The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR RECRUITMENT TO BASIC GRADES OF ARCHITECTS AND MAINTENANCE SURVEYORS.

1. Both men and women may compete under these Regulations, but women will not be eligible for War Department vacancies.

2. Age.

Candidates must be at least 25 and under 35 years of age on 1st July, 1957. But

(1) a candidate who has served or is serving on a regular (including a regular short-service) engagement in H.M. Forces may deduct from his actual age the period of such service rendered before 1st July, 1957;

(2) candidates who have served in any established post to which they were admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, or who have served on established conditions except for sick leave and pension in a post to which such a certificate would normally apply, may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding two years which they have spent in such service before 1st July, 1957;

(3) candidates over the age of 34 will be admitted to the competition if they have served in Government Departments as temporary Architects or Maintenance Surveyors for at least two years continuously up to their date of application.

3. Nationality.

(1) To be eligible for appointment (other than to a situation in the War Department) a candidate must be a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic and in addition satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) if he was a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth—

(i) at least one of his parents must be, or have been at death, a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic, or

(b) if he was not a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth he must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment;

(c) if not qualified under sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, he must satisfy the Commissioners that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

(2) A candidate will not be eligible for appointment to a situation in the War Department, unless (i) at all times since his birth he has been either a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and (ii) he was born in a country or territory which is (or then was) within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic and (iii) each of his parents was born in a country or territory which is (or then was) within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic and is or was at death a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and has or had been one or the other at all times from birth:

Provided that, notwithstanding that the aforesaid conditions are not satisfied, he may, if the conditions specified in paragraph (1) of this Regulation are satisfied, be admitted to appointment by special permission of the Secretary of State for War.

4. Qualifications.

A candidate who is taking before the closing date for applications, an examination necessary to qualify for admission to the competition will be admitted before the result of the examination is known, but he will not be declared successful unless on the result of the examination he obtains the requisite qualification.

All candidates should possess professional ability. Normally this should be supported by evidence of appropriate professional experience in private or outside practice or in the service of a Local Authority or Government Department. In all cases the candidate's professional ability will need to be effectively demonstrated within the period of probation (or corresponding period of trial).

(i) Architects.

Candidates must be registered Architects.

Candidates will have to satisfy the Commissioners of their capability in architectural design by producing drawings, sketches and/or other evidence before the Selection Board referred to in paragraph 5.

(ii) Maintenance Surveyors.

Candidates must either

(a) be Registered Architects, or

(b) have achieved Corporate Membership of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (Building Section), or

(c) have passed a degree or other examinations necessary for attaining Corporate Membership.

Candidates admitted under (c) will not have their appointments confirmed unless they attain corporate membership as defined in (b) above within their probation period.

5. Competition.

Those candidates who on the evidence of their application forms, and any further information which the Commissioners think necessary to obtain, are found to be prima facie eligible, will be summoned to a Selection Board. The Commissioners may, if they see fit, summon only those candidates who by reason of their experience and qualifications appear to be most suitable for appointment. The same Selection Board may consider a candidate at one interview for one or both of the classes. The Selection Boards will take into consideration the candidates' record of experience and training, any recommendation from persons named by the candidates as having direct knowledge of their work in the past, and the personal qualities of the candidates as shown at the interview. The decision of the Commissioners will be final and will be announced separately for each class.

6. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

7. Assignment.

The Commissioners will decide to which Department each successful candidate is to be assigned. Assignment will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service but candidate's preference as shown on his application form will be taken into account as far as possible.

Provided that this undertaking will not be required if the break between the first period of service (including any period of unestablished service immediately following the period in respect of which the gratuity was paid) and the date of re-establishment is more than seven years.

9. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Persons who have been trained as teachers, elsewhere than in England or Wales, and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority (e.g., the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

10. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their application through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named on their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

11. Fee.

A successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £4 before the issue of a Certificate of Qualification for appointment.

Civil Service Commission.

23rd July, 1957.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

(2) candidates who have served in any established post to which they were admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, or who have served on established conditions except for sick leave and pension in a post to which such a certificate would normally apply, may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding two years which they have spent in such service before 1st January, 1957.

(3) Candidates over the age of 34 will be admitted to the competition if they have served in Government Departments as temporary mechanical or electrical engineers in a General Service Class or Departmental Variant Class for at least two years continuously up to their date of application.

3. Nationality.

(1) To be eligible for appointment (other than to a situation in the Admiralty, War Department, Ministry of Supply or Government Communications Headquarters) a candidate must be a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic and in addition satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) if he was a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth—

(i) at least one of his parents must be, or have been at death, a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic, or

(ii) the candidate must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(b) if he was not a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth, he must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(c) if not qualified under sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, he must satisfy the Commissioners that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

(2) A candidate will not be eligible for appointment to a situation in the Admiralty, War Department, or Ministry of Supply unless (i) at all times since his birth he has been either a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and (ii) he was born in a country or territory which is (or then was) within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic and (iii) each of his parents was born in a country or territory which is (or then was) within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic and is or was at death a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and has or had been one or the other at all times from birth:

Provided that, notwithstanding that the aforesaid conditions are not satisfied, he may, if the conditions specified in paragraph (1) of this Regulation are satisfied, be admitted to appointment by special permission of the First Lord of the Admiralty, the Secretary of State for War or the Minister of Supply.

(3) A candidate will not be eligible for appointment to a situation in the Government Communications Headquarters unless at all times since his birth he has been either a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and was born of parents each of whom is or was at death a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and has or had been one or the other at all times since birth:

Provided that, notwithstanding that the aforesaid conditions are not satisfied, he may, by special permission of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, be admitted to appointment if he satisfies the requirement of (1) above.

4. Qualifications.

A candidate who is taking before the closing date for applications an examination necessary to qualify for admission to the competition will be admitted before the result of his examination is known. But he will not be declared successful unless on the result of the examination he obtains the requisite qualification.

All candidates should possess professional ability. Normally this should be supported by evidence of appropriate professional experience. In all cases the candidate's professional ability will need to be effectively demonstrated within the period of probation or the corresponding period of trial.

(A) GENERAL SERVICE CLASS POSTS.

(i) Every candidate must either

(a) have achieved Corporate Membership of the Institution of Civil Engineers, of the Institution of Mechanical Engineers, or of the Institution of Electrical Engineers; or

(b) have passed either the examinations necessary for Corporate Membership of one of the above-named Institutions (i.e. Parts I and II in the case of the Institution of Civil Engineers, Parts I, II and III in the case of the other two Institutions) or examinations recognised by any one of those Institutions as granting exemption from their examinations, provided that in either case Corporate Membership is achieved within the period of probation (or the corresponding period of trial). Exceptionally, however, where a candidate is prevented by circumstances outside his control from attaining corporate membership, appointment may be confirmed with the concurrence of the Treasury and the Civil Service Commissioners, provided that there is satisfactory evidence that the qualification is likely to be obtained within a reasonable time.

(ii) In addition candidates must have had adequate practical training and experience in work related to that of the Department(s) for which they are applying. Normally candidates are required to have served a regular apprenticeship or period of post-graduate training and in addition to have had at least two years' practical experience with an engineering concern of sufficient size and scope for them to have gained experience both of mechanical and electrical engineering together with more specialised knowledge in some particular branch (each candidate's record will be considered on its merits in relation to the vacancies available).

(iii) Exceptionally the Commissioners may, at their discretion, admit candidates otherwise qualified by evidence of very high professional attainment.

(B) DEPARTMENTAL POSTS.

(i) Ministry of Supply.

The qualifications required are the same as for the General Service competition (see Regulation 4 (A) above), except that Associate Fellowship of the Royal Aeronautical Society will be accepted as an alternative to Corporate Membership of one of the Institutions named in that Regulation and the examination for Associate Fellowship of the Royal Aeronautical Society, or an exempting qualification, will be accepted under (A) (i) (b) of that Regulation. Training under (A) (ii) must normally include an engineering apprenticeship or pupillage with a minimum period of two years in the workshops of an establishment of good standing, but full apprenticeship will not be insisted upon where a candidate has already achieved Corporate Membership of one of the approved Institutions or Associate Fellowship of the Royal Aeronautical Society.

(ii) Ministry of Transport and Civil Aviation—(Civil Aviation Organisation).

(a) Every candidate must

(i) have achieved Corporate Membership of the Institution of Electrical Engineers or Associate Fellowship of the Royal Aeronautical Society; or

(ii) have passed either Parts I, II and III of the Associate Membership examination of the Institution of Electrical Engineers or Parts I and II of the Associate Fellowship examination of the Royal Aeronautical Society, or examinations recognised by one of these institutions as giving exemption from their examinations; provided that Corporate Membership or Associate Fellowship is attained within the period of probation (or the corresponding period of trial), but exception may be made in special circumstances provided for in Regulation 4 (A) (i) (b) above; or

(iii) hold a first or second class honours degree in Physics or Engineering.

(b) In addition all candidates must produce evidence that both the examination subjects included in their qualifications and their practical experience justify their employment on civil aviation telecommunications duties.

(c) Exceptionally the Commissioners may, at their discretion, admit candidates otherwise qualified by evidence of very high professional attainment.

(iii) Post Office.

Candidates must normally possess an Honours degree in Mechanical or Electrical Engineering or in Physics, but exceptionally the Commissioners may accept any other candidate qualified under Regulation 4 (A) above. Practical experience is desirable but not essential for candidates for these posts.

5. Competition.

Those candidates who on the evidence of their application forms, and any further information which the Commissioners think necessary to obtain, are found to be prima facie eligible, will be summoned to a Selection Board. The Commissioners may, if they see fit, summon only those candidates who by reason of their experience and qualifications appear to be most suitable for appointment. The same Selection Board may consider a candidate at one interview for one or more of the classes. The Selection Board will take into consideration the candidates' record of experience and training, any recommendation from persons named by the candidates as having direct knowledge of their work in the past, and the personal qualities of the candidates as shown at the interview. The decisions of the Commissioners will be final.

6. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

7. Assignment.

The Commissioners will decide to which Department each successful candidate is to be assigned. Assignment will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service but the wishes of candidates will, where possible, be respected.

8. Marriage Gratuity.

Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before 15th October, 1946, or who are widows or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid. Provided that this undertaking will not be required if the break between the first period of service (including any period of unestablished service immediately following the period in respect of which the gratuity was paid) and the date of re-establishment is more than seven years.

9. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers, elsewhere than in England or Wales, at public expense, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority (e.g. the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

10. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their application through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

11. Fee.

A successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £4 before the issue of a Certificate of Qualification for appointment.
