CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

St. James's Palace, S.W.1.

19th July, 1957.

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to approve the award of the George Medal to the undermentioned, in recognition of gallant conduct in carrying out hazardous work in a very brave manner:—

Captain George PROSSER (345482), Royal Army Ordnance Corps.

Captain PROSSER has been on constant call to go anywhere at any time to deal with all bombs, grenades, booby traps and other explosives reported by the Royal Ulster Constabulary or any of the Services since terrorist activities began in December last year.

In all, twenty-six incidents have been dealt with by him, some of which were comparatively simple, but a number were hazardous in the extreme, requiring courage of the highest order, great technical skill and outstanding devotion to duty.

On 13th December, 1956, Captain PROSSER was called to Belfast Docks to open a suspicious suitcase that had been found by the Royal Ulster Constabulary. On arrival he was told that the suitcase had been "ticking" when found but had subsequently ceased. Captain PROSSER without hesitation opened the suitcase which was found to contain 54 lbs. of explosive together with an electrical detonator and clockwork time fuse. Although fully aware of his extreme danger, he disconnected the fuse.

On 27th February, 1957, Captain PROSSER was called to examine and neutralise a complicated booby trap which had been discovered in a deserted house in Newry. After ten minutes of most hazardous investigation during which one slip might have meant instant destruction, this dangerous contraption, which contained 28 lbs. of gelignite was duly dismantled and rendered harmless by Captain PROSSER.

Throughout the campaign he has been subjected to the most extreme physical and mental strain, being called upon at all hours of the night to carry out work far outside the normal call of duty. By his specialist training he must have been constantly aware of the risks he was taking, but he has never hesitated to carry out his dangerous duties.
