sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, he must satisfy the Commissioners that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

4. Qualification.

Candidates must have had at least 10 years driving experience with different types of vehicle, and must have had wide experience of driving within the last 5 years (e.g. something in the region of 4,000 miles per annum will be looked for, but candidates with somewhat less experience will be considered if they are otherwise well qualified). Candidates must also have had at least 5 years experience of riding motor cycles, including some recent experience. They must know the Highway Code in detail and have sufficient clerical ability to enable them to write clear and accurate reports. Additional advantages will be some knowledge of the various types of motor cycles on the road, a general knowledge of road transport law as it affects commercial passenger and goods vehicles, and experience of driving tuition and testing and of conducting interviews.

N.B.—Candidates convicted of certain motoring offences will not be eligible to compete.

5. Competition.

Candidates who appear from their application forms to have the best qualifications and experience will be given a special driving test conducted by Supervising Examiners of Driving Tests of the Ministry of Transport and Civil Aviation.

This test will call for an extremely high standard of driving competence; the standard is very much higher than that required for a learner-driver test. Its purpose is to ensure that successful candidates possess thorough knowledge of the principles of good driving and have the ability to apply them, since, if successful in the Competition, they will be called upon to assess the driving competence of others.

In particular, the Examiners will look for

(i) ability to read at a distance of 100 feet in good daylight (with the aid of glasses if worn) a motor car number plate containing six letters and figures;

(ii) expert handling of all controls;

(iii) detailed knowledge and application of the Highway Code and of correct road procedure;

(iv) the ability to anticipate the actions of other road users and to take appropriate action;

(v) sound judgment of speed and distance;

(vi) consideration for other road users.

The result of the driving test will depend solely on the candidate's performance under test conditions, including his answers to questions on the Highway Code.

Those who pass the test will be called before a Selection Board, which will test their general knowledge of cars and of motor cycles, and the extent of their general knowledge of road transport law. The Selection Board will also take into account a candidate's record of education and experience, any recommendations they may have received from persons named by the candidate as having direct knowledge of his work in the past, and the personal qualities of the candidate as shown at the interview. The Board will recommend to the Commissioners for appointment the candidates who appear most suitable. The decision of the Commissioners will be final.

6. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

7. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers, elsewhere than in England or Wales, and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g. the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

8. Refund of Marriage Gratuity.

Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before 15th October, 1946, or who are widows or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid provided that this undertaking will not be required if the break between the first period of service (including any period of unestablished service immediately following the period in respect of which the gratuity was paid) and the date of re-establishment is more than seven years.

9. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

10. Fee.

Every successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £1 10s. before the issue of a certificate of qualification for appointment.

NATIONAL INSURANCE ADVISORY COMMITTEE.

Notice of submission of Preliminary Draft Regulations entitled THE NATIONAL INSURANCE (HOSPITAL IN-PATIENTS) AMENDMENT REGULATIONS, 1957.

In accordance with section 77 of the National Insurance Act, 1946, the National Insurance Advisory Committee give notice that they have received from the Joint Authority (comprising the Minister of Pensions and National Insurance and the Minister of Labour and National Insurance for Northern Ireland) for consideration and report thereon the preliminary draft of regulations entitled the National Insurance (Hospital In-Patients) Amendment Regulations, 1957.

A short explanatory note on these regulations is appended to this notice.

Copies of the preliminary draft of these regulations may be purchased directly (price 8d.) from Her Majesty's Stationery Office at the following addresses:—York House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2; 13A, Castle Street, Edinburgh 2; 39, King Street, Manchester 2; 109, St. Mary Street, Cardiff; 80, Chichester Street, Belfast, or through any bookseller.

The Committee will take into consideration any objection, made by or on behalf of persons affected, sent to them before 13th August, 1957. Having regard to the terms of the Act, which provides that objections must be made within a period of 28 days at most, the Committee are unable to allow a longer period within which objections may be submitted. If an objection is submitted within the prescribed time, however, the Committee will be prepared, if they are satisfied that sufficient grounds exist, to allow the later submission of evidence or explanation in support of the objection. Objections should be addressed to the Secretary, National Insurance Advisory Committee, 10, John Adam Street, London, W.C.2.

Ifor Evans, Chairman.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

These Regulations amend those provisions of the National Insurance (Hospital In-Patients) Regulations, 1949, as previously amended ("the principal regulations") which provide for the adjustment of personal benefit (as defined in the principal regulations) under the National Insurance Act, 1946, in certain cases where the beneficiary is receiving free in-patient treatment (as so defined) after having received that treatment continuously for a period of not less than 52 weeks. The amendment of those provisions is effected by adding special provisions which apply in certain cases where the beneficiary is married. These Regulations also substitute new provisions for those of the principal regulations which relate to dependency benefit (as so defined) under that Act. The provisions which are substituted substantially reproduce those of the principal regulations which impose a condition for the receipt of dependency benefit in certain cases where the beneficiary is receiving free in-patient treatment after having received that treatment continuously for a period of not less than 52 weeks; but they also provide for the adjustment of dependency benefit under that Act in certain cases where the person in respect of whom that benefit is payable is the husband or wife of the beneficiary and is receiving free in-patient treatment. By virtue of the substituted provisions, some dependency benefit under the Act in respect of a person receiving free in-patient treatment may (at the instance of the beneficiary) become payable to the patient if and when he or she is discharged from hospital; and these Regulations provide also for the addition to the principal regulations of a provision (similar to the existing provision relating to personal benefit which is payable on the beneficiary's discharge from hospital) which applies in all cases where, under the principal regulations as amended by these Regulations, the payment to a person of any sum by way of benefit is conditional upon the payee's discharge from hospital. The remaining provisions are of a minor or consequential character.
